THEATRE.—A large audience assembled at the Theatre last evening and was richly repaid for their visit by the excellent acting of Mr. Raymond as "Uncle Nathan" in the new play of "Only a Jew." The whole representation of the character was artistic in a high degree, and of beautiful and affecting touches of pathos there were not a few, especially in some of the scenes with "Prinks" (Miss E. Clawson). Messrs. Margetts and Graham contributed greatly to the evening's entertainment by their masterly personations of "Jeems Chunks" and "Crankley." Miss Walters and Messrs. Thorne and Dunne played neatly and effectively. The "Marm Touter" of Mrs. Bird was a horrible old hag. As in real life sometimes, at the close of the play the big villain went free and the little villains were kindly taken care of by the police.

This evening "Only a Jew" will be repeated, followed by the farce of "Hit Him, He has No Friends," in which latter Messrs. Graham, Thorne, and Harris, and Miss Simons and Mrs. Bowring will appear and make the last theatrical fun of the old year.

To-morrow (New Year's Day) Mr. Raymond will appear as "Rip Van Winkle," supported by Messrs. Thorne, Dudley and Dunne, Mrs. Bird and Miss Simons, and others of the company.

NO PAPER TO-MORROW.—To-morrow is New Year's Day, and as people who work in a printing office are as fond of an occasional holliday as the general run of people, we shall issue no paper on the first day of 1873. We heartily wish all our friends and patrons a Happy New Year, desiring that the ensuing one may be the happiest and most prosperous they have yet seen, and that, with each succeeding year may come a further increase of good times.

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 31st, 1872.

Total enrolled for the year,	689

I have the honor to be,
Respectfully,
J. MORGAN, Prest.

A CHANGE.—We learn that Mr. C. R. Peters has withdrawn from the firm of Greeley & Peters, in the co-proprietorship of the Walker House. Mr. David Porter, of San Francisco, will fill the vacancy made by the withdrawal of Mr. Peters. The new partner is represented in this city by Mr. J. N. Wilkins, late of Boston. Mr. Wilkins is a live business man, and has had considerable experience as a hotel keeper in the Eastern States.

HIGHLY CREDITABLE.—We have lately noticed a very creditable improvement in the condition of the theatrical orchestra, and the same is being observed, appreciated and favorably commented upon by many others who attend the Theatre. Some new additions have been made to this body of musicians, and the pieces performed lately have been new and well selected, and the audiences have been highly delighted with the efficient manner in which they have been performed. With suitable material in point of quantity as well as quality, Professor C. J. Thomas is demonstrating his ability to make the orchestral department of the Theatre a prominent and pleasing feature of the entertainments given there. Good orchestral music aids materially in making the whole dramatic entertainment pass off lively.

RALPH HARRISON, there is a letter for you at this office. Call and get it.

RECOVERING.—The many friends of President Joseph Young, Sen., will be gratified to learn that he has so far recovered from his late severe attack of erysipelas as to be able to walk a little about home, and he hopes in a few days to be able to take exercise in a carriage. At one time it was feared, through the severity of the disease and his advanced age, that his illness would terminate fatally, but the prospect now is that he will shortly be convalescent.

HOME MISSIONARY MEETINGS.—Sunday Jan. 5th, at Farmington, Elders R. Miller, Milo Andrus, and R. F. Neslen.

Sunday Jan. 12th, at Sugar House Ward, Elders R. Miller, R. F. Neslen, George Teasdale, H. W. Naisbitt and George Swan will be present.

Meetings to commence at 10 a.m. and 2 p. m.

BAD ELEMENT.—We have heard of quite a number of instances lately of people being stopped on the streets at night by would-be robbers. One instance was that of a gentleman, late from Montana, who was approached by three ruffians, who evidently intended to rob him. Before they had time to accomplish anything he felled the one nearest to him to the ground by a blow over the head, administered by a six-shooter, which he held in his hand. The other two ran away; and he himself made pretty good time from the spot, leaving the one who was struck prostrate on the ground.

We were informed of another instance of the same kind where a gentleman was stopped, a short time back, by a man who demanded his money. In response to the request the gentleman, we are informed, presented a pistol at the fellow's head, which caused him to beat a hasty retreat.

Such occurences as the above are causing respectable people to act with caution when they have occasion to be abroad on the streets after dark, and certainly too much caution can scarcely be exercised in the matter, for the lawless element, as the winter months advance, does not diminish but increases, and if Salt Lake City has not her share of unmitigated ruffians of this western region, the other cities in this part of the continent are not in a very enviable condition. The evidences go far to show, however, that in that kind of "civilization" Salt Lake is becoming well advanced, and will even now compare in that respect with many cities in the west.

Attempted and accomplished cases of incendiarism, attempted and performed robberies, attempted murders—like that on Mr. Cummings, all prove the existence of a very dangerous class of men in this city, and it is to the interest of all classes of peaceable citizens, independent of political, social or religious opinions, to so act that the place shall become too hot for lawless desperadoes. If the latter are encouraged and comforted, and assured by parties that they can commit crime and escape the punishment which should be meted out to them, the public weal will be endangered, because life and property will be unsafe. Those who give such comfort and encouragement to thieves, blacklegs and cutthroats, should be looked upon with but little, if any, more consideration than the real criminals themselves. That there are those who take this course, who are ready and willing to champion the cause of any reprobate who may be guilty of the grossest and most flagrant violations of law, is well known. Not only this, but the nicest technicalities of law are strained at, besides the employment of other unwarrantable means, to clear the culprits from the consequences of their crimes.

To produce a healthy condition in local affairs the local officers should be upheld and sustained. Criminals are not generally deterred from the commission of crime by moral restraint. The only efficient barrier to their depredations is the fear of receiving the just consequences of their guilt. A long course of crime crushes out whatever spark of moral feeling may have originally existed in natures which have come depraved, and to commit crime almost becomes a habit, which they can only be prevented from indulging in by having the fear of the law hanging over them.

WILL SOON ARRIVE.—The Chicago Times says that the small company of "Mormons" who crossed the Atlantic in the S. S. Manhattan, passed through that city, on their way here, Dec. 26th. At the ordinary rate of travel they should arrive in this city this evening, or not later than to-morrow.

DESERET TELEGRAPH.—The Deseret Telegraph office will be open to-morrow from 8 to 10 a.m., and from 4 to 6 p.m.

OGDEN.—The following are from the Junction of yesterday:

"A serious accident occurred at Lynne last evening. Mrs. John Calvert took the burner off a fluid lamp while it was burning, for the purpose of filling it up. In doing this, the flame from the burner communicated with the fluid in the lamp, which she placed on the stove and attempted to extinguish; failing to do this, she and her husband made for the door, taking their baby with them. In her haste to escape she caught her dress on the lamp, upsetting it, and scattering the fire in every direction. Before the fire could be put out, Mrs. Calvert was badly burned on the face, shoulders, back, legs and right arm. The baby was burned on its hands, face and legs; John on his nose and arm. Dr. Anderson is attending the sufferers. The house is slightly damaged."

"On Saturday last two boys were detected in the act of stealing a keg of powder from Z. C. M. I. They were arrested and taken before Alderman Thompson who fined them five dollars. It was proven that the father of one of the boys, having ascertained that his son had been guilty of the theft, went immediately to the store, and gave information of the act. Through his honorable course the purloined property was returned and Roman-like he refused to countenance the act or to shield his son from the penalties inflicted by the law."

BOUND OVER.—The examination of William Brandon on a charge of stealing a large quantity of clothing, from Mr. Jamieson, was concluded to-day. It was a clear case against him, and he was bound over to the Probate Court, in $500 bonds, in default of finding which he was committed.

In addition to the above case he was fined $25 for stealing two pairs of boxing gloves and a couple of fencing foils from Captain Martin.

