Chago Commercial club and members the Commercial clubs of Boston, cacinaati and St. Louis. The visit to salt take had been anxiously anticipated by the business men of this city and from the moment it became known that they would surely include Salt lake in their itinerary, preparations were made to give them a royal reception. The visit of the club is an event that will doubtless have far reaching results, as every one of the members of it are not only successful business men, but the most representative in their different lines of busi-Not a few are heads of concerns that have an immense trade with the wholesale and retail houses of this city. However indirect may be the beneficial result of the visit of the Chicago Commercial club to Utah, the members of the citizens' committee of Salt Lake unite in saying that it is one of the most fortunate things for the business interests of Salt Lake and for the development of the State. ARRIVAL IN THIS CITY.

The Chicago Commercial club and her friends, numbering in all about estation about 9 o'clock yesterday rade, the Utah Credit Men's associatha had made arrangements to meet and entertain the visitors. Some of us entertainment committee went to orden the night before to meet the rators, and they were welcomed to the dry by the following gentlemen: Mayor Thompson, Chairman Geo. T. tell Geo. A. Lowe, Geo. H. Walton, G. McDonald, J. A. Graham, C. N. J. G. McDonald, J. A. Oraham, C. N. Strevell, John E. Dooly, Dr. J. C. E. King, Edward Merrill, Samuel Weltz, Geo. E. Ford, H. B. Prout, Joseph Geocheran, T. R. Cutler, Geo. Y. Wal-lace, T. G. Webber and P. Doran. DRIVEN OVER THE CITY.

Soon after their arrival, and after round of introductions, the visitors were escorted to carriages and driven up South Temple street to Fort Doug-The morning was somewhat cool so a stop was made only just long enough to get a view of the valley, and the drive was then continued to the the drive was then continued to the city and county building, where they were received by and introduced to Governor Heher M. Wells. Continuing, visitors were shown through Walker Bros.' store and the Z. C. M. I.

AT LUNCHEON.

They were then taken to the Alta where luncheon was served. The only speech made during the day was given at this luncheon by President W. A. Fuller, of the Chicago Com-mercial club. He very briefly and handsomely thanked the Credit Men's ciation for the treatment that had been given the club, and praised the city, its location, beauty and manifest business netivity.

PRESIDENT SNOW'S WELCOME. The reception by President Snow at sit Lake yesterday entertained the commercial club and members insurance. The Commercial club of Cincinnati was represented by Edwin C. Gosborn, manager National Lead company, and William Worthington. The Commercial club of St. Louis was represented by Isaac W. Morton of Simmons Hardware company and H. N. Davis. The physician in charge during the trip is Dr. E. C. Dudley of St. Louis.

THESE DROPPED OUT.

THE CLUB'S TOUR

The proposition had been made frequently to the members of the Chicago Commercial club to suspend their busi. ness affairs for a few weeks and make a tour of the West. Invitations had been frequently tendered by railroads and cities and prominent men, but only in Febrgary did nearly all the members see their way clear to do so. Then came an invitation from the Santa Fe and on the 4th of March nearly every member of the club boarded a special train which rapidly whirled them over that company's line through Kansas, Colorado, and New Mexico, almost Colorado, and New Mexico, almost without stop until Phoenix, Arizona, was reached. They were entertained there with some fine "broncho bust-ing" (as the breaking of the wild ponies is called), and other attractions that most of them had never before seen. The Grand Canyon of the Colo rado was visited and the trip was con-tinued to southern California. The chamber of commerce of Los Angeles entertained the club and they were shown the impaense orchards of citrus fruit trees, In San Francisco the club was banqueted and otherwise entertained. Next came Tacoma, Seattle and Portland. In Seattle the club was en tertained chiefly by one of its own members-Ex-President of the Chicago

Board of Trade, William T. Baker, who owns extensive interests in Sattle. From Portland the Chicago Commer cial club came direct to Salt Lake by way of Boise City, and having left this city are on the home stretch to Chicago. Their trip has been of only about four weeks' duration, and while ostensibly for pleasure, not one of the thirty or forty members who have been taking the trip but have observed the business conditions of the places they have visited and will use the information they have gathered incidentally to aid them in the direction of their affairs in the West. FORT SHERIDAN SITE.

