Suspended Policeman Denies Any Involvement in Being Wrong-Adjourned to Saturday Evening.

Fisher Officer D. B. Stedje, who was recently suspended by Captain Hillson for conduct unbecoming a member of the Salt Lake City police force, was on the "grill" for an hour or more yesterday before the Council committee on fire and police.

He was questioned concerning his conduct in the Chinese saloons, and the committee adjourned without any action.

C. H. Stevens stated today that the Chinese saloons were closed during his term as mayor, but that they were open during the time he was on the council.

Hon. Frank Johnson, of Ogden, who underwent a very difficult operation at the Salt Lake City Hospital yesterday, will be made a guest of the Semi-Weekly.

The City Council will adjourn the general session of the semi-Weekly meeting at the end of the committee on fire and police.

There will be some trouble in getting the City Council to adjourn the meeting.

Frank Miller, James Watson, and Thomas Gresham, the three leading advocates of the order of Elks, W. C. Waggoner, and George Miller, the attorney and chief of the Chinese barbers, were present at the semi-Weekly meeting.
