

KING'S CRUELTY CAUSES SCANDAL.

Because of his cruelty to his two daughters both of whom he has disowned, King Leopold of Belgium is now one of the most unpopular monarchs that ever sat upon the Belgian throne. Talk of the overthrow of his dynasty and the institution of a republic are again in the air. Above are latest photographs of the two beautiful princesses who have mourned the severe displeasure of their royal parent.

but will later be the guests of Judge and Mrs. Barth.

Mrs. Joseph M. Cohen and Miss Sutton have returned to the city after a two month's vacation and rest.

Mrs. C. D. French of Butte is in the city with friends.

Charles H. O'Brien is welcomed back from Chicago on a short visit.

On Monday night, Mr. Duncan McVie and Mrs. Anna Corning gave a delightful reception at the home of Mr. Corning in honor of their sister Mrs. Wright, about 100 guests being present. The rooms were beautifully decorated and music was furnished by the Niles Mandolin club. Mrs. Honnor assisted in receiving and in the dining room Mrs. Charles Post assisted in serving refreshments. Punch was served during the evening by Mrs. Pearson. The event was a most elaborate and delightful one.

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

The testimonial concert given Thursday in honor of Miss Lucile Ferrin was one of the greatest musical treats that the public of Ogden has ever had the pleasure of hearing. Each number on the program was received with continued applause. The following program was rendered:

Chorus, "Inflammatus" (from Stabat Mater).....Rosini

Tabernacle Choir, Solo by Miss Lucile Ferrin.

Tenor Solo, "My Dreams".....Tosti

Violin and Piano, "Scena de Ballet".....De Bortol

Mr. George Skelton and Mr. J. J. McClellan.

Soprano Solo, "Arliso" (from La

Mort de Jeanne (Ari).....Bemberg

Mrs. Mary Harrington Stevens.

Duet, "Pearls of Love".....Pissuti

Miss Ferrin and Mrs. Bessie Dean Allison.

Tenor Solo, "Selected".....Richards

Baritone Solo, "Cambrian War Song".....Richards

Mr. Charles Kent.

Soldiers Chorus, (from Faust).....Gounod

Tabernacle Choir.

Contralto Solo, "If Thou Didst Love Me".....Denza

Mrs. Allison.

Violin and Piano, a) Lullaby by Carner; b) Cavatina by Rasse.

Mr. Skelton and Mr. McClellan.

a) Aria from Daughter of the Regiment (by request).....Donizette

b) Linda Di Chamounix.....Donizette

Miss Ferrin.

Miss Ferrin has for some time past been a favorite in the musical circles throughout the state, and her departure for New York City next week, where she will take a thorough course in voice culture and other musical branches is looked upon with much interest by the public, who feel assured of her success.

Mrs. James A. Miller of Salt Lake was visiting with friends in Ogden this week.

The Primary association of the First ward gave a grand ball in the ward hall Friday evening, which was greatly enjoyed.

Prof. Conley's new and beautiful dancing academy is becoming very popular.

Mrs. A. W. Agee has gone to St. Louis, where she will visit with relatives for a short time.

Mrs. W. S. Warner and children have gone to the coast for an extended trip.

Mrs. C. H. Hornett entertained Friday in honor of her daughters, Ida and Ella, who have gone to California to spend a short time with friends, previous to Miss Hornett's departure for Honolulu, where she is to be married in the near future.

Saturday evening last a quiet, but pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Richardson on East Twenty-first street, when their daughter, Miss Ethel, was married to Mr. Fred W. Eastman, the well known singer. Rev. John E. Cover of the Presbyterian church officiating. There were present at the ceremony only the relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and evergreens. The contracting parties are well and popularly known in Ogden, but their marriage was a great surprise to their many friends. Mr. Eastman was a delegate to the Irrigation congress at Colorado Springs, and in company with his charming young bride left for that place on a wedding tour last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Eastman will make their future home in Ogden.

