

order the Lord has revealed for his holy Priesthood, lessens the power of Satan on the earth, and increases the power of God and of Godliness, moves the heavens in mighty power in our behalf, invokes and calls down upon us the blessings of the Eternal Gods, and those who reside in their presence. There is no doubt whatever of this in my mind; and those who have engaged in this work to-day must certainly have felt the spirit and power of it. There has been a holy influence here; angels have been here; the presence of our Father, too, with all of his faithful servants who have stood firm, steadfast and true while they were here upon the earth, and every person present who has been prepared to receive it has been filled with it.

We are engaged in that great work which will in time result in the complete overthrow of the power of Satan upon the earth, and of all those evil influences, of all that misrule and oppression, and of all the wickedness that now causes earth itself to groan and all its inhabitants to mourn; we are engaged in the work that will sweep evil from off the face of the earth, and establish the reign of peace and of truth and of righteousness, where the honest and the meek and the lowly shall have their rights and none dare to molest or make them afraid.

Brethren and sisters, let us go to with our might, let us emulate the examples of those who have preceded us, especially of those who have lived in our day—the prophet Joseph, the prophet Brigham and all their co-laborers now passed behind the veil. Let us labor with our might as they did, spending our lives and our strength and our energies, and all that God has placed within our reach to accomplish this great work and hasten its consummation. That the Lord may bless you all in this valley, the Priesthood and the Saints, and all your flocks and herds, your habitations and your families and everything pertaining to you is my prayer in the name of Jesus. Amen.

ELDER BRIGHAM YOUNG then said—

I am thankful for this opportunity of meeting with my brethren and sisters to participate in the laying of the corner stones of this Temple. Thank God we behold this day! I believe this is the seventh Temple that the Latter-day Saints have commenced in this dispensation to rear to the name of the Most High God.

I most perfectly agree with the brethren who have already addressed you, in the view that every step we take in this direction will lessen the power of the adversary of the souls of men, who has ruled for so many centuries in the midst of the nations of the earth, and who has so completely controlled the hearts of the children of disobedience. I thank God that the power of evil is being lessened.

May God give us union of purpose and effort with power and ability to complete this building. May the same union and energy which characterized the people of this Stake of Zion, in building the Tabernacle in this city, be manifested by them in erecting this House unto the Lord, even more abundantly, and may all engaged in its erection, and those who minister therein, and those who receive blessings therein, for themselves and their dead, be greatly blessed, is my prayer in the name of Jesus. Amen.

ELDER ALBERT CARRINGTON remarked as follows—

I sincerely rejoice with all who are assembled here to-day, in the signal privileges and blessings our Father in the heavens has bestowed upon us, in so peacefully and so securely and so pleasantly laying the corner-stones of this Temple, that is to be in this Logan Stake of Zion. And I pray our Father in the heavens, unitedly with you, that he will abundantly and signally bless us from day to day, and all who may be called to labor on this Temple, and all who may assist in any way whatsoever, and cause the same to be another link in cementing us into that unity we are required in his mercy to attain to as his saints upon the earth; that through faithfulness and obedience to the commandments we may rejoice not only in the blessings that will be enjoyed in this Temple, but in the Temples that have been built, and those that will be built; and finally, through enduring in faith and honoring our Father and God, be saved with a complete salvation in his celestial kingdom, which is my prayer, in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

PRESIDENT JOHN TAYLOR then concluded as follows—

I will only say a very few words in addition to what has been said by my brethren. I sincerely rejoice, as my brethren do, in having this opportunity of assembling with all the various quorums of the holy priesthood which God has organized on the earth; and in laying the foundation stones of this Temple. It is a work that was started by our beloved President, Brigham Young, who, as has been stated, is now with Joseph behind the veil.

They are operating in the interests of Israel there, as we are seeking to operate in the interests of Israel here upon the earth. And the Gods in the eternal worlds are also interested, and the millions of the dead, that Brother Woodruff has referred to, are all of them interested in the great work that we are engaged in. We find on our side God, and the holy angels, the patriarchs, prophets and apostles, and the men of God who have lived before and still live. All feel interested in the great work of God. The Twelve are also interested with them and united with the First Presidency, who are with us, and we are one. We are also one with Joseph and Brigham. All the priesthood is one, one in the bonds of the everlasting covenant, one in building up Zion and establishing the Kingdom of God, one in saving the living and the dead, redeeming and renovating and purifying the earth. And it is our purpose to go on in the name of Israel's God to build up this Temple and his Zion and he will most assuredly help us, and holy angels will also help us, together with the prophets and holy men of old who have gone before. We will be one with them, and they with us, and we will build up Zion; and work for God. Sustained by him and the priesthood in the heavens, we will roll forth this work, and go on from conquering to conquer until every knee shall bow, and every tongue confess that Jesus is the Christ to the glory of God the Father.

