FRAGMENTS.

MR. H. B. HAYNES was in from Tooele to-day.

THE monthly meeting of Z. B. B.-S. will be held to-morrow evening.

MILTON and Dollie Nobles begin a four-night engagement at the Theatre Monday evening, in "From Sire to Son."

A SETTING of criminal cases was made in the Third District Court to-day for October 20th to October 24th inclusive.

A NEW case of scarlet fever has been reported in the family of Dr. H. E. Grow, next house east of the Metropolitan Hotel.

POLICEMAN JAMES E. MALIN made his first appearance in town for over a month to-day. He has passed through a siege of typhoid fever.

YESTERDAY afternoon Battery D, Fifth Artillery, returned from a fifteen days' jaunt through the mountains, after having a good time.

DEPUTY MARSHAL FRANKS brought the three deserters in with him on last evening's train. They were turned over to the officers at the Fort.

J. B. FARLOW, of the Godbe, Pitts Drug Co., is home again from Canada, New York and other eastern points. He was gone four weeks.

Two teams were taken to the City Hall by the police this morning, their owners having left them unattended and unhitched in the streets.

THE sentencing of Thomas F. Harris, on a conviction of polygamy, has been postponed till Saturday, October 22, when a motion for a new trial be argued.

THERE was one death from diphtheria in the family of John Gray, Jr., in the Thirteenth Ward, yesterday. Another child in the same family is suffering from a severe attack of the disease.

THERE are now twelve yellow flags out in this city. Six of these indicate cases of diphtheria, and six scarlet fever. All except one of the diphtheria patients have good chances of recovery.

THOSE who hung enraptured upon the electrical utterances of George Francis Train when here several years ago, will read with regret that they are considered evidences of insanity in Chicago.

THE Central Pacific train due in Ogden this morning was late again. This time it is five hours behind, and there will consequently be no mail from the west till 4 p. m. or later. The Ogden mail was brought down on time.

IF Herman Bayliss, who about ten years since lived in the vicinity of Salt Lake City, is anywhere in this region now, or if any person who reads this gives information as to his whereabouts he will confer a favor by communicating with Christian Bayliss, care of the DESERET NEWS office.

JAMES DONALDSON, the young man who accidentally shot his father at Stockton last September, and who has been held on an indictment charging him with manslaughter, was released on bail to-day, the amount required for his appearance for trial having been reduced to $1,000.

THE following Japanese dignitaries are in this city on a brief visit, and will leave for the west to-morrow: Viscount Fujiyami, Mr. and Mrs. Maeda, Mr. Nugama, Mr. Salouji, Mr. and Mrs. Fakamini, and Mr. Mitsui. They have been traveling through Europe and America, studying the manners and customs of the various nationalities.

A THOROUGH cleanin[illegible] is absolutely necessary for [illegible] of the inhabitants before wint[illegible] in, and the matter is respectfully suggested for the consideration of the City Council. It is true there is a nuisance inspector, but he is only required to attend to cases in which complaint is made. It is also true that in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred where nuisances actually exist, the people do not complain because of the ill-feeling that would thus be created among neighbors.

A SENSELESS CANARD.

The Alleged Shooting of President Cleveland a Baseless Fabrication.

About half past four o'clock yesterday afternoon an announcement was made that President Cleveland had been assassinated at Kansas City. The news spread like wildfire, and a feeling of deep gloom and excitement pervaded the community. From all quarters came anxious inquiries, and crowds gathered together at the telegraph office and other places to obtain definite news of the terrible deed. The dispatch had not been received by any of the newspaper offices, and this fact threw doubt on its authenticity, and about an hour later the Western Union office came out with an emphatic denial of any telegram of the kind having been received there. This had the effect of quieting the people down, as the information was spread and gladly received that the whole story was false, and that the President was safe.

An investigation was made as to where the report originated, and it was soon developed that the Deseret Telegraph operator had received the following message from the Western Union Telegraph office at Ogden, and had repeated it to the Deseret Telegraph Station and the Utah Central office:

Kansas City, 2:45 p. m.—President Cleveland assassinated by hackman who drove him to train. W.
Assd. Bulletin, 13th.

Manager Dougall, of the Deseret Telegraph, made inquiries of the chief operator at Ogden, who stated that there was no one there who signed "W," and that all the operators denied having done anything of the kind. The Deseret Telegraph operator, however, received the message from office "G"—Ogden—as stated.

It will be remembered in this connection that this is not the first canard that has been credited to telegraph operators at Ogden. On the 2d of last March, when there was considerable anxiety as to the fate of the Edmunds-Tucker bill, a dispatch came from Ogden, purporting to be from Washington, announcing that the President had signed the bill—a statement utterly without foundation. Another instance occurred last December, when an operator at Ogden informed the operator at Price, Emery County, that Judge Zane had been lynched in Salt Lake City. These occurrences show there is something wrong in the Junction City, and while there may possibly be no definite end in view in such senseless and base proceedings, the instances cited all point in the same direction.