Mrs. Ray Decker and son of Alberta, Canada, are visiting in Ogden with Mrs. Decker's mother, Mrs. T. J. Stevens. Miss Zella Stevens returned to Ogden with her sister from Alberta, where she has spent the summer.

Miss Bertha Thiel, has returned to her home in Salt Lake, after a pleasant visit in Ogden with Mrs. E. A. Larkin.

Prof. Charles Kent, Ogden's beautiful baritone singer, with his family will remove to Salt Lake City this month.

The enjoyable features of the afternoon were songs by Miss Lulu Gates and piano selections by Miss Jennie Sands. The guests were: Mrs. Lucien Ray, Mrs. Brown, the Misses Rose, Squibb, Moore, Josephine Wells, Violet Little, Aline Cronson, Abbie Wells, Genevieve Clark, Lucile Taylor, Mamie Sharp, May Young, Annette Ferguson, Lulu Gates, Jennie Sands, Hazel Calder, Monie James, Emily and Helen Whitney, Mrs. Decker, Hazel Beale, Clara Douglas, Dorothy Dwyer, Helen Browne, Jean Spencer, Lulu Ferguson, Phoebe Hardin, Vida Richards, Elsie Ritter, Farnsworth, Karina Thacker, Clint Young, Arlon Kimball, Jennie Beale, Seville Pitt, Lulu Keating, Edith Kingsbury, Nabel Snow, Grace Clawson, Alice Neslin, Genevieve Pyper, Marguerite Taylor, Stella Daynes, Hilley, Maud Patrick, Vera Young, Hattie Jennings, Lora Badger, Leona Wiscomb, Dede Grant, Myrtle Banks, Laura Bunting, Claudia Schofield, Ollie Martineaux, Margaret Cummings, Desse Pitt, Nanette Chaplin, Hazel Taylor and Lydia Thompson of Provo.

The week has been a busy one, with its various social functions, mingled with the many meetings of societies during the earlier days to meet the convenience of the conference visitors. Many of these last were the recipients of attentions in the way of pleasant social functions and the week altogether has been a busy and pleasurable one.

The luncheon given by Mrs. R. J. Smith and Miss Noble at the Alta club on Thursday was among the elaborate affairs of the week. The guests numbered 32, and sat at a table laid in the form of a cross, with a bank of marigolds and coccopals as a centerpiece, a border of white roses at the edges of the table, with apraxagus fern within, and ropes of smilax entwining from the chandelier to the corners of the cross. Candelabra, with yellow shades, carried out the color scheme, and palms set about the room completed the artistic effect.

Another delightful affair was the dinner given by Prof. and Mrs. J. J. McClellan at the Commercial club on Wednesday, the guests of honor being Dr. Hughes of Canada and Miss Lulu Gates. Present besides these were Gen. and Mrs. C. S. Burton, Col. and Mrs. N. W. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gates, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Pyper, Mr. and Mrs. Will Spence and Miss Lulu Gates.

Yesterday at 4 o'clock p. m. Miss Melvina Perry and Benjamin F. Johnson were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride, with Elder Jesse Fox officiating, and a reception being held in the evening. The bride wore a dainty creation of white chiffon with embroidered flounce and tucks and carried bride's roses. She had no attendants. The rooms were beautifully decorated by Huddart, the parlor in white and green and diningroom in white and pink, the bride couple standing under a canopy of smilax, with bride's roses, palms and asparagus plumosa used in profusion about the room. Pink and white roses and carnations with ferns and smilax were used in the diningroom with artistic effect. Delicious refreshments were served and the affair was altogether charming. The bride is the pretty and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Perry, and the groom is a rising young attorney of Salt Lake. Both have many friends who will extend congratulations and good wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Whitely celebrated their silver wedding on Wednesday night in a delightful party at their home, about 70 of their friends being present. The rooms were beautifully decorated with a profusion of flowers, roses and dahlias being effectively used with palms. An orchestra of German zithers dispensed musical selections throughout the evening. Delicious food and punch were served, and a most enjoyable time spent. The hosts received many presents in commemoration of the occasion.

