SUGAR FACTORY RUN.

It is expected that the Logan sugar factory will conclude the season's run some time this week. The expectation that 25,000 tons of beets would be ground will be fulfilled, yielding nearly 200 tons of excellent sugar. The beets have latterly shown great richness, the latest shed to be opened being one of latest shed to be opened being one of the best. Very few of the tubers were injured by frost, the fine weather aiding the factory greatly in this way. Some remarkably heavy runs have been made by the mill latterly, as many as 250 tons being ground in twelve hours. It is announced that the management of the factory has decided to enlarge the plant for next season's run, and thus be able to grind fifty or sixty thousand tons of beets.

MANTI. JURY IN FRED MICKLE CASE.

Completed and Evidence Now Being Heard Before Judge Johnson.

Special Correspondence. Manti, Sanpete Co., Jan. 18 .- A jury of twelve men has at last been secured in the Fred Mickie murder case, and the introduction of testimony commenced before Judge Johnson. J. W. Fox, Jr., county clerk of Emery county, was placed upon the stand before the adjournment of court last evening. Mr. Fox was in the court saloon at Castle Dale on the night of August 17 last when the killing of Lew M. Link oc curred at the hands of the defendant Mickle. He was one of the eye wit-nesses to the occurrance and gave a graphic account of the affair. A rigid cross-examination of the witness was Surprise Party and Presentations to Retiring Officers.

Special Correspondence. Minersville, Beaver Co., Jan. 17 .- On Monday, Jan. 6th, we received an agree-able visit from Apostles Rudger Clawson and Owen Woodruff, also Dr. Sey-mour B. Young, with Charles D. White, our Stake president. Many good instructions were given us by the visitors.

Meeting was called to order by Bishop George Eyre. The object of the meeting was the reorganization of the George Marshall and William Bowmen counselors. This came as another surprise, both to Bishop Dotson and the community; but they are all three promising young men and much good may be accom-plished by them in our ward.

On Wednesday, Jan. 15, under the auspices of the ward choir a surprise party was tendered the retiring Bishop and his first counselor. A splendid program of songs, speeches, and instrunental selections was rendered, and the neeting house was tastefully decorated

Mrs. Sarah Gillins made the welcome and presentation speech. The presents consisted of a pretty plush rocking chair and musical album to Bishop Eyre, and a chair to Counselor Mc-Knight.