This morning's Ogden Herald has the following to say of the rumor in that city;

"A report was circulated on the streets yesterday to the effect that President Cleveland had been assassinated in Kansas City. A Herald reporter looked the matter up and found that the rumor was first started from a side telegraph station, and that there was no truth whatever in it. A good many people were shocked at hearing the report, and were relieved when it was authentically denied. The Western Union office in this city has been getting inquiries from many places for information, but from nowhere outside of Utah. The starting of such silly rumors is not a very nice occupation for anyone and should be avoided by sensible people."

First District Court.

Yesterday Judge Henderson sentenced William Yates, convicted of unlawful cohabitation, to six months' imprisonment and a fine of $50. The defendant has an invalid wife and is very poor.

Lars Jacobson, convicted of the same offense, and in similar pecuniary circumstances, received the same sentence.

Soren Christensen entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of grand larceny.

Charles McCarty was arraigned on a charge of adultery and pleaded not guilty, and also a former conviction, and once in jeopardy.

In the case of the United States vs. S. W. Hardy, the Assistant District Attorney stated that the prosecution had no direct evidence on which to base a conviction, and he moved that the case be dismissed. The Court instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of not guilty, which was done.

The sentencing of Isaac Bullock was postponed until Nov. 3d.

United States vs. Victor Sandgren; motion for a new trial denied. Sentence, six months imprisonment and a fine of $100 and costs.

The sentencing of C. E. Shoebridge, convicted of unlawful liquor selling, was postponed, as the defendant failed to appear.

Charles McCarty, convicted of unlawful cohabitation, was sentenced to six months imprisonment and a fine of $300 and costs, to stand committed until the amount be paid.

Frank Ellis, convicted of grand larceny, was sentenced to imprisonment for eight years.

Joseph Mulligan and Ben Marsh, were each sentenced to five years' imprisonment for a like offense.

By request of defense, the sentencing of John Larsen, for grand larceny, was postponed until Saturday, at 10 a. m.

United States vs. Petterson; adultery, was on trial yesterday afternoon.

The Chinese Murderer.

Ah Gung, the Alta murderer, is still held at Rock Island, awaiting the action of the United States officials. Marshal Dyer did not feel justified in incurring the expense of having him brought back to this city without instructions from the Attorney General, as on a former occasion the Department refused to reimburse him. He accordingly telegraphed to the Attorney General for the necessary permission, and was instructed to direct that Ah Gung be held at Rock Island for the present, as the United States Attorney for Illinois had been directed to attend to the matter. This morning the Marshal received the following from that official:

CHICAGO, Oct. 13, 1887.

[illegible]nk U. Dyer:

[illegible]re me full particulars of murder, [illegible]arper House, Rock Island. I go [illegible] to-night by direction of Attorney [illegible]al.

W. G. EWING,
United States Attorney.

[illegible] Marshal will accordingly send [illegible]nformation wished for this even[illegible]

[illegible]e arrest was made at Rock Island [illegible]he railway agent, on a dispatch [illegible]ived there from Deputy Marshal [illegible]ks, a short time before the arriva[illegible] train. The officer also made an [illegible] to get word to the Chief of Po[illegible]t Chicago, but, through the inat[illegible]on of the official at Ogden, he [illegible] could not get his dispatch for[illegible]ded until after the murderer would [illegible]e had opportunity to make good his escape. However, the telegram to the train conductor was sufficient for the work.

Convicted.

Ole Hansen was tried in the First District Court at Ogden, yesterday, on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. He is to receive sentence on the 25th.

MORE SENTENCES.

Three "Mormons" Imprisoned Under the Edmunds Law.

This afternoon, in the Third District Court,

JESSE R. TURPIN,

of South Cottonwood, was called to receive sentence for violating the Edmunds law by living with his wives. He stated to the Court that he had no promise to make as to his future conduct, and was sentenced to imprisonment for six months and to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

CHARLES LIVINGSTON, of the Eleventh Ward, this city, was next called. He was also asked by the Court as to his intentions in the future with respect to the law, and answered that he had nothing to say. His sentence was six months in the "pen," and $100 fine and costs.

ANDREW HOMER

of Mill Creek, Salt Lake County, for a similar offense, stated that he could not violate his religious obligations by making the promise asked by the Court, to live with but one of his wives. He was given five months in prison and a fine of $50 and costs.

Thomas Henderson was also called for sentence, but was not present.

A Convenient Gate.

