HILTON CASE IS AFFIRMED.

Supreme Court Sees No Reason Why Judgment Should be Reversed.

PARTITION OF THE PROPERTY.

Holds That Work of Commissioners Appointed for This Purpose Shall Stand.

The supreme court today handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the lower court in approving the partition and setting aside of one-third of the real property of the estate of Dr. John R. Park, deceased, to Annie F. A. Hilton, whom the court in a former opinion declared was his common law wife and entitled to her dower interest in the estate.

In accordance with the former opinion of the court, which held that the "sealing" of Mrs. Hilton to Dr. Park under the rites of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, was a common law marriage, the lower court appointed commissioners to partition the estate and set aside to Mrs. Hamilton her share of the real property. The executor of Dr. Park's estate objected to and protested against the partition made, but the report of the commissioners was confirmed and approved. From that action of the lower court this appeal was taken.

In its opinion today the supreme court holds that there is no reason why it should reverse its former opinion in regard to the marital status of Mrs. Hilton, and that there was no error in the lower court affirming and approving the partition of the property made by the commissioners. The opinion states that the evidence submitted by appellant went so far as to include testimony given by President Smith during the Senator Smoot investigation at Washington in regard to "sealings" which had no bearing on this case at all and was not properly before the court. The opinion was written by Chief Justice Bartch and concurred in by Justice McCarty and Dist. Judge Armstrong.

SUES HIS WIFE.

Daniel H. Morton Seeks to Recover Value Of Property Burned.

Daniel H. Morton has filed suit in the district court against his wife, Mary E. Morton, to recover the sum of $1,141, the value of certain personal property which he alleges she set fire to and destroyed on Aug. 1, 1904. The complaint contains a complete list of the property which he claims was destroyed by the malicious action of his wife.

At present a divorced suit is pending in the district court between the parties. Mrs. Morton filed the action and set out in her complaint a number of charges of cruelty. In his answer and cross-complaint Morton charged his wife with cruelty and also alleged that she set fire to the property, the value of which he is now attempting to recover in his complaint just filed.

WANT DIVORCES.

Two Unhappy Wives Charge Desertion And Failure to Support.

Maud H. Labat filed suit for divorce in the district court today against John Labat on the grounds of desertion and failure to support. They were married in this city on July 25, 1900, and it is alleged that defendant deserted plaintiff on Aug. 4, 1902, and has ever since failed to support her. Plaintiff asks for $15 as attorney's fees and $50 per month as alimony.

Suit for divorce was filed in the district court today by May J. Leonard against John T. Leonard on the grounds of desertion, failure to support and habitual intemperance. They were married in Richfield on April 3, 1881, and it is alleged that defendant deserted plaintiff in August, 1903, and for the past year has been guilty of habitual intemperance and has failed to support her. Plaintiff asks for $25 per month alimony and $100 as attorney's fees.

ACCOUNTING ASKED FOR.

Samuel B. Wright Alleges Fraud in the Matter of Rents.

Samuel B. Wright filed suit in the district court today against John Halfon and Annie Covert to compel defendants to account for the rents and profits from a certain piece of land which plaintiff transferred to defendant Halfon to secure the payment of a loan of $702 and to have a deed to said property made to defendant Annie Govert set aside.

The complaint alleges that plaintiff deeded the property to Halfon to secure a loan but that the latter contends that it was a complete sale of the property to him. An accounting is asked for, and it is also asked that the deed from Halfon to Annie Govert be set aside and the property be held subject to redemption upon the payment to defendant Halfon of the amount found to be due him.

READY FOR HIGH SCHOOL.

Six Hundred Pupils Will Take Final Test Tomorrow Morning.

Tomorrow the agony will be over, so far as the eighth grade pupils of the public schools are concerned, in the question of their graduating. At 9 o'clock the last gong will sound for this year, summoning them to examination, and the subject will be English grammar. Fully six hundred pupils are expected to take the test, and pass on to the High schools. These with 200 who passed the examinations at Christmas time, will make a larger class than has heretofore been prepared for the high schools in a single year.

ELEVATOR STUCK.

Fuse Burned Out and Nine Passengers Were Held Fifty Minutes.