The Chicago Commercial club has a most enviable record. It was arganized in 1877 as a social club and only sixty Among the things not strictly social in character done by this club was the purchase of 250 acres of land north of Chicago which was presented to the Chicago which was presented to the government to be used for the establishment of a fort. Fort Sherican was the result and as a consequence strikes riots are of less frequent occur-e. A manual training school and rence. seemed to be much needed in Chicage, and the Commercial club established one (the first in this country) that fur-mished the model from which D. P. Ar-mour took his plans for Armour In-stitute. Just before the club left Chi-cago the idea of a school for incorrigi. ble and friendless boys took definite hape with the presentation of $223,000 by the Chicago Commercial club for

THE MIGHTIEST DISPENSATION

Interesting Discourse Delivered by Elder C. W. Penrose.

THE LATTER-DAY WORK.

All Things in Christ Shall be Brought Together in One-Remarks by Elder Ben. Goddard.

The services in the Assembly Hall yesterday afternoon were presided over by President Angus M. Cannon, and were opened by the choir and congregation singing the hymn, "Redeemer of Israel." The opening prayer was offered by Elder Hamilton G.Park, and the services were continued by the singing of the hymn commencing with the words, "Come let us rejoice in the day of salvation."

The first speaker was Elder C. W. Penrose, He said he did not expect to bring forth anything particularly new at least to the Latter-day Saints, but he desired to say that which was true. He introduced his discourse by reading from the first chapter of the Epistie of Paul to the Ephesians beginning with the 9th verse, as follows:

"Having made known unto us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He hath purposed in Himself;

"That in the dispensation of the fulness of times. He might gather togeth-er in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven and which are on earth; even in Him." He said it was very apparent that

Paul here alluded to a future dispensa. tion. He drew attention to the present condition of Christendom and the difference of opinion and the divisions in the churches that exist. But Paul says that in the dispensation of the fulness of times God would bring together in one all things that are in Christ, both on the earth and in the heavens. This means the bringing together of the invisible church that is in the heavens, and the visible church that is here on the earth, that they may be one. Now, how, asked the speaker, is this to be brought atout? In all the former dis-pensations of God He has had an inspired man at the head, such as Noah, Abraham, Moses and Christ Himself. They were predestined to be born into the world at the time and place they were to perform the work allotted to them. A mission was committed to them, not by man or the power of man, but by the revelation to do that which God called them to perform. In the dispensation of the fulness of times a mightler work than ever was to be accomplished. In the ninetcenth century, in the era that was called "the age of Gospel blaze,' though spiritual darkness, confusion and contention prevailin Christendom." men claimed ed in Christendom," men claimed that the "awful voice of prophecy was

Throughout the length and breadth of the land there are those who are willing to testify that their meads here here its to testify that their words have been literally fulfilled. The people were told that if they would do the will of the Lord they would know of the doctrine whether it was of God or of man, and those who have done His will have gained the testi-mony that this work is from God. Elder Goddard entered into an exposition of the first principles of the Gospel and urged the necessity of obeying them, citing the baptism of Christ to show that even He deemed it necessary to render obedience to first ordinances of the Gospel. Te the Testi. mony was also borne that the same power and gifts of the Gospel were enloyed in the Church in this day, that characterized it anciently. Why try to limit the power of God? His love is limit the power of God? His love not lessened and He is not changed.

The speaker dwelt on the restoration of the Gospel, reading from the Revela-tions of St. John, in reference to the angel that he saw flying through the midst of heaven bearing the everlasting Gospel. Together with that message Gospel. came the duty to carry that Gospel to the nations of the earth. When the honest of heart have received this mes-sage the testimony of God has entered hearts, the power of God has upon them. This is the secret rested upon them. rested upon them. This is the secret of their steadfastness. They are no longer cast about by every wind of doctrine. The speaker closed by bear-ing strong testimony that he knew the Gospel was true and that those who obeyed it would be exalted in the pres-mers of God

The building was packed to its utmost capacity, many persons having to stand during the services, and the discourses were listened to with intense interest. The choir was present in st force that a large number occupied the west ends of the galleries. The choir sang the hymn, "We Thank Thee, O God, for a Prophet." The benediction was pronounced by Apostle M, Lyman.