And I ask my Heavenly Father to bless you, and to bless all these quorums; I ask God, my Heavenly Father, to bless my brethren of the Twelve, and to fill and inspire them with the Spirit and power of the living God. I ask my heavenly Father also to bless our venerable Bishop and his Counselors, and all the Bishops, that the spirit of their office and calling may be with them. And I pray that these blessings may rest upon all of the Presidents of Stakes and their Counselors that they may stand forth as men of God in Israel, and help guide, regulate and roll forth his kingdom. And I ask God my Eternal Father to bless the Seventies also, and the Presidents thereof, and all the Elders, and the Lesser Priesthood and all Israel. God bless you in this place, and lead you in the paths of life, that we may be saved in his kingdom, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.

I now announce that the four corner stones of this Temple of Logan are laid satisfactorily and according to the order dictated.

The choir under the leadership of Brother Alexander Lewis, sang, "Let Zion in her beauty rise, Her light begins to shine."

And ELDER BRIGHAM YOUNG offered the closing prayer as follows—

Father in heaven, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, we come before thee at the close of these services, and offer unto thee the gratitude of our hearts that we have been privileged to assemble in peace to lay the four corner stones of the Temple which we are seeking to erect to Thy Holy Name in this place. We feel grateful unto thee that we behold this day, and for the pleasing circumstances which now surround us. We thank thee for the union that exists in the midst of thy people, and for the faith manifested in their hearts.

We pray thee, Father, to dismiss us with thy blessing, and may we go to our homes with a renewed determination to exert ourselves in the future, more than we have in the past, to accomplish thy glorious purposes, and the great mission assigned to us here in this life.

We dedicate ourselves unto thee, and ask that thy blessing may rest upon this assembly, and upon the Latter-day Saints wherever they are; that union of purpose may extend the keys of power, and enable us to build temples, towns and cities to thy name. And we ask all, our Father, humbly dedicating unto thee ourselves with all we possess, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

The day was a magnificent one, and the people turned out in vast numbers. Upon no occasion when we ever witnessed so large a gathering of people was there less disorder. Every one seemed to feel the solemnity of the proceedings; and the utmost good order prevailed. There was not the least need for the services of even a policeman, or any person to manage the crowd to keep them within proper bounds. No crushing, no jostling, no noise, nor the least confusion. And there was not a single incident that occurred during the entire ceremonies to mar the effect of the scene.

The sweet music of the Logan Brass Band, which played during the march of the procession and the movements from stone to stone, contributed much to the enjoyment of the exercises.

It will be a day long to be remembered by those who witnessed the proceedings. No person present could fail to be impressed by them; they were appropriate, effective and solemn; and the hearts of many persons were softened and their eyes were suffused with tears, because of the joy they had in taking part in so important a work as the laying of the foundation stones of another Temple.

CAMP ROBINSON, Neb., 17.—Lieut. Clark, commanding the Indian scouts at this agency, left here this morning with a delegation of Indian chiefs to visit Washington. The following are the Sioux: Spotted Tail, Hollow Horn, Bear, Little Hawk, Ring Thunder, Spotted Tail, Jr., White Tail, Swift Bear, Good Horse, Red Bear, Touch the Cloud, Red Cloud, Young Man-Afraid-of-his-Horses, Little Wound, Yellow Bear, American Horse, Big Roads, Jumping Shield, He Dog, Little Big Man and Three Bears. The Arapahoes are represented by Black Cole, Sharp Nose and Friday. The delegation expect to reach Sidney on the 19th, where they will take cars for the east.

NEW YORK, 17.—Mail advices from Paris show that Thiers' sudden death was not unexpected by his more intimate friends, who claim that it was prematurely hastened by personal efforts in the interest of republicanism, for which his physical strength was inadequate, being far inferior to his mental vigor.

DES MOINES, Ia., 17.—The coroner's jury this morning rendered a verdict on the Little Four-mile Creek disaster. The jury find that the culvert was of sufficient capacity to pass the water of what has heretofore been known as our greatest rainfalls; that the material used in its construction was of good quality, and the workmanship a fair job of second-class masonry; that owing to the unexpected flood rise on the morning of the 29th of August the existence of wing walls would not have prevented the destruction of the culvert, and that no blame can be attached to the railroad company.

HELENA, Mont., 17.—A special to the Independent, dated Bozeman, Mont., 17, says: Sturgis, assisted by Howard's cavalry, under Sanford, had a fight on Canon Creek on the morning of the 14th. Numbers of Indians were killed and many horses taken. The Crows got away with all the Nez Perces pack animals. They report that the River Crows from the Muscleshell had headed off the Nez Perces and are driving them towards Gen. Sturgis. In two fights the Crows and soldiers had captured nearly 1,000 horses. The Crows were to join Gen. Sturgis on the eve of the 14th, when he would again pursue the Indians. Howard was twenty-five miles behind him.

