New York, Dec. 18 .-- The general list advanced at the opening of the stock market today. Amalgamated Copper showed strength. The Gould stocks and the trunk lines made notable advances. A set-back in Amalgamated Copper to last night's price checked the rise elsewhere and speculation became dull and reactionary. Prices were on the upward grade at 11 o'clock and improved for a time despite renewed selling of Amalgamated Copper. Gains, however, were mostly centralized in the southwestern group and minor western stocks. Facific Mail gained 2 points. The active stocks commenced to ease off when Amalgamated fell nearly a point under yesterday. Heavy buying of Union Pacific lifted that stock to 102. Atchison, Rock Island, Southern Paciic and Illinois Central reached the best but there was some sluggishness in the general market which became easier when Amalgamated Copper receded to

Thousands of women are heroically suffering in silence while even relatives never guess the real truth about their condition. It is a living death to an ambitious woman to see her beauty fade and realize that slowly and surely, day by day, she is nearer an untimely grave, to know that the pangs of suffering are not only blighting her beauty but exhausting her physical strength and nervous and mental vitality. No hope comes from the doctor because he cannot cure-little sympathy from friends because they do not understand, but Wine of Cardui has brought a smile-the seal of health-to thousands of such faces. The Wine regulates the menstrual flow and strengthens the womanly organs. The relief from it comes quickly and naturally. A delightful feeling of security from the tension of pain tells the patient health is returning. Mrs. Turner suffered five years and no doctor could cure her.

Durant, I. T., January 12, 1901.

I feel so proud that my wife is a well woman that I want to tell it to the world. Her menses were so irregular that she was in misery all the time. Two prominent physicians treated her for nearly five years and after the doctors failed to do her any good she commenced to use patent medicines. At last she began using Wine of Cardul, which seemed to help her from the first bottle. After using seven bottles she is a sound and well woman. Her weight was 90 pounds when she began your treatment, to-day she weighs 130 pounds. She does her own housework—aome-thing she has not done for five years before I write you this testimonial unsolicited, because I want to let suffering humanity know what a great remedy Wine of Cardul is. You are at liberty to use my name. JACK TURNER, Stockman.

JACK HAVERLY'S EPITAPH.

It was while Jack Haverly's fortunes were on the wane and the once great manager was feeling the change in the tide of his affairs that Eugene Field wrote the poem beginning "Jack Hav-erly, Jack Haverly, I wonder where you are." Haverly was in New York at the time. Before a copy of the poem reached him by mail, a friend rushed into his office and exclaimed: "Jack, 'Gene Field has written a poem about you. It's great. Read it," and he hand-1914 ed the verses to the manager. Haverly read it slowly and carefully. "What do you think of it?" asked the Haverly replied solemnly: "Thank God, ft is over. "What's over?" anxiously inquired the friend. "Why," replied Haverly, " I have worried all my life as to what I should like to have inscribed on my tombstone. Field has not written merely He has written my epitaph."-New York Times.

THE PRIDE OF THE ROAD.

Every railroad has its "pet" train. The Burlington's pet is the Chicago Special-No. 6-as railroad men call it. To run on the Chicago Special is the ambition of every conductor, brakeman, engineer and fireman on the west end. The Chicago Special is as clean as a new pin. Spick and span and radiant in the glory of its varnished cars. Fast as a whirlwind. As easy riding as a rubber-tired automobile over an asphalt pavement.