The general offices of the Oregon Short Line this morning were without the services of nine clerks and an elevator boy for the space of 50 minutes. This calamity was due to a fuse in the elevator machinery burning out, leaving the cage between the second and third floors in a position from which it was impossible to escape. The safety clutches acted, holding the elevator fast, likewise the passengers from 8:25 a. m. until 9:15. As soon as the defective machinery was repaired the prisoners were released.

CODY DIVORCE SUIT.

Motion for a New Trial Was Overruled.

(Special to the "News.")

Cheyenne, Wyo., May 25.—The motion for a new trial in the Cody divorce case was overruled.

E. BUCKINGHAM WILL STAY HERE

Official Circulars Issued of the Pending Changes on the Short Line.

E. C. MANSON GOES TO OGDEN.

Announcement of Changes on the Oregon Short Line Which Go Into Effect June 1.

Copy for the official circulars signed by General Manager Bancroft and General Superintendent Buckingham of the Oregon Short Line was placed in the hands of the printer this morning and the circulars will be mailed tomorrow notifying all concerned of the changes in the heads of the various divisions as outlined in the "News" on Saturday.

The fact that E. C. Manson is assigned to Ogden in charge of the Lucin cut-off and line west to Sparks is taken to mean that Mr. E. Buckingham will remain as general superintendent of the Oregon Short Line and not go to Portland, as has been rumored. Had Mr. Buckingham been going to resign his position here the interence is that his logical successor would be Mr. Manson.

As the reorganization now stands and will go into effect on June 1, the day Mr. Buckingham is due to return to his office from Chicago, it is now officially announced as follows:

E. C. Manson, superintendent of the Idaho division, to be appointed superintendent of the Salt Lake division, including the Lucin cut-off west to Sparks, Nev., with headquarters at Ogden, vice W. R. Scott, resigned.

G. H. Olmstead succeeds Mr. Manson as superintendent of the Idaho division with headquarters at Pocatello.

T. J. Duddieson, acting superintendent of the Montana division, vice Mr. Olmstead, promoted.

H. V. Hilliker, superintendent of the Utah division and Union Pacific lines west of Green River, with headquarters at Salt Lake, vice H. V. Platt, resigned.

H. J. Roth, assistant superintendent of the Utah division and lines of the Union Pacific west of Green River, vice Mr. Hilliker, promoted.

E. C. Manson has been going over his new division in company with W. R. Scott, who leaves for Oakland tomorrow, to enter upon his new duties with the Southern Pacific. Both Mr. Manson and Mr. Scott have been out on the division as far as Sparks, Nev., which is the end of the jurisdiction of the Short Line operating department. While Mr. Manson has been in charge of a very busy division in the past the work he is now taking up will be even more strenuous as it is part of a direct transcontinental line, handling one of the biggest volumes of business in the country.

JAMES ALGER RESIGNS.

Manager of Southern Pacific May Go to Portland June 1.

Official confirmation of the story in the "News" last Saturday was forthcoming in San Francisco yesterday when General Manager E. E. Calvin of the Southern Pacific announced that Manager James Alger had resigned. Today locally there is a rumor to the effect that Alger will go to Portland to succeed B. A. Worthington as general manager of the O. R. & N.

The story o fthe changes pending on the Southern Pacific as told by the Associated Press is as follows:

General Manager Calvin of the Southern Pacific today announced that Manager James Alger had resigned and that when his resignation becomes effective on June 1st the position long held by Alger will be abolished, and thereafter the western system, under the direction of two general superintendents, will be operated as two separate districts. W. S. Palmer, now superintendent of the western division, with headquarters at Oakland, is to be made general superintendent of the northern district, and Division Supt. R. H. Ingram, with present headquarters in Los Angeles, is to assume the title of general superintendent of the southern district. Palmer's position as division superintendent at Oakland is to be filled by W. R. Scott, at present superintendent of the Salt Lake division at Ogden, and H. V. Platt, superintendent of the Oregon Short Line division at Salt Lake will take Ingram's place at Los Angeles. All these changes will become effective June 1. The two districts will include the same teritory now within the western system: that is, the lines as far north as Roseburg, Or., eastward to Sparks, in Nevada, and southward as far as El Paso.

JUNE 10TH THE DATE.

Senator Clark Invites 200 Members of Chamber of Commerce.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 24.—Senator Clark has extended a formal invitation to the 200 members of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce to accept the free use of a special train on the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake railroad for a trip to Salt Lake, the train to leave Los Angeles on Saturday night, June 10. The invittion was accepted. Details of arrangements for the journey will be announced later.