CREEDMOOR, 17.—Scores in the inter-State rifle match to-day: 900 yards—Massachusetts, 278; Amateur Rifle Club, 271; Parthian Club, 263; Crescent City Club, 254; Columbia, 253; Hackensack Club, 241. One thousand yards—Amateur, 270; aggregate of the day's shooting, 825; Massachusetts, 246; aggregate, 784; Parthian, 244; aggregate, 754; Hackensack, 252; aggregate, 758; Columbia, 234; aggregate, 736. Amateurs won the prize.

SAN FRANCISCO, 17.—A Rocklin dispatch says: Early this morning the body of a man was found in the vineyard near Sargent's house, and shortly before noon the body of a boy about eight years old was found in the same vineyard. The most intense excitement prevails. One hundred armed men are driving all the Chinamen from this part of the country.

A party of armed citizens, to-day, visited various Chinese camps in the township, but found them all deserted, the occupants having taken the alarm and decamped in haste.

At a meeting of the citizens of Penryn, near Rocklin, to-day, a committee was appointed who waited upon the Chinese in the town, and notified them to leave before to-morrow morning. The trouble is believed not yet ended.

The citizens of Roseville, a few miles from Rocklin, to-day, notified all Chinamen to leave town before 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. The Chinamen are much alarmed, and will undoubtedly go.

NEW YORK, 18.—The Times says of the Rocklin tragedy, perhaps it would not be safe to say that French, German, or Irish residents of Rocklin would have been similarly dealt with if the murders had been committed by Frenchmen, Germans or Irishmen. There is in California a happy knack of putting upon the entire Mongolian race the sins of individual Chinamen. This is convenient. It intensifies the popular hatred of the Chinese, and places in a strong light the moral superiority of the representative Caucasian.

GALVESTON, 18.—A storm struck this city early this morning, prostrating wires, covering bridges with water, and damaging the railroad tracks badly. The wires are all down. Communication is barely possible. The wind reached a velocity of fifty-two miles an hour.

NEW ORLEANS, 18.—The bark Harold, from Havana, is quarantined with three cases of yellow fever on board. Her mate died on the passage.

CHICAGO, 18.—The following telegrams have been received at Gen. Sheridan's headquarters:

Fort Ellis, Mont., Sep. 14. To Adjutant General, St. Paul, Min.

A Courier, just in from Howard, left the command at Clark's Fork, near Head Mountain, on the 10th. Sturgis had communicated with Howard. Merritt had been heard from, and his whereabouts was known. Howard is expected to strike them on the 10th, and there must have been a fight on that day or the next, unless they scattered and abandoned everything. The Crows are loyal; all reports to the contrary are sensational.

(Signed) BENHAM, Commanding. Headquarters, Dept. of Columbia, in the field, Clark's Fork, near Bridger's Crossing, Mont., Sep. 12th.

To General Terry, St. Paul, Min.: While Col. Sturgis was scouting towards Stinking Water, the Indians, and my force in close pursuit, passed his right, turning to Clark's Fork after a short detour, and making a double march, avoiding him completely. I have sent Sturgis, with Sanford and Otis' battery, in pursuit, myself following as rapidly as possible with the remainder. The Indians are now reported going straight to Mussel Shell to secure a junction with a band of hostile Sioux; only one of the five messages sent from me to Colonel Sturgis reached him. We buried, yesterday, four unknown citizens, probably scouts, killed just in advance of us.

(Signed) HOWARD, Brig. Gen'l.

Fort Ellis, Sept. 15. The following is just received, dated near Yellowstone, Sept. 13: We have just had a hard fight with the Nez Perces, lasting nearly all day. We killed and wounded a good many, and captured several hundred head of stock. The reports are not in yet. I cannot say what our loss is, but it is considerable. There were several killed and a good many wounded. We have had nothing to eat for two days. Marched sixty miles to strike the Indians. The horses were worn out. The Indians stuck well to the rocks, but we drove them out for several miles.

(Signed) STURGIS.

In addition, Gen. Frost reports that the Crows brought into the agency on the 13th, 100 head of Nez Perces ponies, and that several Crows started out at once to assist Sturgis.

(Signed) BENHAM, Commanding.

Now does the wily bank director find a deficit of $10,000, and exclaim: "This comes of supporting men in idleness: ordered that there be a reduction of ten per cent. on the salary of the night watchman."—Puck.

Two country attorneys overtaking a wagoner on the road, thinking to break a joke with him, asked him why his fore horse was so fat, and the rest were so lean. The wagoner, knowing them to be limers of the law, replied: "That the fore horse was a lawyer, and the rest were his clients."