School Board Sends Notices to Teachers - Some Dissatisfaction.

The teachers have received their noices from Clerk Moreton to the effect that their contracts terminate on April 19th. Some of the teachers are said to be inclined to question the good faith of the board in its expressed will to maintain the schools, providing the necessary funds can be raised. The board has not the funds at this time, however, and having no absolute assurance that the required money can b raised, the members felt that the only safe thing to do would be to notify the teachers, as the law requires them, to give them four weeks' notice.

The notice is as follows: The board of education of Salt Lake City, Utah, hereby notifies you that it has elected to terminate its contract of employment with you on April 19 1901, and you are hereby notified that after that date your services will not be required during the present school In case, however, the board is year. able to provide additional funds and desires to continue the schools to a date later than April 19, 1901, it will be pleased to enter into a new contract with you for the whole or for such part of the school year as it can provide funds.

The teachers seem to see in the last clause a large hole for the board jump through if it has any wish to dis-continue the schools. The members of the board, however, think that they have done the only thing they could do under the circumstances, and declare that if it is possible to raise contin stilled forever," that "the canon of money Most of them seem to think schools. that the whole thing hangs on the ac tion of the Governor in regard to the school tax bill. But Mr. Geoghegan and one or two others never at any time thought that that had anything to do with it. Their contention has al-ways been that the only proper course to pursue would be to go before the people and get their consent to borrow money against next year's taxes, and then all would be well and safely done.

A. W. DINGWELL'S CONDITION.

Making Rapid Recovery but Moulton, His Assailant, a Physical Wreck.

New York, March 25 .- The condition of A. W. Dingwall, who was shot in Pabst's restaurant on Friday night by young Robert Moulton, was reported last night in Roosevelt's hospital, to be favorable. The physicians in charge say that no disquieting change has come over the case, and although the bullet has not been extracted, yet all symptoms point to a rapid recovery. There has been little change in the condition of R, H. Moulton, the young man who shot Dingwall, With his phys ical system shattered almost beyond hope by the use of morphine and kindred excesses, he lies in a semi-coma tose state in the prison ward at Bellevue hospital. His mother, who is on he way to this city from Springfleid Tenn., is expected here today. Not till after the two have met will the doctors be ready to give a definite opinion whether or not their patient will regain

MEMBERS TALK.

President W. A. Fuller, of the visiting club said, "Our visit to Salt Lake has been one of the most enjoyable occa-sions of the entire trip. The ride around the city to Fort Douglas, where we had such a view of this magnificent valley; the concert; our trip to the lake and our reception by the people of Salt Lake will be remembered by every member of this party as an event of our lives. We certainly appreciate the courteous treatment received at the hands of your ommittee

"The wagons used by the first settlers of this valley were manufactured by our firm," said Christoph Hotz, who is one of the most prominent Chicago-ans and was on the first civil service commission, "and Brigham Young was for many years a good customer of ours. He purchased from us the wagons he used while filling his contract to build part of the Union Pacific railroad. Our trip has been a success in every particular and the visit to Salt Lake is

Every woman loves to think of the time when a soft little body, all her own, will nestle in her bosom, fully satisfying the yearning which lies in the heart of every good woman. But yet there is a black cloud hovering about the pretty picture in her mind which fills her with terror. The dread of childbirth takes away much of the joy of motherhood. And yet it need not be so. For sometime there has been upon the market, well-known and recommended by physicians, a liniment called which makes childbirth as simple and easy as nature intended it. It is a strengthening, penetrating liniment, which the skin readily absorbs. It gives the muscles elasticity and vigor. prevents sore breasts, morning sickness and the loss of the girlish figure.

the same time sow seeds from which will grow a harvest for themselves a ed fold more valuable hundi Sait Lake will certainly remain the metropolis of this intermountain coun-try and is bound to grow in the next few years. I believe that our trip result in much closer business relations with the West. John M. Clark, president of the Chicago Telephone company, is about the oldest member of the club and Lewis F. Swift is the youngest, having been admitted to membership just be fore the club left Chicago. Both gentlemen expressed their pleasure at visiting the city and think Salt Lake has a great future. Mr. Swift has frevisited Salt Lake before on quertly husiness trins.