New Folder Issued.

District Freight and Passenger Agent J. L. Moore of the Salt Lake Route this morning received a big consignment of new folder time tables from headquarters at Los Angeles, which set forth not only the time card of the San Pedro but skeleton schedules on all connecting lines through to the east, San Francisco and other points. A good map and elevation profile of the road are also features.

R. G. W. Section Hand Sues.

Suit has been filed in the district court by Alma S. Jacobson against the Rio Grande Western Railway company to recover $15,000 as damages for personal injuries received by plaintiff while in the employ of defendant on Nov. 23, 1903. The complaint alleges that plaintiff was propelling a handcar at Bingham Junction, when he was thrown from the car because of defects in the

He bought a number of lots in the railroad townsite, and will invest considerable money in improvements. Dr. Griswold has 15 acres of land adjoining the Buol tract, which he may subdivide into acre villa tracts.—Las Vegas Age.

CONDITION CRITICAL.

Mrs. Thomas May Not Recover from Poisoning—Family Summoned.

Mrs. Arthur L. Thomas is critically ill. The amputation of her finger has not had the hoped for effect, and the erysipelas poisoning has now reached the shoulder. The surgeons made a final attempt this afternoon, by cutting the arm the full length, to drain it completely of pus, but the outcome is uncertain and unencouraging, and absent members of the family have been telegraphed for.

It has been necessary to inform Postmaster Thomas, who is now convalescent, of his wife's condition, which, of course, is a great shock to him; but it is thought that he is so far on the road to recovery himself that a relapse is unlikely. It will be remembered that Mrs. Thomas contracted her present trouble from her husband, who has been seriously ill with erysipelas. There was a small sore or scratch on one of her fingers and in some way that came in contact with the affected skin on her husband's face. Very soon there were symptoms of serious poisoning. The case, though receiving the best medical and surgical aid all of the time, has been a particularly bad one.

FLOTO SHOWS IN SALT LAKE TODAY

Spick and Span Parade that Told The Story of Good Exhibitions To Follow.

ARE BUT TWO PERFORMANCES.

One is on at Eighth South and Main This Afternoon and Another Will Be Given Tonight.

The Floto shows were in Salt Lake today, arriving early this morning. This afternoon they are delighting large throngs on Eighth South and Main. Tonight they will be seen again in a final performance that will doubtless be one of the best ever given in Utah by a circus of the medium size.

The street parade was viewed by thousands. It immediately commended itself to the spectators on account of its superiority. What it lacked in quantity was apparently there in quality. An air of freshness pervaded the entire column, which was as spick and span as though it had just been turned out of the paint shop. The animals were sleek and fat and their riders and attendants were neatly uniformed. It is evident there is an intelligent and up-to-date management behind the enterprise—one that believes there is much in the matter of looks in this world.

It may be of interest to the public to know that the shows are the property of a Colorado newspaper—that is, that they belong to the proprietors of the Denver Post. The founder was Otto Floto, the well known sporting writer, who started out a few years ago with a dog and pony show attraction. Later the management of the paper which is a prosperous one, came in as controlling proprietors and enlarged it to its present size. It is said to be making money on its merits and promises Salt Lakers a rattling good performance for this afternoon and night.

The feats, while not as numerous as those of some of the famous big shows that have visited Salt Lake, are by artists of ability and renown. Besides, they are not so far away as to be dimly seen or so innumerable as to be confusing. Intelligent horses, splendid specimens of the camel kind, elephants, yaks, sacred cattle, llamas, lions, bears, tigers, animals from remote parts of the earth and birds of rare plumage comprise a part of the zoo end of the attraction. Altogether, it is a show that is worth seeing.

GORMAN BALKED.

Bounty Frauds Man Hardly Wanted to Come to Salt Lake.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Sharp returned early this morning from Denver with James Gorman and John Meyers, the bounty fraud men who were arrested in that city recently. The men agreed to come without requisition papers but at Grand Junction, Gorman refused to go any further until the necessary papers were forthcoming. Sheriff Emery was notified and at once started Deputy Sheriff Steele out with the papers, but Deputy Sharp used a little force on Gorman and he came on without waiting the arrival of Steele. The men are now in the county jail.