Miss Hattie Whitney and Miss Betta Peterson entertained at a delightful reception on Wednesday afternoon, a large number of their friends being present to enjoy the pleasant affair. The rooms were prettily decorated with autumn leaves and palms and among

TO WED AT FRISCO.

Another big wedding to attract national interest will be the union of Miss Edith Huntington, grandniece of the late Collis P. Huntington, to young John D. Spreckels, Jr., son of John D. Spreckels, the sugar king. Miss Huntington is heiress to many millions, but the mating of the two millionaires is said to be purely a love affair. The wedding will take place in early fall.

George Butler, Walter Watson, Fannie Johnston, Clara Glaque, Florence Poulton, William Castleton, Miss Hazel Calder, Miss Alice Tuddenham, Miss Gertrude Barton, Miss Larinda Poulton, Miss Hattie Castleton, Miss Antheil McMaster, A. R. Poulton.

At the Ladies' Literary club yesterday, "The Pros and Cons of the Electric System of Education" and "Are the Classics Essential to Modern Education," were the topics for a discussion by Mrs. C. E. Allen and Miss Caroline Payne, and Mrs. Allen and Judge Goodwin, the debate being a most interesting one.

The Cleofan held its first meeting of the season on Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Annette Culmer, and commenced the reading of McCarty's "England in the Nineteenth Century." The chief topic was "Foundation of Canadian Dominion and Charist Collapse," and Miss Catherine Culmer was chairman.

On Tuesday the regular meeting of the woman's club was held in the club rooms at the county building. The president, Mrs. Gattrell, gave her opening address and Mrs. Bucklee gave a bright and entertaining paper on "The Los Angeles Bleat."

Mrs. Bucklee of Salt Lake and Mrs. Searles of Provo were guests of the club. Next week Mrs. Gattrell gives "Gaul from B. C. to 752 A. D. Roman Dominion, Christianity in Gaul, The Franks and Merovingians."

The wedding of Miss Pauline Groo and Mr. Arthur Davis on Tuesday night was one of the pretty and interesting events of the week. The marriage was solemnized at St. Mark's cathedral by Bishop Leonard and an informal reception was held afterward at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Byron Groo. Mrs. Harry Hathaway sister of the bride acted as matron of honor, and her brother Mr. Jay Groo as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Davies left afterward for a trip to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Hatch of Heber City have announced the engagement of their daughter, Anna to D. W. McAllister of this city, the marriage to take place in the near future.

Mrs. W. S. Webster left Monday morning for Los Angeles, California, where she expects to spend the next few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Godbe, Miss Alice Godbe, Mrs. Brooks, Dr. C. Behle, Alfred Godbe and others have returned from a camping trip to the Twin Peaks. They went via Murray and Willow creek canyon, and very little snow was found. The air was remarkably bracing, and the view was superb.

Misses Bessie and Helen Sharp entertained a number of their little friends at a pleasant afternoon party on Monday.

The Red and Black gave one of their enjoyable dancing parties last night at Christensen's. The number being present and the usual good time enjoyed by all. Percy Brown and Le Roy Bourne of the senior class will have charge of the season's festivities.

Mrs. Howard S. Stowe left yesterday for a fortnight's vacation in San Francisco.

Mrs. S. M. Day will spend the coming month in the city with her daughter, Mrs. Breeden.

Mrs. Charles Vadner and children returned last night from the eastern coast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer have returned from their eastern trip.

Christensen's academy opened last Wednesday night and yesterday afternoon and the large number present evinced the popularity of the favorite dancing institution had suffered no diminution since last season. Music was rendered during both receptions, and refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. S. McCormick and Miss Keogh will entertain at luncheon next Tuesday.

The Altar society of St. Mary's cathedral will give a social, with cards, music and refreshments, at Christensen's, at the home of Mrs. N. P. Dooley, 345 Fourth street, next Tuesday evening.

