LOCAL BRIEFS.

Monroe Very Ill—C. H. Monroe is confined to his home with severe illness.

Pressmen To Dance—The pressmen of the city will give a Thanksgiving ball in the Odeon Wednesday evening.

Forest Officers Move Tomorrow—The forest service officers in this city will begin moving next Tuesday to Ogden.

Col. Hickox Ill—Colonel G. S. Hickox of the bureau of animal industry in this city is a patient at Holy Cross Hospital.

War Veterans To Meet—The Spanish war veterans will meet Wednesday night in their new quarters, 36 West Second South street.

To Discuss Hebrew Poetry—The Y. M. C. A. Bible class meets this evening in Brooks arcade, when Prof. Marshall will discuss Hebrew poetry.

Miss Stewart Convalescent—Miss Sarah Stewart of 451 Third East street is convalescent at the L. D. S. hospital from appendicitis.

Rich About Again—Ed. Rich who suffered a badly broken leg last August by his horse falling on him is able to be out on crutches and partially attend to business.

M. & M. Directors Meet—The M. & M. directors will meet this evening preparing for calling a meeting of the association to discuss the erection of a building for the association.

Cable Arrives—The Independent Telephone company has just received a carload of underground cable which will be laid the first of the week along First South between Tenth and Thirtieth East streets.

English Will Attend—Secretary Ensign of the State Fair association leaves for Chicago Nov. 30 to attend a meeting of the American association of fairs and expositions.

Building Dairy Supply House—A dairy supply house is to be erected on Sixth South street, between Main and State streets. Improvements are being made in that part of the city, where it is promised that $25,000 will be expended in the next few months.

Dr. Woodring Called—Dr. W. W. Woodring of Mt. Pleasant died yesterday afternoon, at Holy Cross hospital from uremic poisoning, at the age of 69. The body was shipped today for interment to Mt. Pleasant where the deceased had resided for many years.

Successful Operation—Dr. J. S. Richards and R. T. Richards have returned from Rochester, Minn., where the former submitted to a capital operation for stomach trouble. Part of the operation was performed, and the patient now feels better than he has for years.

Dinners For Poor—The Salvation Army is preparing to provide 850 poor people with a Thanksgiving dinner. Saturday's collections amounted to $1,000. Tickets for the dinner may be had of the county commissioners, The Associated Charities and the Salvation Army.

Hodges Loses Foot—Joseph Hodges, member of the next Legislature from Rich county, is at the L. D. S. hospital recovering from a partial amputation of the right foot. While loading sheep at Randolph last week he fell under the caboose of the train, which ran over his foot and crushed it.

Students Visit Mines—The mining students of the University of Utah visited the mines of Bingham Saturday afternoon by G. A. Overstrom, professor of mining and mill design. Lectures were given on the nature of the underground workings and surface features of the camp were thoroughly gone over by the class.

Students' Council Meets—The Students' Council of the Y. M. C. A. met Saturday evening, when they elected to membership E. Randall, W. J. Witherspoon, O. S. Sael, J. E. Cowley, Ernest Baur, Harold Heaton, A. E. Winward, E. A. Hoare, Arthur Haight, O. E. McMullin, Stephen Carman and A. H. Vossmever.

G. A. R. Musical—The G. A. R. gave a musical evening at the Odd Fellows hall, the proceeds going toward the fund to defray the expense of the next national encampment. The attendance was large, and quite a neat sum was realized. The nature of the evening was an address from Rev. D. A. Helmick on "The Grand Army," while Thomas Loughney spoke on "The Prisoners of War."

President Mahon Here—President W. D. Mahon of the street car union is in the city, accompanied by his wife, en route west from attendance on the Labor convention in Denver. A meeting is being held in this afternoon in Knights of Columbus hall for the night men, and a meeting will be held later for the day men, the visit terminating in a big spread. The street carmen's band will furnish music.

Mayor Votes Resolution—The substitute offered by Councilman Hall to the resolution of Councilman Stewart relating to booths in saloons, has been voted by Mayor Bransford. The substitute empowered the chief of police to abolish booths, wine and card rooms, and other saloons. The mayor is of the opinion that the measure is passed would place too much power and authority on the police department, Mr. Stewart.

Ten Petitions Denied—The state board of pardons met Saturday afternoon at the prison where 10 petitions for official clemency were denied. They were for pardon, Alvin Karpis, grand larceny; C. W. Smith, three grand larcenies; Joseph Kendall, 16 years for murder in the second degree; for commutation, Edmond Burriss, 18 years for highway robbery; Hiram L. Jones, five years for burglary; Joseph E. Mack, eight years for attempted burglary; M. J. Lyon, eight years for burglary, and Royal Morrison, ten years for burglary.

