TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS, DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Exactation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work and are a perfect

PRICKLY ASH BITTERS

The majority of the ills of the human body arise from a derangement of the Liver, affecting both the stomach and bowels. In order to effect a cure, it is necessary to remove the cause. Irregular and Sluggish action of the Bowels, Headache, Sickness at the Stomach, Pain in the Back and Loins, etc., indicate that the Liver is at fault, and that nature requires assistance to enable this organ to throw off impurities.

Prickly Ash Bitters are especially compounded for this purpose. They are mild in their action and effective as a cure; are pleasant to the taste and taken easily by both children and adults. Taken according to directions, they are a safe and pleasant cure for Dyspepsia, General Debility, Habitual Constipation, Diseased Kidneys, etc., etc. As a Blood Purifier they are superior to any other medicine; cleansing the system thoroughly, and imparting new life and energy to the invalid. It is a medicine and not an intoxicating beverage.

A CHEERFUL SPIRIT.

The man or woman who always reveals a cheerful spirit, will succeed in life. The pleasant face will carry its possessor safely through life in spite of every opposing power. Smiles will banish the darkness that gathers about every life path, and the sunlight will fall upon life's pathway, wherever a cheerful spirit exists. The sunbeams will melt the iceberg and dispel the darkest night that ever brooded over the world, and so a sunny spirit will scatter the coldness and darkness of humanity, and bring brightness and blessing to those about it.

If there is anything repulsive about a human being, it is a fretful spirit and a sorrowful face. If there is anything utterly repelling and disgusting, it is the sour-visaged one who cannot smile or wear a cheerful look, but who continually broods over his misfortune and so keeps on the shadowy side of everything. God's sunshine is nothing to him any more than the sunlight of heaven is to the poisonous nettle-weed under the shadow of the slimy rock, or dense shrubbery. His dwarfed and selfish spirit is as nearly like the nettle-weed as it can be, or like anything else that grows in gloom and darkness.

A cheerful spirit is one of the most valuable gifts ever bestowed upon humanity by a kind Creator. It is the sweetest and most fragrant flower of the spirit—that constantly sends out its beauty and fragrance, and blesses everything within its reach. It will sustain the soul in the darkest and most dreary places of this world. It will hold in check the demons of despair, and stifle the power of discouragement and hopelessness. It is the brightest star that ever cast its radiance over the darkened soul, and one that seldom sets in the gloom of morbid fancies and foretoding imaginations.

Cultivate, then, a cheerful spirit, and cherish it as something sacred Obey the command, "Rejoice evermore," and its light and blessedness will ever fall upon thy pathway.—Ex.

BE INDEPENDENT AND HELPFUL.

It has been well said that there is nothing in the wide world that secures success so completely as does perfect independence. People who are always waiting for help may wait a long time, as a general thing. A little assistance, a little influence, is not to be had by asking, but there is always something one can do himself. Do it, whatever it is, with a will. If a young lady, don't sit still and hope a rich man will marry you, while your aged father toils for your daily bread. Learn how to help yourself, and take care of yourself as much as possible. Rather be one who does things for others, than one who must have things done for you. Two hands, two feet, sight and strength—these ought to enable you to dispense with help while you are young and vigorous.

Men who can defy adverse circumstances, and can earn a living in any quarter of the world in which they are dropped down; who can roll up their sleeves and set to work at almost anything that offers; and who can even sew on their own buttons and make themselves a cup of tea when deprived of the help of womankind, are the ones who are really independent. The most helpful women are the kindest and truest; and as for a man, never trust him in any capacity if he has not within him the true spirit of independence, without which neither strength nor sweetness may be hoped for. In the battle of life there is but one way to succeed—fight it out yourself. Give the helping hand when you may. Take it, if in some sore strait it is offered freely, but never ask for it. Be independent as far as man may be if you would honor yourself, or be honored by others, or be happy.—Ex.

WRESTLING CAMELS.

Wrestling matches between camels is an amusement in which the Turks take great delight, although they sometimes get a fine animal maimed in the sport. The camels are trained to wrestle when quite young, and take much pleasure in the fray. A correspondent writes: We had a young one on board, only a month old, and as he was born under the flag he was christened "Uncle Sam." One of the Turks amused himself on the voyage making a "pehlevan" of him, and when he was six weeks old he was more than a match for his master, using his legs, neck and mouth with such dexterity, and displaying such wonderful strength in so young a thing, that he became a very rough playmate, and often hurt the men by throwing them down. This feature seems to be natural to the camel, for when two strange ones comes together where there are any females they have a wrestling match for the supremacy, and the conquered one ever after acknowledges his inferiority by not so much as daring to glance at a female. Well trained animals seldom injure each other, being taught to throw their antagonist by getting his neck under their fore leg—the right one—and then throwing the whole weight of their body on him and bringing him to the ground.—Ex.

PARALLEL REMARKS OF GREAT MEN.

In Bartlett's "Dictionary of Familiar Quotations," says the Pittsburg Dispatch, Lincoln's "Government of the People, by the People, for the people" is paralleled by similar phrases from earlier speeches by Theodore Parker and Daniel Webster. No original is suggested, however, for the equally famous passage from the second inaugural address: "With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right." The following expression, however, bears so close a resemblance as to be worth quoting: "In charity with all mankind, bearing no malice or ill-will to any human being, and even compassionating those who hold in bondage their fellowmen, not knowing what they do." It occurs at the close of the letter addressed by John Quincy Adams on July 30, 1838, to A. Bronson, of Fall River, Massachusetts, in response to an invitation to attend a celebration on August 1st, of the final abolition of slavery in the British West Indies.

