A CLOCK WHICH STUCK THIRTEEN. There is an old legend about the clock in St. Paul's London, striking 13 times instead of 12, once upon a time; and it is said, that because this was proven a sentence of 13 years was exacted.

He was accused of sleeping at his post, which was at a considerable distance from the church. The poor fellow denied the charge, but could not bring evidence of his innocence. He had his trial, and the only proof of his wakefulness he brought forward was that at midnight he had heard St. Paul's strike 13. The judges laughed this to scorn as an impossibility, and besides, they thought he could not hear so far. However, while he lay under sentence of death, several persons came forward and swore to the truth of the statement.

It is reported that the soldier was set free and long years afterward when he died the record of the circumstance was engraved on his coffin plate.

Save the Children. Ninety-nine of every one hundred diseases that children have are due to disorders of the stomach, and these disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. It keeps their little stomachs sweet and encourages their growth and development. Mrs. Henry Carter, 565 Central St., Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville, but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is a well baby. I recommend it to all sufferers." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by all druggists.

WOMEN'S BUSINESS DIRECTORY. Women of Boston have had a new honor thrust upon them, namely, that of having a directory of their names and addresses published in any light. But it does show women engaged in occupations which may be new to be controlled exclusively by men. In fact the book reveals how men can do just about everything that is worth doing at all. And, of course, they do it well. The business woman's directory may be called an enlightening as well as a new work, and its time may be found chained in every drug store alongside of its big brother, Boston Evening Transcript.

Ruling of Attorney General as to Priority in Filing Upon Water.

The following ruling by the attorney-general relative to priority in filing upon water, involves the principle of the appropriation of a supply by a single party, and indicates that the man who gets there first, is liable to get the whole thing. The official says, in reply to an inquiry from the state engineer:

"You ask what action you should have taken in this matter. In replying, I beg to say that, if you state, the application of the Joseph Agricultural & Stock company covered all of the water of the stream upon which it filed on Aug. 15, there was nothing left for the subsequent applicants to avail themselves of, hence the reception and filing of their application on Aug. 28 would have been entirely futile and valueless, and no good purpose could thereby have been subserved. When there is no unappropriated water, the proposed source of supply, or where the proposed use will conflict with existing rights, it shall be the duty of the state engineer to reject any application made to appropriate water under such conditions. It is consistent with section 25, chapter 190, laws of 1903. It follows from the foregoing that the application of George F. Palmer and Frank Joseph, filed on Aug. 28, should have been rejected; but if it had been received, and after examination it was found that the conditions as above set forth existed, the application should be returned with the reasons therefor.

"The fee accompanying the rejected application should be returned with it. It cannot be the policy of the state to retain the money of an unsuccessful applicant for water. If the fee is further advanced after the proper legal notice has been given by the state engineer, in conformity to the provisions of section 27, the applicant would have no right to make after the expiration of the 60 days, but otherwise such application would become void. That is to say, if any rights had accrued by reason of the failure to file such map or profile, the original application would be void."

Persons troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia can eat all they want if they will take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. This remedy prepares the stomach for the reception, retention, digestion and assimilation of all of the wholesome food that may be eaten, and enables the digestive organs to transform the food into the kind of blood that gives health and strength. Sold by all druggists.

W. J. BRYAN ON DEATH. Makes Consoling Remarks at the Funeral of a Friend Who Was Killed.

New Haven—William J. Bryan delivered an address at the funeral of Philo S. Bennett, who was killed accidentally in Idaho last week. He was also one of the honorary pallbearers. The address was made at the grave.

Mr. Bennett was one of the presidential electors on the Bryan ticket in Connecticut in the last national election. Mr. Bryan said:

"It is sad enough to consign to the dust the body of one we love. How infinitely more sad if we were compelled to part with the spirit that animated this tenement of clay. But the best of man does not perish. We bury the brain that planned for others as well as for his master, the tongue that spoke words of love and encouragement, the hands that were extended to those who needed help, and the feet that ran where duty directed; but the spirit that dominated and directed all rises triumphant over the grave."

"If the sunshine which a baby brings into a home, even if its sojourn is brief, cannot be dimmed by its death; if a child growing to manhood or womanhood gives to the parent a development of heart and head that outweighs any grief that its demise can cause, how much more does a long life, full of kindly deeds, leave us indebted to the Father who both gives and takes away? The night of death makes us remember with gratitude the light of the day that has gone, while we look forward to the morning."

"To the young death is an appalling thing, but it ought not to be to those whose advancing years warn them of its certain approach. In the course of nature, the king of terrors loses its power to afflict us, every thing that makes us first willing and then anxious to join them. It is God's way."

Mr. Bryan left New Haven at midnight for Illinois. He refused to talk politics. Many local Democratic leaders called on him.

ANOTHER POOR GAME AT WALKER'S.

Spokane Ball Tossers Went to Pieces in the Seventh Inning And Locals Won.

SCORE, EIGHTEEN TO NINE.

Home Crowd Ran Up Eleven Tallies When the Indians Went Up In the Air.

If Tuesday's doings at the ball park between Spokane and Salt Lake was a ragged exhibition of baseball, their performance of yesterday afternoon has no bearing at all on the national pastime. Tuesday's game was championship American league ball compared with yesterday's miserable fiasco. Instead of being in better shape after a rest from their long journey, the Indians were simply demoralized, that is, all except Pitcher Putman, who pitched fairly good ball and would have done better had he been given anything that resembled support. In the seventh inning their performance was frightful to behold. The locals were not playing championship ball by any means but their bad work looked fairly good compared to the antics cut by the Indians. In the inning referred to the locals were not retired until they had run up a total of 11 tallies and they might not have been sent to the bench then but they got tired of running around the bases and wanted a change. The whole affair was so bad that the least said about it the better. There were no features except bad ones. The same teams met again this afternoon. The summary follows:
