

FIFTH ORDINANCE AGAINST SMOKE

Introduced in the City Council Last Night and Discussed.

ONE FATALLY DEFECTIVE.

According to the Statement of City Attorney Hiles—Fennstrom Raised An Objection.

For about the fifth time in the past five years another smoke nuisance ordinance was introduced in the city council last night and was discussed at considerable length and finally referred to the fire department committee for further consideration. There is an ordinance in regard to the smoke nuisance now in effect but the city attorney is of opinion that it is fatally defective in some respects and hence the ordinance of last night was introduced in its stead. The ordinance now in effect has been a dead letter and has never been enforced by the proper authorities and several of the councilmen were heartily in favor of passing an ordinance that could be enforced and compel the owners of large heating plants to install smoke consumers without further delay and abate the smoke and soot nuisance.

FENNSTROM OBJECTED.

Fennstrom at first objected to the ordinance for the reason that there is no in force now in relation to the matter.
When informed by the assistant city attorney that the ordinance was considered defective, he then raised the objection and urged its passage without delay. Tuddenham also favored the new ordinance but was of the opinion that the owners of steam heating plants should be given more than 15 days within which to install consumers.

Martin and Black both urged the passage of the ordinance and said that the matter had been up for about five years and they thought it time that it was settled in a manner that would result in the abatement of the smoke nuisance. Martin said that several of the people he had talked to about the nuisance had promised time after time that such people should be prosecuted.
Hobday opposed the ordinance on the ground that it would work a hardship upon the owners of small plants who would be compelled to expend a large sum of money to secure a consumer that would be satisfactory and comply with the ordinance. Martin closed the argument by moving that the ordinance be referred to the fire committee, which motion was carried.

FERRY OFFERS ONE.

Ferry introduced an ordinance making it unlawful for any person to keep a fierce, vicious or mischievous dog within the city limits and authorizing the chief of police to enter the premises where such dog is kept and remove it to the pound. The ordinance was referred to the municipal law committee.
O'Donnell introduced a resolution instructing the board of health to notify the owners of private alleys in the various districts that the same must be paved within four weeks from notice or they will be declared a public nuisance and ordered closed until they are paved.
The resolution was adopted.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED.

Ferry's resolution, requiring all heads of departments to file their requisitions for supplies and labor with the finance committee for close scrutiny before being passed by the council, was adopted by a unanimous vote.
Hobday introduced an ordinance doing away with street lunch counters and prohibiting the display of uncooked meats in the windows of restaurants in the city. The ordinance was referred to the municipal laws committee.

Upon the recommendation of the city attorney the council appropriated the sum of $252.50 for the settlement of the condemnation suit brought by the city against James Russell for a right of way for the Big Cottonwood conduit.

MONEY COLLECTED.

City Recorder Moreton reported that the sum of $1,522.50 was collected in the criminal division of the city court during the month of November; $121 in the civil division of the court; $100 from state cases; $32 from the juvenile court; $1,200 from automobile licenses.
The total receipts of his department amounted to $1,991.

THE OREGON SHORT LINE RAILROAD company and the Salt Lake Public Service company petitioned the council for permission to construct a switch to the Public Service company's power plant on Third West street. The matter was referred to the committees on inghouse; for the ward Relief society has been busy for several weeks making articles for use and decoration of the home which will be sold cheaper than can be bought anywhere else. Refreshments will be served at each session of the affair. A program is to be rendered and a dance will close it on Friday evening. Every case has been taken to make the bazaar a success.

B. W. ELLIOTT DEAD.

Conspicuous Figure in Local Official Life Passed Away.

After being in poor health for a considerable time and a patient at the hospital since Nov. 14, Bradford W. Elliott died at 4 p. m. yesterday. At one time he was a conspicuous figure in official life, having acted as a deputy United States marshal under E. A.
Ireland, later was a deputy sheriff during the regime of Andrew Burt as sheriff of Salt Lake county, and for a long time was on the police force.
A number of years ago Mr. Elliott removed with his family to Chihuahua, Mexico. There his wife died, two years ago, leaving him with six children. Mr.
Elliott was the son of Bradford W. and Ann Dunlap Elliott, early Utah pioneers, and was born at Ft. Pleasant, La., July 1, 1848. For a portion of his life he was not identified with the church, but a few years ago became reunited with it and died a faithful member. The funeral will be held from the undertaking parlor of Joseph E.
Taylor tomorrow.

SENATOR M'KAY RESIGNS.

His Successor in the Legislature Has Not Qualified.

Gov. Cutler today received and accepted the resignation of State Senator David McKay of Ogden. Mr. McKay was recently appointed by the governor as county commissioner of Weber county to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Commissioner Stanford. His term as state senator does not expire until his successor qualifies at the coming session of the legislature, hence his resignation from that office.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—"The College Widow" opens at the Theater this evening.

