LOCAL NEWS.

Icelandish Weather.—At Randolph, Rich County, the snow is very deep and the cold extreme, the mercury going down to 18 below zero on the night of the 15th. At 10 a.m. of the 16th it was 12 below zero, with the sun shining brightly. Rather Icelandish weather that.

Kenna Abbott.—The Emma Abbott Opera Company is to appear shortly at the Walker Opera House, presenting some of the finest standard operas in English. Miss Abbott is renowned, and her company come heralded in such a way as to leave no doubt of their excellence. Their coming will be a musical event. Look out for announcement of dates.

Third District Court.—Proceedings before Chief Justice Hunter Friday, Feb. 15, 1884.
In the divorce case of Lucy J. Hill, vs. Alexander S. Hill, a motion was made on behalf of defendant to quash and discharge the service of summons, etc. The motion was argued by J. R. McBride for defendant and by A. Brown, Esq., and C. H. Gilchrist for Plaintiff. Submitted.

Singing Classes.—Brother E. Stephens is again able to continue his singing classes. The schools will be held as usual the coming week. Secondary school superintendents would oblige him and their scholars by announcing as above at their respective schools. He tells us the last class, numbering nearly 400, is making very good progress.

The Holland Benefit.—To-night Mr. George Holland, the actor, takes a benefit at the Salt Lake Theatre, and from the immensity of the bill and the well known ability of the players who are announced to appear, it is evident that it will be quite a dramatic event.
First on the programme is "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room," to be followed by "The Spectre Bridegroom," and that by "Robert Macaire," in all of which an opportunity will be given the public of seeing the dramatics personae in the hands of a combination made up of the Holland troupe and a number of local favorites. See advertisement elsewhere for further particulars.

Concert and Ball.—The good, old style social reunion of Latter-day Saints alluded to in the News a few days ago, will take place in the Theatre on Wednesday evening Feb. 27th. It is for the joint benefit of our Tabernacle choir and the B. Y. Academy of Provo. The character of the entertainment, and the dual worthiness of the object, should crowd the Theatre. Secure your tickets at once from the Ward Bishops and Teachers, or from the Tabernacle choir committee. The opportunity is a rare one for a genuine friendly gathering, devoid of formality and ultra fashionable dress, at the same time to enjoy a splendid programme of music and dancing.

Suit for Damages.—Mr. W. K. Reid, of Mant, came to Salt Lake last Thursday to engage counsel to defend himself as Justice of the Peace and the Constable of Mant, in a suit for $5,000 damages brought against him in First District Court by one Madsen for alleged false imprisonment. It seems that Madsen got into a row and knocked down another person, some time ago, for which offense he was arrested and fined, and in default of payment, which he refused, was committed to jail, where he remained one day and then paid his fine and was released.
Being advised that he could not be legally imprisoned for the cost, he brought a certiorari suit against the Justice in the First District Court, Judge Emerson deciding in his favor, notwithstanding the fact that he had not suffered imprisonment for costs and had settled the whole matter by payment. Madsen now brings suit against the Justice and Constable for false imprisonment. Jacob Johnson, of unsavory reputation in Sanpete County and here, is Madsen's attorney and, it is understood, the instigator of the whole affair.

Willie Tutts.—The abducted child, Willie Tutts, about whom the local press has had considerable to say of late, was brought back from Columbus, Ohio, yesterday afternoon and returned to its father, Mr. Eldridge Tutts, of this city. The particulars of the kidnapping, with its consequences upon parties engaged in it, some of whom are now in confinement or held in bonds for the part they played in the transaction, have already been published in the News.

It is only necessary now to state that on February 1st Mr. T. F. H. Morton, with power of attorney from the father of the child, set out for Columbus to get the child from its grandfather, William Tutts, and bring it home to its city. The result was as already stated, and so ends the matter as far as relates to the principal parties. What is to be done with those concerned in the abduction as subordinates, is yet to transpire.

Mr. E. Tutts called at the News office to-day, bringing the boy Willie with him. He is a bright little fellow, but the father says looks paler and thinner than when taken away.

WYOMING EXCURSIONISTS.

GRAND BALL AT THE THEATRE.—RECEPTION AT THE GARDEN—RETURN OF THE VISITORS TO WYOMING.

Our description of the manner in which the Wyoming Legislators were being entertained by the civic and military authorities of this Territory, closed yesterday afternoon with a necessarily brief sketch of the reception given by Gen. McCook and the officers and ladies at Fort Douglas.
At the conclusion of this very pleasant affair, the carriages and cutters which conveyed the members of the Wyoming and Utah Legislatures, Federal officials and others to the Post, were once more called into requisition and their distinguished occupants were brought back to the city, in a brief respite from activity before the opening of the grand civic ball tendered in honor of the Wyoming party by the municipal authorities at the Salt Lake Theatre.
At eight o'clock the scene in the vicinity of the Temple of Theatres, turned over for this occasion to the devotees of terresphere, was one of great activity. Carriages and other conveyances arriving at and departing from the stage door—the only entrance used last evening—and the gay stream of guests pouring into the illuminated auditorium, which was fitted up splendidly for the occasion, formed a spectacle of splendor and animation dazzling to behold.

After passing the Rubicon of the general Harris, stationed as a faithful sentinel at the ticket-table, the throngs of the occasion, formed a spectacle of splendor and animation dazzling to behold.

Her Majesty's Opera Company.—This afternoon we received a call from Mr. Howard P. Taylor, representing the famous Mapleson Opera Company. The troupe will arrive here at 10.30 on the night of March 6th, in Cal. Mapleson's special train from St. Louis, consisting of two coaches, four sleeping and two baggage cars.
Gerster, who accompanies the troupe is considered second to no singer in the world, including Patti, except so far as acting is concerned, in which the latter specially shines.
Galsani, the baritone of Her Majesty's Opera Company, is considered the finest actor and lyric artist in the world.
Mile Nordica, one of Mapleson's sopranos, scored a grand success in Rigoletto in Chicago last week and was compelled to repeat the performance on Saturday evening.
And indeed it was a welcome surprise over 100 people, all selected for their remarkable abilities. The chorus will be over sixty strong and the orchestra thirty-five. Mr. Taylor assures us that Salt Lake will have as fine a performance as is given in any part of the world, including Milan, Munich and London.

The company were to play at Cincinnati, the subscription having run up to $19,000. They were detained from fulfilling the engagement, however, by the fearful floods in Ohio, and instead gave a benefit in Chicago to the people of the flooded districts, the result being that $5,000 was handed over for the relief of the sufferers.