A LIBEL ON MR. EVARTS.—Our esteemed contemporary, the Boston Journal, has been imposed upon by some envious and designing person. Otherwise it could never have printed these lines:

"Mr. Evarts is thin, and his face is pale, so that his whole appearance is ghostlike."

Our own Evarts ghostlike! Perish the thought. Such an idea could arise only in Massachusetts and under the influence of Butler's defeat.

If our Boston friends want to see how ghostlike the distinguished lawyer is, let them come on to New York and attend one of the great public dinners here, where Mr. Evarts presides or sits on a high table.

But perhaps ghosts eat in Boston. —N. Y. Sun.

THE THREE WISHES.—A gentleman while sitting at the dinner table with his family, had these words said to him by his son, a lad of eleven years: "Father, I have been thinking, if I could have one single wish of mine, what I would choose."

"To give you a better chance," said the father, "suppose the allowance be increased to three wishes, what would they be? Be careful, Charley!"

He made his choice thoughtfully: first, of a good character; second, of good health; and third, of a good education.

His father suggested to him that fame, power, riches, and various other things are held in general esteem among men.

"I have thought of all that," said he; "but, if I have a good character and good health and a good education, I shall be able to earn all the money that will be of any use to me and everthing will come along in its right place."

A wise decision, indeed, for a lad of that age. Let our young readers think of it and profit by it.—Selected

TRUE Temperance

Is not signing a pledge or taking a solemn oath that cannot be kept, because of the non-removal of the cause—liquor. The way to make a man temperate is to kill the desire for those dreadful artificial stimulants that carry so many bright intellects to premature graves, and desolation, strife and unhappiness into so many families.

It is a fact! BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, a true non-alcoholic tonic, made in Baltimore, Md., by the Brown Chemical Company, who are old druggists and in every particular reliable, will, by removing the craving appetite of the drunkard, and by curing the nervousness, weakness, and general ill health resulting from intemperance, do more to promote temperance, in the strictest sense than any other means now known.

It is a well authenticated fact that many medicines, especially 'bitters,' are nothing but cheap whiskey vilely concocted for use in local option countries. Such is not the case with BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It is a medicine, a cure for weakness and decay in the nervous, muscular, and digestive organs of the body, producing good, rich blood, health and strength. Try one bottle. Price $1.00.

The above are the results of neglected and mistreated Catarrh. Below follow the results of Dr. Van Hummell's treatment of Nose, Ear, Throat and Lung Diseases.

The Doctor has taken an office on West Temple Street, third house South of Valley House, Salt Lake City.

Letter from Judge Wenner, Office over London Bank:

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, August 23, 1883.

Dr. Van Hummell: I take great pleasure in certifying to the efficacy of your treatment for Nose, Ear, Throat and Lung Diseases. I attribute my rapid restoration to what I consider permanent good health to the treatment I received at your hands in 1879, and I unhesitatingly recommend your treatment to all afflicted with Catarrh, Throat or Lung Disease.

Very truly yours, U. J. WENNER.

Nasal Catarrh Cured.

Dear Doctor: I have been troubled with Chronic Nasal Catarrh for the past ten years. I am happy to state that your treatment was entirely successful in my case. If by publishing this you can influence others suffering with this dreadful disease to try your skill, you are at liberty to do so. Because the physicians who can cure this disease are very scarce, and when one is found skillful enough to succeed, I think the public should know it.

I remain yours,
STEPHEN B. LEYBOURNE,
Corner First South and Third West.

From Mr. Warren Hussey, former banker of Salt Lake, owner of Jay Gould Mine, Butlon, Idaho.

DENVER, COL., August 3, 1878.

This is to certify that I have been for many years a great sufferer from nasal and bronchial catarrh, the pain from it in my head and eyes being at times almost unbearable. I have tried many doctors and remedies, with temporary relief from some, growing gradually worse, until last winter, being in a very bad condition, I consulted Dr. Van Hummell and put myself under his treatment. From the first week my head and throat were relieved, have not had a headache—they were the bane of my life—since he began with me, and now I remain entirely well.

I write this for the benefit of like sufferers who may be seeking relief and urgently recommend them to give Dr. Van Hummell a trial. The benefit I had from his treatment is invaluable, and I know of many others he has treated equally successfully. WARREN HUSSEY.

The Cure is Permanent.

From a prominent capitalist, former owner of the Golden Terra mine, Black Hills:

DENVER, Col., March 6, 1879.

Dr. Q. Van Hummell, Dear Sir: I am happy to inform you that the catarrh and throat trouble for which you treated me over a year ago has not returned. I consider the cure permanent.

Yours gratefully, J. W. BAILEY.

Dr. Van Hummell's professional qualifications attested to by one of the first men in America, Ex-Gov. T. A. Hendricks:

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 30, 1877.

Governor Irwin: Understanding that you will be called upon to fill a vacancy in the State Board of Health, I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Q. Van Hummell for the position. Dr. Van Hummell was a long resident of this city, and a very near neighbor and friend of mine. He makes the treatment of Nose, Ear, Throat and Lungs and other Chronic Diseases a specialty and therein has been very successful. B t he is also well learned in his profession generally. He is a gentleman of excellent habits and character, and would prove a valuable member of the Board. With great respect,

Yours, etc., T. A. HENDRICKS.

Letter from the right Rev. J. C. Talbot, Episcopal Bishop of Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 19, 1874.

My Dear Doctor: You are entirely at liberty to use my name as one of your many references. Your skillful treatment of my wife, now nearly a year past, has entirely cured her of severe catarrh and cough, from which she suffered much for many years. Very truly yours,

JOS. C. TALBOT, Bishop.
