From Buenos Ayres.

The following is a dispatch from Buenos Ayres, dated Aug. 5.—Notwithstanding the fact that the insurrection has terminated, great excitement prevails throughout the city and disquiet continues to increase. The leader of the party which supports General Mitre, formerly president of the republic, has been offered a seat in the cabinet, but declines. It is rumored that a new issue of $50,000,000 in paper currency will be made. A bill has been introduced in the chamber of deputies providing for forced currency. The national bank has resumed payment. The bourse is still closed and there is still a panicky feeling in commercial circles. The press is forbidden by the government to say anything on the crisis.

Alleged Murder.

A report came from Eureka, Juab County, August 8, stating that Mrs. Anna Marks had shot and killed Dennis Sullivan. Mrs. Marks has become a noted figure in the courts, through numerous disputes about some property in Tintic. On a former occasion she shot at one of the parties with whom she had a disagreement, and was arrested for the act. Sullivan has had some dispute with her in relation to land matters, and a few weeks ago she shot at and missed him. The report today is that last evening Sullivan and Mrs. Marks got into a quarrel, and that when Sullivan refused to retire at Mrs. Marks' command, backed by a loaded revolver, she fired a shot with fatal effect. Inquiry by telegraph was made at Eureka today for particulars of the shooting if it had taken place, but no reply had been received up to the time of going to press. Mrs. Marks is pretty well known here, from having kept a store on Market Row before she removed to Tintic.

A Meteor.

At 3:10 Wednesday morning, while watering his orchard, John Evans witnessed the falling of what must have been a huge meteor. The gentleman was standing under a dense shade tree. Although the heavens were clear and the moon shone brightly, suddenly the place was illuminated by a light double the power and intensity of the moon. Mr. Evans stepped from under the tree to see if some person were not approaching with a lantern. Glancing up, he saw that the entire heavens and the city were brightly illuminated by a large oblong ball of fire which was slowly passing from north to south. It appeared to be about three feet in length and one foot in diameter. It seemed but a few hundred feet above the city, and gradually diminished in size until it neared the Cc-op. when the light suddenly departed. About three minutes afterwards a loud report like a clap of thunder was heard in the east. Mr. Evans says he has beheld many creatures of the heavens in their antics through the air, but never saw one that would compare with this.—Brigham Bugler.

Arrests in Cache County.

Joseph Moser, of this city, was arrested yesterday charged with unlawful cohabitation. He will have an examination before Commissioner Goodwin next Tuesday.

Fred Theurer, of Providence, was arrested yesterday on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. The alleged plural wife was subpoenaed as a witness. Some evidence was heard in the case by Commissioner Goodwin yesterday, and the case was then continued until next week. Mark Fletcher is defending the case.—Logan Journal, Aug. 10.

Last Thursday, at Logan, Deputy United States Marshal Whetstone arrested John Hendrickson, who was indicted in January, 1889, for unlawful cohabitation. Hendrickson appeared before the clerk of the district court in this city, and furnished bonds in the sum of $1000 for his appearance at the time of trial.

Deputy United States Marshal McLellan arrested Thomas Kirby at Hyde Park, on the same charge. The witnesses in the case, two of his alleged plural wives and three children, together with the defendant, were bound over to await the action of the grand jury.—Ogden Standard.

Serious Conflict in South Wales.

The following is a dispatch from London, August 8.—A great conflict between capital and labor in South Wales has begun in real earnest. All train hands and signal men on the railway lines have quit work. All traffic has been stopped on the Barry, Rhymney, Penarth and Taff railways, where, owing to the strike, the greatest possible confusion prevails. Several attempts have been made to send out trains with improvised staffs, but these have failed. The whole service is paralyzed. The mails are being despatched along high roads in carts, which go under a special and strong guard.

It is a gigantic struggle, one of the greatest of the generation in this country. A hundred and seventy thousand men are idle and trade in all the markets in Wales is paralyzed. Rhonda, with its population of 100,000 inhabitants, which is mainly dependent on the Taff line for bringing its supplies, is panic stricken. There are large collieries there, which employ a force of about 30,000 workmen, and these are all idle. From Swansea, Poughpool and all parts of the southern portion of the principality promises of liberal support for the strikers are coming in. Communications are now passing between representatives of the men and Cardinal Manning, Lord Dunraven, Lord Aberdare and Lord Brassey, who have undertaken to act as arbitrators in the matter.