THIELE AFFECTED.

Moved With Emotion He Tells the Story of His Early Life.

The state concluded its testimony today in the case of the state of Utah against August Thiele, charged with assaulting C. V. Worthington with a revolver with intent to murder him, and the defense opened its case. The defendant was placed on the witness stand in his own behalf just before noon, and will conclude his story to the jury this afternoon. During the few minutes he was on the stand at the morning session he told of his early life and of his acquaintance with Mr. Worthington. While narrating his story he seemed very much affected, and several times tears came to his eyes, and it became necessary for him to check them by using his handkerchief.

The other witnesses on the stand this morning for the state were L. E. Cox, W. H. Jones, Hazel Tolhurst and Della M. Calkins, employes of Keith-O'Brien, who told of witnessing the assault.

At the afternoon session yesterday an incident occurred during the cross-examination of Mr. Worthington, which was something out of the ordinary in court proceedings. He was being cross-examined by Atty. Hamilton as to his ability to hold a man of Thiele's size, and overpower him. The attorney asked him to show how he held Thiele. Mr. Worthington arose from the witness stand and, taking hold of the attorney as he said he held Thiele, quickly had Mr. Hamilton on the floor. The illustration was somewhat too strenuous for the attorney and he asked the court to fine Worthington for contempt of court. The court said that the attorney had asked the witness to show him how it was done, so he could not be blamed for going through the entire performance. The testimony then continued.

It is probable that the evidence will be concluded by 5 o'clock, and that the arguments will be heard tomorrow.

SAD JOURNEY.

Remains of Daughter of Senator Ankeny En Route Home.

This morning the remains of the daughter of U. S. Senator Ankeny of the state of Washington went west over the Oregon Short Line en route to Walla Walla for interment. Accompanying the body were Mrs. Moisen and Miss Ankeny, sisters of the deceased.

The grief stricken party is en route home from Pittsburg, Pa.

YSAYE CANNOT COME.

Prof. Weihe Brings Back News Tha Return Trip is Impossible.

Willard Weihe has returned from San Francisco, where he went shortly after Ysaye's departure to join the great artist, and spent the week with him. Mr. Weihe regrets to says that Mr. Ysaye cannot return to Salt Lake to perform, as a sudden change in his business arrangements takes him down the coast, and perhaps back east over the Southern Pacific. Mr. Ysaye was given an ovation in San Francisco and made a profound impression. He also played one evening in Oakland, where he was very well received. Mr. Weihe had the pleasure of listening to the great artist, but did not appear in public with him.

The local artist will put another coat of varnish on the new violin he has presented to Mr. Ysaye and will then ship the present to the maestro. He expects Mr. Ysaye will sail on June 10 for the other side, but hopes that by some fortunate change in the artist's arrangements he may be enabled to give Salt Lake one more concert before leaving for Europe. Mr. Ysaye expressed himself to Mr. Weihe as much pleased with his reception in Salt Lake.

WARD OPERETTA.

Tomorrow evening in the Twentieth ward annex a charming operetta will be presented by the members of the Primary association of the ward. Are You Ready to Participate in The Big Hardware Sale Which Begins Tomorrow Morning?

THERE IS NOT THE SLIGHTEST doubt in the world if present indications are to be relied upon but what the opening date of the final disposal of the stock of the UTAH STOVE & HARDWARE COMPANY will be attended by the largest crowd in the history of any sale which has taken place in Salt Lake even within the remembrance of the oldest inhabitants. There is a marked difference in this sale and the general run of the so-called efforts which has been the usual program in this city, now as well as heretofore.

This is the only announcement of the cost marked sale where you will be given the privilege of knowing the cost mark in advance of the purchase of goods you desire. Can anything be fairer than this? This sale will mark a new era in disposal of merchandise. It marks the beginning of simple straight forward announcements of not only what is to be but just what you will receive.

Hereafter no institution in the city dare announce a cost marked sale and trust to public gullibility without giving proof of their so-called reductions. To make a short story there are no strings tied to this month of low prices at this store. The simple gathering together of what money is to be obtained and the closing out of this business and thus enable the present owner to confine his attention to other interests.

It is deemed important to give you a royal welcome here tomorrow. It is desired to start this sale off with a rush and continue until stock is disposed of—earlier than the date of closing, June 29 if possible.