Miss Winnie B. Jones and Mrs. G. W. Weaver and son of New York are here visiting Mrs. R. B. Carter. They are on their way to pass the winter in California.

Miss Bertha Carter has gone to California.

Mrs. Elizabeth Genter has returned from California and is with her sister, Mrs. Dooley.

The hostess at the Country club today was Mrs. F. S. Hascom, and the usual tea was served at 4 o'clock.

Miss Jane Mackintosh has opened a studio at 433-434 Constitution block, and will teach singing and tone production during the winter. Miss Mackintosh has a cosy suite of rooms that will be most attractive to her pupils and friends.

A number of Salt Lake ladies went to Ogden on Thursday to attend the party given by Mrs. Ralph Hoag.

On Thursday morning Miss Mary A. Casey of Pittsfield, Mass., and Capt. William E. Cole, of Willard, Boxelder Co., Utah, were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed at 11.30 a. m., and a wedding breakfast being served later at the bride's home. Afterward the young couple left for their home in Florida. The groom graduated from West Point in '98 and is at present stationed at Fort Barrancas, Pensacola, Fla.

Club Chat

Next Wednesday a special meeting of the Utah Woman's Press club will take place at the exponent office at 3 o'clock. It will be a business meeting and all members are earnestly requested to be present.

The Reviewers' club met on Monday afternoon and the topics of the meeting were "The Kindergarten," by Mrs. Coray, and "Long Distance Transmission," by Mrs. Evans.

The L. D. S. University students will begin next week and hold matinees from 4 till 8 o'clock on Friday afternoons, the plan being to have informal programs of recitations and addresses, to begin with, in Barrett hall, and dancing afterward in the gymnasium hall. The plan promises to be both pleasant and popular.

Miss Florence E. Parry who has been visiting in Denver for the past six weeks returned yesterday after a very pleasant visit.

A delightful event of the week was the card party given by Mrs. Edridge Thomas on Thursday. The rooms were tastefully decorated and the contest enjoyed by about 40 guests.

Mrs. E. C. Parsons was hostess at a delightful card party yesterday afternoon, about 40 guests enjoying pleasant affair. The rooms were beautifully decorated with autumn flowers, and the scores and tallies were done in water colors. Refreshments were served at the close of the contest.

Mrs. P. D. Rickford entertained at a Thanksgiving on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. M. S. Lacy of Colorado Springs. The time was spent in singing and a guessing game was a feature of the afternoon, the prize being won by Mrs. R. C. Woodruff. About 20 guests were present and a delightful time enjoyed.

Mrs. A. C. Andrews and Mrs. John Reed entertained at a delightful reception yesterday in honor of Mrs. Melvina of Washington. The rooms were beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and vines, and dainty refreshments were served. A large number of guests were present during the afternoon.

Mr. John A. Moyer, cashier of the St. Joseph Gazette of St. Joe, Mo., is in the city, his trip being in the nature of a nuptial celebration.

Miss Mabel Freebairn was the impromptu hostess at a pleasant affair last night, a number of her friends gathering unexpectedly at her home and spending a most enjoyable time. Music and games were features of the evening, and a bountiful spread was enjoyed.

Mrs. James W. Neill and Miss Neill will entertain at card next Thursday.

Mrs. J. Keegan of Milwaukee is visiting with her friend, Mrs. F. S. Fox, of Indiana avenue.

Mrs. George W. Wragg, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wragg, left for her home in Spokane yesterday.

Mrs. Gustave J. Barthel has just returned from a trip to Omaha.

Mr. Oberdorfer of Portland, Ore., spent several days of last week visiting his sisters, Mrs. I. Mayer and Mrs. Synde.

The marriage of Miss M. Luddy Henderson of this city and Martin Harding of Cody, Wyo., will take place next week.

Mrs. A. S. Watson left yesterday for an extended eastern trip.

Miss May Cerkel of San Francisco who has been visiting in this city with Mrs. Henry Cohn, left yesterday for New York with Mr. and Mrs. Cohn.

Mrs. L. J. Franken has returned from her eastern trip.

