Through some unusual stupidity on the part of the agent, or some extraordinary shrewdness on the part of young Poul-son, or both, the latter became con-vinced that there was more than $3,300 vinced that there was more than $3,300 coming to him, and whether right or wrong, that the agent was trying to turn an honest penny by discounting the amount he was to pay to Mr. Poul-son; and acting on this conviction, Mr. Poulson refused to sign a receipt or accept the money offered. The agent then left for San Francisco, and a few days after Mr. Poulson was notified by the San Francisco offloe that a mistake had been made and that there was $10,000 in the Salt Lake bank for him. That suited Mr. Poulson befter and the family has received the money. Mr. Poulson gets $5,000 and the other $5,000 will be divided between the six heirs of Mr. Poulson, senior, of whem Niels Poulson is one. DEATH CAUSED BY NEGLIGENCE. A coroner's jury composed of W. M. Raymond, M. J. West and H. A. Shupe brought in the following verdict as to the death of Peter Otterson: "We find that the deceased came to his death by an Oregon Short Line switch engine through his own negligence and rough his own negligence and rough no fault of the Oregon Short ine company or its employes." The quest was held before Judge J. A. Engineer V. H. Hestmark, Fireman Poulson is one.
