SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE.

Three Days of His Spiritual Food and Instruction.

LAKE CITY, WILLIAMSBURG, CO.

South Carolina, Oct. 25, 1895.

The South Carolina conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints held its annual conference near Lake City, October 20th, 21st and 22nd, 1895. The regular meetings were held under a splendid canopy. The day was very pleasant as the weather was all that could be desired. This region is usually very swampy, but the long down the main road leads dry as the sand and friends who came more than a seventy miles had a pleasant journey.

Conference began Thursday, October 20th, at 10 a.m. Elder F. L. Beattie called the meeting to order and a brief and appropriate prayer was offered. The first business was the reading of the minutes of the last conference.

Prayer by Elder F. L. Beattie. Singing, "New songs" in the day of salvation, etc.

Elder G. L. Beatty spoke on the necessity of faith and what constitutes faith. He was followed by Elder J. H. Whitney, who showed that all sinners were born with some foundation principle. As testimony to the science of an omniscient God must have foundation principles. It has, and they are faith, repentance, baptism and the laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost. The speaker related that he was to have faith in the Father, who created all things, and the laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost. The speaker related that he was to have faith in the Father, who created all things, and the laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost.
