"News" Advertisers are the Ones to Receive Your Patronage.

HOLIDAY ANNOUNCEMENTS AND WARES.

Buy Your Presents From the Following People—You Will be Well Treated, Not Cheated—Good Honest Goods and Fair Treatment Their Rule.

From day to day the Novel keeps before its large circle of readers a list of the responsible business houses and manufacturers of Salt Lake, contained in its advertising columns. On no occasion like the present it gives pleasure to call special attention to the names in that list, and recommend them to our patrons those whom to call the holiday trade to receive an endless variety of suitable and substantial presents.

Christmas comes but once a year, and the little ones must have their playthings, useful and ornamental. Even up to old age the present suited to the occasion is a boon gift. No child would willingly deprive the child of the blessed gifts of Santa Claus, bestowed as parental consideration and love will suggest, for happiness and substantial good; and among other people the appropriate Christmas gift will not be forgotten.

To go through the long list of advertisers, and describe the display and goods to fit the various lines of presents, useful and ornamental, would require more space than is at our command, so a brief and special reference will be accorded all, and those who have had holiday good, and other people the appropriate Christmas gift will not be forgotten.

Frost is in on all such occasions is E. C. M. L., East Temple street, in extensive departments in every line of merchandise, household and imported. There is hardly anything of a useful, substantial character which can be purchased here that is not in stock. In this mammoth institution, and at prices that cannot be complained at in consideration of the quality of goods. The fine, large windows are richly decorated, the broad and extensive hall crossings, the long, low rooms, with the chandeliers and fest of every variety and style of article fit for food and wear of other uses.

Another leading establishment is the big dry goods house of F. A. & J. on First Street, with large sales and advertising, positive and maiden, boys and girls, may find full choice of the apparel mentioned, as a "thorough and one" ornamental and substantial articles to suit the most fastidious taste, silk and velvet, cashmere and sables, satin and organza, and negligee as well as lingerie, are there in endless profusion and style, and the nail is not told.

In the same front rank is the extensive establishment of F. A. & J. on First Street, elegantly trimmed windows on East Temple street, between First and Second streets, are a strong and pleasing attraction to all who pass that way. There are dry goods, fancy goods, and specialty stores in both sections, and in the general store, stationery and writing goods in every line, shoes, and millinery, umbrellas, collars and everything that can be named in a first-class mercantile house.

To those who desire anything in the musical line D. O. Calvert's, 85, and 87 West, First South street, offers a handsome assortment of piano and organs on reasonable terms, and musical instruments of various descriptions. Musical attention is called to the "Symphony," an instrument sure to please. The Music palace was established in 1850 and is the first of the kind in the West.

Taggart & Chamberlain also offer organs and organs at their figures. Their show rooms are at 872 First Street.

Temple of Music, No. 209 South, West Temple street (P. O. Block), offers for the next few days a few special prices, and usually special prices. A grand opening is to be held on December 25th, for about half that price.

The Conter & Sanderlin are generally recognized as the best piano and organ repairers in the city, and their reputation is uniformly well deserved. A rule of this house is to handle only first class goods, and cater to the wants of the most highly educated public.
