Many a Salt Lake City Citizen Knows How Sure They Are.

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Salt Lake City. There is plenty of positive proof of this in the testimony of citizens. Such evidence should convince the most skeptical sufferer. Read the following statement:

A. Reynolds, living at 379 west First North street Salt Lake City. Utah, says: "Before I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the F. J. Hill Drug Co., I had been troubled for a long time from kidney complaint and backache. I was restless at night and as a consequence would arise in the morning feeling tired and worn out. Doan's Kidney Pills helped me in every way and I have not had any trou-

WOMEN IN CHARGE OF AUTOMOBILE SHOW

The second annual automobile show at San Francisco will be held in the great Coliseum March 2 to 8, inclusive, and is under the auspices of the California Women's Automobile Club. Last year the show was run by the San Francisco Dealers' Association, and that organization projected a show for last December, but after announcing dates, felt it necessary to retrench, on account of the financial panic, and gave up the show. The dealers tried for months to hold a meeting, and did not get together until the Women's Automobile Club had decided on a show, after securing entries from more than half the dealers in San Francisco. There was then a stormy meeting, which ended in refusing the women a sanction, but did not bar the dealers from exhibiting. Nine dealers organized a hoveott, but no more would join them, and now part of the boycotters have taken space, so that the great building will have as big a show as last year.

State's Basketball Stars Meet in Tournament to Decide Championship.

To settle just which team is champlon if Utah the various stellar aggregations in the state will meet in a basketball ournament Friday and Saturday here. The Y. M. C. A. "gym." will be the cene of carnage and a series of splendid ontests are anticipated.

The tournament begins at 6:30 o'clock riday evening and the schedule of games as as follows:

Friday evening and the schedule of games is as follows:

8:30 p. m., Salt Lake H. S. vs. Granite H. S.; 7:30 p. m., L. D. S. vs. Y. M. C. A. seconds; 8:30 p. m., Y. M. C. A. vs. U. of U.: 9:20 p. m., U. A. C. vs. L. D. S. seconds.

At 4 and 5 o'clock the winnig teams will come together to weed out until it remains between two teams which will play for the title in the finals at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Great surprise is expressed in basketball circles at the action of the B. Y. U. of Provo and the B. Y. C. of Logan in dropping from the tournament. Interference with track team work is given as what has made attendance here impossible but the local teams say it's a cause of cool pedal extremities with the boys un north and down south.

KEYMEN CLAIM VICTORY.

San Francisco, March 4.—A compromise was effected by stipulation today between the attorneys for the Southern Pacific Railway company and the Order of Railway Telegraphers, and the case affecting the questions at issue, which was taken to the United States court of appeals from the United States circuit court, was withdrawn. The compromise measure is to be effective from Feb. 21, 1908. The telegraphers claim to have gained their point.

Hours of service on Sundays shall be one-half of time on other days. Where this will disarrange the service the employe shall be entitled to 26 continuous days a year leave of absence on full pay. The percentage of general increase of salaries shall be 7½ per cent, the apportionment of this increase to be mutually agreed upon between the employer and employes.

THE INDEPENDENT FARMER IS HAPPY.

The most serene man that one meets with now, says a writer in the Louis-ville Home and Farm, is the independ-ent farmer, by which appelation we mean the farmer who is out of debt, and has a home and farm that are paid for. Other men's faces—the country-merchant, the miner, the millman, the clerk the traveling salesman and the merchant, the miner, the millman, the clerk, the traveling salesman and the railroad man—all wear a look of care and anxiety quite different from the cheerful mood they were wont to show two months ago. Country merchants have not had the big fall and holiday trade usual at this season. Millmen have been obliged to draw in their forces, and some have suspended work for a time, leaving, of course, many employes idle at a critical period. Traveling salesmen have sold fewer supplies, which affects the city merchants and manufacturers. In addition to these, the farm renters and tenants, depending in the main upon one or two spe-manufacturers. In addition to these, the farm renters and tenants, depending in the main upon one or two special crops, are feeling the pinching effects of the monetary depression.

But the farmer who is really independent in regard to financial matters, the man who owes no burdensome debts, and who has provender, corn, meat, roots and vegetables at home in his own store houses or on his own broad acres—this man is cheerful, easy, smiling, contented. With food supplies at home and no dues to bother him, a little cash stowed away in the stocking, enough to meet any sudden emergency that may arise, and with his family and his livestock in comfortable condition for the winter, why need he be anxious about financial matters? He is not. But with thankful and philosophic equanimity he can view the situation, glad that he has been prudent enough, by close economy, and perhaps by some denials here and there, to sail clear of the dreadful whirlpool of debt.

A FORTUNATE MAN.

A FORTUNATE MAN.

A FORTUNATE MAN.

Is he not a fortunate man and one to be envied? Is not this the niche to which every farmer should always aspire, and use every effort to arrive at and hold permanently? Would not this be the happiest result of this new year, 1998, if every farmer in the land only could, and would, so shape his course and manage his affairs, as to steer clear of grinding debt? Would any other new year's yow bring such blessings, so much individual and family happiness, as this: Resolved, God helping me, I will not go in debt for anything this year, except it be an absolute necessity.

But, unfortunately, many of our farmers are not, in fact, financially independent. There are many that have large store and fertilizer bills to pay, and no bank account, and but little of anything to pay with, but the one or two special crops that they have grown to the exclusion of home supplies. These men are not independent. They are not their own masters. They do not own the property around them.

And these men are not happy. They are gloomy and despondent, and some of them are talking of quitting farming as a business that does not pay.

Will such farmers never learn wisdom and come to know that they make or mar their own good luck by their own system of management? Will they never cease buying anything—supplies, fertilizers, or anything else on time? The object lessons resulting from the November flurry in the monetary world, ought to be enough to convince every man of the soundness of the pay-as-you-go principle. It is the only safe and prudent course to pursue, whether times are stringent or times are easy. It applies to all trades and callings, and the people of this land would soon be a hundred times better off, if going in debt was totally abolished. The credit system, or privilege, is the ruin of thousands.

HOW TO BEGIN THE YEAR. HOW TO BEGIN THE YEAR.

What a happy day it would be if the heads of every family—the man and the woman alike—would come together and seriously and firmly pleadge each the other to use his or her best efforts to keep the family expenses down to a safe basis—to economize in necessaries, avoid luxuries or needless indulgencies and return a decided "No" to all offers for goods on time. This is a work in which the women can help as much as the men, and perhaps more. They can help greatly, and they should help earnestly and willingly. Indeed, it is a matter in which every member of the family, the sons and the daughters, as well as the fathers and the mothers, can aid a great deal to help to lift the family out of the quagmire of debt on to the solid and safe ground of independence and competency.

Once out of debt—if that happy goal can be reached, and it can—let them stay out, except some dire misfortune again compels them to crave the pri-

CASTORIA

S.S.S. RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood, brought about by the accumulation in the system of refuse matter which the natural avenues of bodily waste have failed to carry off. This waste or refuse matter ferments and sours and generates uric acid which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism, with its torturing pains and aches, inflammation and other disagreeable symptoms, gets possession of the system. The aches and pains may be relieved and the inflammation temporarily reduced by the application of a good plaster, penetrating mation temporarily reduced by the application of a good plaster, penetrating limiment or some other simple home remedy, but the disease can never be cured while the blood remains saturated with the irritating, pain-producing uric acid poison. The cause should be driven from the blood before the trouble reaches the chronic or helpless stage. S. S. S., a purely vegeteble remedy, cures Rheumatism by thoroughly cleansing the blood of every particle of the uric acid poison, and making this vital fluid pure, fresh and health sustaining.