Yesterday we were shown by Mr. Ormus A. Bates, of Tooele County, the model of a farm gate for which he is the patentee's agent, and which can be opened and closed by a person while remaining in a vehicle. Mr. Bates is constructing and furnishing these gates to order.

The Chase Family.

At the instance of Sister Naomi C. Lane, of Logan, whose maiden name was Chase, an extensive genealogy of the Chase family, branches of which were formerly numerous in Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Maine, has been compiled. Sister Lane is desirous of communicating with members of the Church related to this family, with a view to a proper distribution of Temple work for the dead. Most Americans of the name are descended from this family, and persons interested in its genealogy should write to box 695, this city, the address of the compiler, who, in behalf of Sister Lane, will correspond with them.

A Japanese Husband.

There was considerable curiosity among those who saw the party of Japanese now in town, as they viewed the sights in various parts of the city. This arose from the fact that there were seven Japanese gentlemen, one Japanese and one white lady. The latter was closely attended by one of the men, and it was evident that they were husband and wife. The lady is an American by birth, and is quite a handsome woman. Her clear complexion, light brown hair and blue eyes contrast strangely with the dark skin and black eyes and hair of her husband. She first met him at the New Orleans Exposition, and their acquaintance resulted in marriage. She appears to be perfectly happy as a bride.

Venus.

The Denver News of the 21st says;

"During the greater part of yesterday afternoon Venus was plainly visible. The sunlight was very brilliant but the sky was so clear that the star could be easily seen with the naked eye. At every street corner crowds were assembled, viewing with greatest interest the phenomenon. Prof. Howe, of Denver university, when interviewed by a representative of The News, said that it was not an unusual sight in Colorado, but that the people generally seemed to have become aware of the fact yesterday. He says that the atmosphere and clear skies of Colorado are favorable for witnessing this phenomenon."

Those who have good eyesight may see the planet here if they have curiosity enough in that direction to make the effort. It has been visible in the day time for several months.

Criminal Calendar.

The following additional setting of criminal cases, for trial at the present term of the Third District Court, was made to-day:

THURSDAY, OCT. 20.

The People vs. Gin Yin; forgery.
The People vs. Richard Williams.

FRIDAY, OCT. 21.

The People vs. John Ferguson; larceny.
The United States vs. Geo. Morris; unlawful cohabitation.

SATURDAY, OCT. 22.

The People vs. Thomas Isherwood; grand larceny.
The United States vs. Chas. H. Bassett; unlawful cohabitation.

TUESDAY, NOV. 1.

The People vs. Alfred H. Martin; murder in the first degree.
The People vs. H. Friend and —— Osborn; forgery.

FRIDAY, NOV. 4.

The People vs. Rees Jones; murder in the first degree.

Third District Court.

Proceedings before Judge Zane to-day.

Charles Jensen vs. Alfred T. Case; judgment for plaintiff.

Alfred T. Case vs. Charles Jensen; judgment for defendant.

United States vs. Thomas F. Harris; polygamy; sentence set for Saturday, Oct. 22.

Max Greensburg et al. vs. Henry Buhring; submitted and taken under advisement.

Thos. Rosevear vs. Mary J. Rosevear et al.; dismissed for want of prosecution.

Salt Lake City vs. Sam Hop; keeping an opium den; on trial before a jury.

United States vs. Jesse Turpin; unlawful cohabitation; sentenced to six months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

United States vs. Charles Livingston; unlawful cohabitation; sentenced to six months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

United States vs. Andrew Homer; unlawful cohabitation; sentenced to imprisonment for five months, and to pay a fine of $50 and costs

United States vs. S. M. Butcher; sentence set for Nov. 21.

THE charge of unlawful cohabitation against John Squires, of this city, which was to have been investigated at 2 p.m. to-day, before Commissioner Norrell, was postponed till 3 o'clock, as Mr. Moyle, counsel for the defense, was engaged in the Third District Court till that hour.

THIS morning we received a fraternal visit from Mr. C. S. Nichols, late editor and publisher of the Herald, of Durango, Colo. He has come to Salt Lake for the purpose of settling permanently and, in connection with his son, setting up in the printing business. Mrs. Nichols is a niece of the Prophet Joseph Smith, being a daughter of his youngest sister.

CURE FOR ANARCHISM. — Omaha World: Wild Eyed Anarchist — You hang a few, maybe, but how you stop new anarchist from coming, eh?

Scientist—That's easy enough. We can keep anarchists from being born.

Eh! How you do that?

Abolish marriages between first cousins.

A Story of Tom Moore.

An old lady who used to be much in London society relates a touching story of the poet Moore. On one occasion, when the brilliant wit and writer was in his old age loosing his memory, the American was asked to sing for a small company of which he was one. She complied with the request, and sang: "Believe me if all those endearing young charms." The poet listened with evident pleasure to his famous and charming piece, and when the singer finished he said with much earnestness:

"Will you please tell me who wrote that beautiful song?"