Orpheum—Mediocrity and merit were rival attractions at the Orpheum last night and for a goodly part of the evening the former held the lead in the contest. But before the curtain was rung down the three Leigtons, in a one-night minstrel stand offering, with Augusta Glose in a clever and original monologue act, and the Rinaldos in an acrobatic hoop performance, saved the night from what looked like a di-mal failure. Perhaps another artist should be included in the list of the rescue crew. He is Max Millian, violin virtuoso, a young Hebrew who lived here and won a heavy recall for his work. A young sister acted as his accompanist and shared the honors which followed. The Franciscos, alleged Australian comedy conjurors, belong to a ten cent circuit in a ten cent house. Neither sponsors nor sympathizers was the Royal Carl Rosa, grand opera star who twi-kled betimes during her appearance before the footlights. The kindromantic pictures furnished an appreciated variation at intervals, and the orchestra had its first night trial under Willard Youngdale, who succeeds Prof. Wells.

Occasionally separated by gaps that required a big leap to cover. The new departure of matinees every day but Sunday and Monday has now been thoroughly launched.

Grand—The role of "The Old Clothes Man" is so befitting Mr. James Kylie MacCurdy, is no wonder. He is the designer and framer of the character, wool, warp and finished article, and he plays the leading part as perhaps few other actors could. There was a large audience at the Grand last night to see Mr. MacCurdy in his own play, and there was not a dull moment from the time that the dealer in old clothes turned the hose on a suit of shoddy and hung it up as "a fire and water bargain" to the final act, when he knocked out in the prelight ring the man who had betrayed his daughter. Humor and pathos intermingled with each other throughout the entire evening, and the play was entirely satisfactory. Only the size of the gloves prevented Danny Bathurst and "Kiki" Sharkey from battering each other severely, for the lightweights indulged in a three round encounter with a vim that looked very much like real fighting. The Old Clothes Man will hold the boards tonight, Wednesday matinee and tomorrow night, and then comes a half week engagement of Theodore Lorich in "Beware of Men."

Lyric—That absorbingly interesting and delightful Scotch play, "The Little Minister," the one which Maude Adams gave on the occasion of her last appearance at the Salt Lake theater. In the attraction at the Lyric this week, by the Lyric Stock company. The performance is decidedly creditable and is greeted with a packed house each evening. Miss Roberts as Babbie, sustaining the character in a most acceptable manner and the same may be said of Joseph De Slean's portrayal of the "Little Minister." Those upon whom fall the task of doing the corner work are all that could be expected. The same bill runs through the week with the usual matinees.

LATE LOCALS.

To Choir Members—Tabernacle choir members are requested to bring their copies of the "Messiah" to the next rehearsal.

Bank Clearings—Today's local bank clearings amounted to $1,609,139.23 as against $1,253,474.60 for the same day last year.

Price of Butter—The prices of butter quoted yesterday were exceptionally low. The prices today, quoted by J. M. Christensen & Co., are 31 cents wholesale, and 35 cents retail.

Singing Class Change—Prof. Stephens' Monday children's singing class will hereafter meet Saturday mornings at 11:30, the reason being that the days are now so short that there isn't sufficient time for the lesson between school hours and dark. Parents says Prof. Stephens, should bear this in mind for next Saturday.

Committee Meeting—The executive committee of the Utah Light and Railway company will meet tomorrow, to consider estimates to be submitted by General Manager Wells for the spring improvements of the street railway system. It is proposed to reconstruct the greater part of the system, making new roadbeds and laying heavier rails; also, to extend the First South street line on Thirtieth East street to connect with the Second South street line at Fifth South street, and to extend the Sixth street track to the City cemetery.

Cripple Was Cruel—John Daechee-ko, a boy 14 years of age, was brought in from Bingham last night and imposed in charge of the juvenile court.
The boy has been living with a criminal miner at Bingham who compelled the lad to go out and beg for him.
The cripple, it is claimed, frequently beat the boy and treated him in a cruel manner so that he had decided to leave the fellow and seek protection from the officials. His mother lives in Illinois and he wants either to be sent back there or placed in a home where he can have an education. The juvenile court will hear his case on Thursday and decided what to do with him.

New Manager Here—L. H. Davis arrived in Salt Lake the first of the present week to take charge of the Hammond Packing company's interests here. The previous manager, Mr.
Edward M. Walsh, is in the hospital suffering from a complication of diseases. The altitude is too high for him and he was taken sick shortly after his arrival here from Colorado, where he has been for some four months ago. Mr. Davis is an old hand in the meat and packing business, having been located for the Hammond people in the east and coming here from the Hammond Colorado, where he is highly thought of. He will prove a valuable acquisition to the business interest of Salt Lake.

METHODIST CHURCH ORGAN.

Instrument Will be Entirely Completed by Tomorrow Evening.

The placing of the reeds in the new Methodist church organ began this morning, and the entire instrument is to be entirely completed by Wednesday evening, after prayer meeting. When Prof. A. H. Peabody will try it prior to its being turned over to the church on the following day. While the organ has no Vox Humana stop, the combination of the Aeoline, Salicional and Quintadena stops with the tremolo has been found so effective as to almost equal the Vox Humana. The extra cost of such a stop would be $400; and a Cor Anglais stop would cost over $200 extra; so both have been omitted. But Prof. Peabody says the church is getting the full worth of its money, and is enthusiastic over the new instrument.
He refers to the motor apparatus as ideal.

The program for the organ dedication concert has been printed in St. Louis, with a half tone view of the instrument at the head. Prof. Kreiser of Kansas City, who is to be the presiding artist of the evening, will arrive from Kansas City Thursday morning.