STEALING A WATCH.—Thomas Parkinson was fined $35, to-day, for stealing a watch from the store of Mr. Andrew Harvey, First South Street. It appeared from the evidence that the watch had been left with Mr. Harvey by Mr. James Payne, to be repaired, and that Parkinson called at Mr. Harvey's place yesterday, and immediately he was gone the watch was missed. The article was traced to the store of Mr. Hollander, where it had been left by Parkinson to be repaired. The latter called for it at Mr. Hollander's about noon today, and the police managed to call there about the same time, and took himself and watch to the City Hall.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

EASTERN.

AUGUSTA, Me., 31.—The reports that Senator Merrill is seriously ill are untrue.

HARTFORD, Ct.—Senator Schurz is the guest of Governor Jewell of this city.

NEW YORK.—A petition is receiving the signatures of business men, requesting the legislature to abolish the present usury laws and substitute those of Massachusetts and other New England States.

CINCINNATI.—At Mechanicsburg, O., on Sunday evening, a colored woman named Bowson, in a fit of rage or insanity cut the throat of her child and then cut her own. Both will probably die. The cruelty of her husband is the alleged cause.

At White Plains yesterday the will of Greeley, dated 1871, was presented for admission to probate. Hearing in the matter, however, was declined until January 15th.

The news of Secretary Boutwell's proposed resignation is considerably discussed in Wall Street, the prevailing speculation being that Assistant Secretary Richardson will receive the office for a few weeks, after which he is expected to accept a government position abroad.

CHICAGO.—Near Pittsfield, Ills., on Friday last, Wm. and Thos. Corkson, brothers and well to do bachelor farmers, were found frozen to death in their house, having been dead a week.

Thos. L. A. Valquett, one of the oldest operators in the Western Union Telegraph office in this city, died yesterday of smallpox.

A New York special says Samuel Sinclair yesterday offered his resignation as publisher of the Tribune and it was accepted, to take effect to-day.

Saml. E. Rankin, State treasurer, of Iowa, and also treasurer of the board of trustees of the State Agricultural College, has been found to have used $38,000 of the funds of that institution. He has made good the amount by the surrendering of his personal property. His accounts as State treasurer are correct.

Since it has been evinced that the salary of the Nicaragua ministership is so great, applications for that position have increased in a wonderful manner. Among the names mentioned as applying for the place are two governors of Territories and several senators whose term expire the present session.

Washington special says Senator Sumner's physician says his condition is very bad. He has frequent recurrences of acute pain in the region of the heart, the result of the senatorial difficulty, which has afflicted him for the last fifteen years. These always are very violent and prostrating, but of short duration. The Senator suffers from loss of sleep and on retiring each night has an opiate introduced under the skin of the arm by which some slumber is produced.

CHICAGO.—The Journal's Washington special says an executive order will probably be issued to-morrow, addressed to Federal officers in various States, warning them not to interfere with State matters in any way, but to confine their efforts strictly to the performance of their legitimate duties.

All quiet at New Orleans.

Report that Secretary Boutwell has not resigned, but he cannot remain in the cabinet after March 4.

Ice broke at Cincinnati, two steamers and some barges sunk, others damaged.

At Rochester, Dec. 30, fourteen voting women were held to bail to appear at Albany court session. Susan B. Anthony refused, and was remanded.

Fire at Alexandria, Va. Loss $100,000. Insurance $55,000.

Fire at Orange, N. J. Loss $50,000.

Deceased embraced the gospel in Preston, England, shortly after the arrival of the first Elders from Amerika in 1837, and crossed the sea with Levi Richards, on his return to Nauvoo, Illinois, in 1843.

She was driven with the Saints from Nauvoo in September, 1846, and emigrated westward to Winter Quarters, (now Florence, Neb.,) where she remained till 1848, when she emigrated to Salt Lake City.

Deceased never doubted the truth of the everlasting gospel, and rejoiced in the hope and faith of a glorious resurrection with the just.—[Com

NOTICE.

A RUMOR HAS GAINED CREDENCE that Zion's Co-Operative Mercantile Institution disregards the Wholesale Merchants' Orders issued from its Office. Any statement to that effect is totally false and can only benefit those dealers who are willing to speculate on the necessities of our laboring class.

We should our orders at one hundred cash on the dollar and trust the holders of them will, in justice to themselves, demand their valuation whenever disposing of them.