Walker is Pleased—Secretary G. S. Walker of the National Wool Growers association has written Secretary Stewart of the Utah association, stating his pleasure at the prompt action taken by the Utah people in protesting against the wool tariff. It is learned here that wool men all over the country are uniting to fight the attempt of the Australian wool interest to lower the tariff on wool. A. S. Erickson of this city has been selected to appear at Washington before the committee of ways and means in the interest of the Utah sheepmen.

CALL IS ISSUED FOR CONVENTION

League of Commercial Clubs Sought to be Formed After Big Meeting.

GATHER HERE IN DECEMBER.

Fisher Harris Invites Businessmen From Over the State to Assemble in This City.

Through a formal call, issued to all Utah commercial clubs, actual and prospective, the Salt Lake Commercial club has directed attention to the good that can come to Utah from a league of clubs, operating, each in its own town, for the general uplift.

The call is for the convening in Salt Lake City on Dec. 10, of a convention to consider the formation of a new all-state organization in which shall be leagued the state's clubs. Once organized, the league will mean that the same "boosting" literature, use the same general style of stationery, and advance each club with the same publicity. The league means that the respective inquiries about the section of the country it represents from the central organization.

The plan for the December convention is to have papers read covering the scope of the proposed league, and to end the two days of the convention with a banquet at the Commercial club, tendered by the club to the visitors. The official call for the convention is as follows:

"A convention of representatives of the commercial and industrial organizations of the state of Utah, is hereby called to meet in the Commercial club rooms, Salt Lake City, Utah, Dec. 10, 1908.

OBJECTS OF THE CONVENTION.
"This convention is called for the purpose of creating a state league of commercial and industrial organizations, the duty of which shall be to advance by legitimate means the growth and prosperity of the state of Utah.

"The purposes of this league shall be to advance, by social intercourse and friendly exchange of views, the commercial prosperity and growth of the state of Utah; to promote uniformity in the customs and usages of producers, manufacturers and merchants; to encourage markets for home products, foster capital and protect labor, mutually interested in each other's welfare; encourage manufacturing, collect and disseminate valuable agricultural, manufacturing and commercial information; extend and develop trade, commerce, the arts, manufactures, agriculture, irrigation, merchandising, banking, mining, smelting, livestock raising and wool growing pursuits, and to do any and all things necessary to promote the objects of the proposed organization.

"Commercial clubs, chambers of commerce, boards of trade, merchants and manufacturers' associations, real estate associations, etc., are allowed three delegates each shall be the president, vice president and secretary of each organization taking part in the deliberations and conclusions of the convention, or their duly accredited representatives.

"The convention will be called to order promptly at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, Dec. 10, 1908, and it is earnestly hoped that the attendance will be complete and fully representative of the varied interests of the state.

"The board of governors of the 'COMMERCIAL CLUB.'
The program which will be carried out in the two days' convention of the representatives of the state is as follows:

Dec. 10, Forenoon Session—Addresses of welcome by Gov. Cutler, Mayor Bransford and W. J. Halloran, president of the Commercial club. Presentation by some designated delegate from one of the organizations outside of Salt Lake.

Afternoon Session—Presentation by the Salt Lake Commercial club delegation of the plan of organization for consideration by the convention. Adoption of constitution and by-laws and completion of organization.

Evening Session—Fisher Harris, secretary of the Commercial club, on "The Interest of Salt Lake City in the Development of Outlying Districts of the State."

Papers by two outside delegates, not yet selected, on "The Interest of the State at Large in the Development of the Salt Lake City Area," and "The Interest of Salt Lake City in the Development of Outlying Districts of the State."

RICHMOND FUNERAL.

Funeral services over the remains of G. W. Richmond, the Denver & Rio Grande freight conductor who died at St. Mark's hospital Saturday from injuries received in an accident at Colton, Utah, Friday night, were held at 4 p. m. yesterday afternoon at Elks clubhouse. The services were conducted according to the rites of the Catholic church. There was a large attendance present, both from the friends of the deceased and the members of the Elks clubhouse and the Elks, of which deceased was a member.

The body of the dead was delivered by Elks clubhouse. There were eight pallbearers, four selected from the Elks and four from the local and grave company. Interment was at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Conductor Richmond was 43 years old and had been in the employ of the Denver & Rio Grande road for 10 years. He leaves a widow and two sons by a former wife, John and Wilton.