"Why, Mr. Moore," she answered, "you certainly can't expect me to believe that you have forgotten your own work." The old man regarded her an instant with a pathetic look, the consciousness and infirmity of his broken mind evidently forcing itself upon him. Then he buried his face in his hands and burst into tears. Tom Moore, the brilliant, fiery favorite of London society, could only weep for what he was in remembering what he had been.—Boston Courier.

The New York World of recent date contains the following on the subject of lower hats for the ladies: "Dame Fashion has decreed that the ladies' hats for fall and winter wear shall be lower—not in price, but in altitude. Some of the latest importations, not yet placed on public view, will go quite to the other extreme from those in vogue last winter and will fit quite snugly to the head. This will be good news to the theatre and opera goers of the male persuasion, who, much as they admire the ladies and all their artistic finery, do love to get a sight at what goes upon the stage when they pay to witness a play. It will likewise, we are persuaded, be a welcome relief to the ladies themselves. For the essence of politeness is consideration for the rights and feelings of others; and it must have been a real trouble to true ladies to know that conformity to fashion in the matter of hats deprived those behind them of the pleasure to which they were entitled, by shutting off the view of the stage."

A dispatch dated Phœnix, Oct. 9th, says: Thomas Graham, the surviving member of the gang of Tonto Basin notoriety, arrived in town on Friday evening and surrendered himself to the sheriff. He is charged with murder in connection with the Tewksberry feud, and was to-day to be taken to Prescott by Sheriff Mulvenon, of Yavapai County. Graham was engaged to a very pretty young lady here, named Miss Mellon, and quite a romantic sensation was created in town by their unexpected wedding last night. She expressed a desire to share with him in all his troubles, and thought she could do so more feelingly if they were wedded. The sheriff gave his consent, and the nuptial knot was tied fifteen minutes later. Graham has many friends, and no one believes he will be convicted.

DEATHS.

GRAYSON.—At Coalville, Summit County, March 25th, 1887, Mary Grayson. Deceased was born at Stafford, Staffordshire, England, June 4th, 1805; was married to Harry Grayson in 1836, and with her husband was baptized in 1848. She was a widow for many years; came to Utah in 1874, was the mother of 12 children, only one of whom, Sarah, wife of George Ruff, of Coalville, survives her. She died a faithful Latter Saint.—[COM.

GENERAL ORDERS No. I:
READ THE PROSPECTUS OF THE CONTRIBUTOR—VOL. NINE.

The NINTH VOLUME of the CONTRIBUTOR commences with the November number, and will present to its readers a variety of ORIGINAL HOME LITERATURE unsurpassed by any previous volume. The leading historical series will be a carefully prepared History of the Nauvoo Legion, by Lieut. Richard W. Young, U. S. A. This military history of our people will include an account of the origin of the Legion, its services in Nauvoo, in the early days of Utah, during the Echo Canyon War, and the Indian troubles; its famous musters and drills, collisions with Federal authorities, disbandment and final repeal of its charter by act of Congress. Numerous and costly engravings of its conspicuous officers will adorn the volume. In addition to which we have had an elegant portrait made of LIEUT.-GENL. JOSEPH SMITH, mounted on his favorite horse "Joe Duncan." This drawing by Mr. John Hafen, is twenty by twenty-five inches and will be beautifully engraved. It is designed to accompany the volume as a memento of the Legion.

The aim of the CONTRIBUTOR has always been to encourage and improve our Home Literature. The new volume will contain matter from the pens of many old friends, including Presidents Wilford Woodruff, Joseph F. Smith, Moses Thatcher, F. M. Lyman, Geo. Reynolds, O. F. Whitney, B. H. Roberts, J. M. Tanner, J. E. Talmage, Emmeline B. Wells, A. J. Crocheron, M. M. Johnson (Ruby Lamont), and others, besides introducing the names of a large number of new writers.

The usual Prizes and Souvenir Medal will be given for a Christmas Story and Poem, and also a Prize for the best Serial Story based upon incidents in the Book of Mormon.

The Association Intelligence Department, under the immediate direction of the General Officers of the Y. M. M. I. A. will receive particular attention, and be made as useful as possible to the Associations. Officers are requested to contribute to this department.

Every endeavor will be made to make the Ninth a superior volume, and we confidently hope for its favorable reception by the young men and women of Zion, in whose interests it is especially published and all of whom are invited to write for its columns.

Subscription, per year, $2.00. Subscribers paying $2.50 in advance will receive a copy of the engraving of Lieut.-Genl. Joseph Smith, and may have their volumes bound at the end of the year FREE. Back Volumes for sale $2.50 each.
