FROM THE FOUR WINDS.

The Norway spruce is the hardest and most valuable of all the trees of the West. It is estimated that the fruit crop of 1884 was valued at the rate of $100,000,000 by insects.

The man who can write love letters without making an ass of himself has a rare talent. It is not a talent that can be taught, but it is a talent that can be cultivated.

Fourteen loaves of snow fell in the West on the morning after the great November meteor shower in 1883.

George Bancroft, the historian, is the only private citizen who has been given the right to the floors of Congress at all times.

An Italian astronomer claims to have discovered that Mars is peopled with intelligent beings. He ought to sign the pledge.

A woman always feels herself complimented by love, though it may be from a man incapable of winning her heart, or perhaps even from a man who is not in love with her.

The retail stores had some queer calls last week. At one of them an old man called for "spruce," and at another a young man called for "butter." "Invisible butter dishes,"

If rich, it is easy to conceal our wealth; but if poor, it is not quite so easy to conceal our poverty. It is a fact that is less difficult to hide a thousand and guineas than a hole in your coat.

To-day is a king in disguise. To-day all the world is king, and the king is the man who is the most successful in the face of a uniform experience that all good and great and happy actions are made up of pieces of the same blank to-day.

A willow farm in Macon, Ga., produces about a ton of willows to the acre, commanding a price of $200, and, as the leaves and bark sell at 25 cents a pound, baled, the enterprise pays better than cotton.

The Uster Profile is the name of a new machine for measuring the waist. It is a small, portable, and accurate machine, and it is a great help to the tailor.

The deposits of New South Wales are estimated by the colonial geologist to cover an area of 6,000,000 acres, but the actual area is much greater than that, as new fields of tin are continually reported.

A man and woman who destroy the human race are the most dangerous of all. In the constitution of human nature, the desire of bettering one's condition is the strongest of all. The first touch of slavery snaps this spring.

A reporter of the Chicago Tribune says the exhibits at the fair stock show in that city consisted of about 200 head of cattle, 300 head of sheep, 300 head of horses, a few crates of poultry, several tons of butter and cheese and a brass band.

Evergreen should be so placed and so trained that the leaves of the tree should be as it were, take their place to the wind, and the tree should be so trained that it should be as it were, take its place to the wind.

A gun that will shoot nine miles with considerable accuracy is now said to be in the hands of the British army. It is a gun that is called the "Long Range" gun, and it is a gun that is said to be the most accurate of all.

All persons possessing any portion of power ought to be strongly and awfully impressed with an idea that they act in the name of the people, and that they are the servants of the people, and that they are the servants of the people.

Wisdom is the only thing which can be taught, and it is the only thing which can be taught in the most effective manner. It is the only thing which can be taught in the most effective manner.

A new alloy, a combination of manganese and steel, is now being used for the manufacture of the most accurate of all instruments. It is an alloy that is called the "Manganese Steel" alloy, and it is an alloy that is said to be the most accurate of all.