Dr. and Mrs. K. C. Park have arrived and will be guests of honor at a reception to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Park on the 15th.

Mrs. Bancroft and Miss Adelaide Nason have gone to New York.

Mrs. Claud W. Freed returned yesterday from a month's visit to Denver.

Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Loomis are at home in their new residence on the corner of N and Third streets.

Mrs. S. W. Searle of Provo is the guest of Miss Fannie Bucklee.

Miss Miriam Nelke is visiting Mrs. Emma Dooney at her home on Second East street.

Miss Claudia Morris is visiting friends in Louisiana, Mo.

Miss Abbie Wells leaves shortly for a trip to New York.

Mrs. Alfred Bersbach and Miss Amy Bersbach of Chicago, who have been the guests for some time of the Porter family, will leave tomorrow for their home.

Mrs. Frank A. Druehl and Mrs. Walter F. Druehl will entertain October 14, 15 and 16.

Mrs. L. D. Davis announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Davis, to Mr. Alfred S. Peters.

Mrs. George H. Davis leaves Wednesday for a visit to Miss Mason at Eureka and Miss Murphy at Payson.

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Park have arrived in the city and will be at home after the 15th of the month at 34 I street.

Mrs. Arthur Brown entertained at an informal dinner Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Aldrich of British Columbia, who is the guest of Mrs. Rachel Miller.

Mrs. W. S. Henderson will entertain at two parties on Thursday and Friday of next week. The first will be an afternoon card party and the second a Kensington.

Mrs. Ida S. Dusenberry of Provo is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. Coburn Farrar who has been the guest of his brother, Lieutenant Farrar of Fort Douglas, will leave today for his home.

Mrs. R. S. Thurman and daughter, Mrs. Moses Davis of Provo, have been spending the past few days in the city.

Miss Sybil Anderson is spending the winter in Montreal, Canada.

Mrs. A. W. Copp is visiting at Boulder, Colo.

Mrs. Walter Anderson is in Omaha visiting with relatives and friends. She will visit Chicago before returning home, the latter part of October.

Mrs. A. H. Tarbet has cards out for a reception on the 14th in honor of Mrs. Donaher of Park City.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bancroft have moved into their handsome new home on east South Temple street.

A series of assemblies will be given this winter, the first one to be held at the new Christensen's hall in Thanksgiving week. They are now being arranged by a number of the leaders.

Mrs. W. G. Lamb was in the city during the week.

Mrs. Charles Morse of Denver is the guest of Mrs. Shepard Benson.

Miss Helen Morse left for Denver on Thursday.

Mrs. G. W. Stoner has returned from Pocatello.

Madam Shelton has returned to Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kinney of Honolulu will be welcome today. They are former residents of Salt Lake.

Miss Bertha Carter leaves today for California.

Mrs. W. D. Ricketts and mother leave for southern California next week.

Mrs. J. L. Samson left last week for Missoula, Mont., where she is visiting her relatives. She will be absent from the city several weeks.

Mrs. George Sutherland is now at home to her friends at the Kenyon hotel.

Mrs. T. A. Cosdriff and his sister, Miss Elizabeth, and Miss Bowman have gone to Denver to attend the Festival of Mountain and Plain.

Mrs. N. E. Hutchinson has returned from Canada, where she has been spending the past few months.

Mrs. J. H. McCoy and daughter Mae and Zola left Thursday evening for an extended trip to Pennsylvania and West Virginia, where they will visit Mrs. McCoy's daughter and parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Child and Mrs. Hartshorn of Boston have gone to California.

MONDAY

October 13,
All Week.

Pictures at	40cts
Pictures at	$1.50
Pictures at	$2.00
Pictures at	$3.00
Pictures at	all prices

See Them in our Show Window.

PICTURE

Our New Furniture of every description, for the home and office is arriving daily. We will appreciate a visit from you.

GREENWALD FURNITURE CO.,

27 and 29

W. Third South St.

SALE!

TELEPHONE 462.