James H. Eckles, president of the Commercial National Bank of Chicago, is probably one of the most remarkable men in the party. When just out of college he was appointed by President Charlend controller of the currency Cleveland, controller of the currency, and so ably did he conduct the affairs during his term of office that he won the admiration and support of every prominent bank in the country. After his retirement he stepped into his pres-ent position as head of one of the greatest banks in the country. Unforunately he did not get to Salt Lake. Franklin H. Head came here in 18 here in 1869 and was a citizen of Salt Lake for three years, during which time he became an intimate friend of Capt. Hooper. Mr. Head spent the day in looking up old acquaintances and when seen just be-fore train time remarked that the city had changed wonderfully since he was old home he last here, and that the had built was still standing. Byron L. Smith, president of the Northern Trust company, said: has a great future and I think Salt Lake will surpass in size and activity any city in this intermountain country. A few railroads, an active, enterprising association of representative business men and a few broad-minded citizens with means will do much for Salt Lake as the situation is superb as regards climate and position for commercial purposes. I hope to see Sait Lake move rapidly to the front as a commercial center. The effect resulting from our trip has been to dispel illusions and prejudices concerning the West and I should not be surprised if it results in arger investments of capital in western enterprises and the broadening of the usiness relations between the business nouses of the West and our manufac-We have enjoyed every moment of our trip."

scripture was full." At such a time as that with men in that frame of mind it was difficult for a man to accom-plish the great work that God proposed to do. The Latter-day Saints testify that that work has begun; that God has raised up a Prophet to usher in the last dispensation. He did not choose the wise and the mighty and learned of the world, but called the boy Joseph Smith when he was between 14 and 15 years of age, at a time when he was dis-turbed and perplexed in his mind as to which church to join as they all claimed to be the right way. The boy read in the first chapter of James, where it says that "If any man lack wisdom let him ask of God who giveth to all men liberally and upbraideth not." The youth acted on the advice and repaired into the woods and prayed for light. God and His Son appeared to him, and told nim not to ally himself with any of the churches of men, but in due time the Lord would reveal the fulness of the Gospel to him and be would be the instrument in rebuilding His Church Elder Penrose related how Joseph Smith subsequently received authority from the hands of John the Baptist, Peter, James and John, Elijah, Moses, and others, and the Church was fully established. The speaker testified that all may know this to be true if they will seek for it in humility and sinceri-ty. All the gifts and manifestations of Divine power enjoyed by any peo-ple in any age of the world may be enjoyed in this day. The presence of the Saints in the vales of the mountains, who have come from all parts of the world is a testimony that this is true. The promise that Christ made to his Apostles anciently is made to His Apostles in this day. The servants of God are sent out now with the same authority as they were of old, and their message to the world is, "Repent and be baptized for the remission of your sins and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost, for the promise is unto you and unto your children and all who are afar off, even as many as the Lord shall call." This is the same message that Peter delivered on the day of Pentecost, and wherever people have obeyed it in any part of the world, the same Spirit has fallen upon them. They have come from the east and the west and the north and south, as the Prophets of God have foretold, that they may be "gathered together in one." The time will come when in one." The time will come when all things that are in Christ shall be gathered together in one. Wars and bloodshed shall pass away, men shall Wars and eat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks, and the Prince of Peace shall come to reign from pole to pole and from sea to Elder Penrose bore testimony that he knew all these things were true. This work is God's work. He is with it. and He will abide with it, and it prevail. The true-hearted and the truth-loving throughout the world will have the scales taken from their eyes and they will obey the truth. All that has been lost of scripture containing Divine truth and principle shall be brought back. Everything that has been known concerning God and His laws shall be restored in this dispensa-tion, and things kept hid from the foundation of the world will be revealed. Truth shall drop down from the heav ens like the rain, and the people shall be refreshed thereby, and the Saints of God shall be perfected in knowledge and wisdom. And while all this is taking place upon earth, the work be-hind the veil will be going on, and the fead will be redeemed, and the Lord will come, and the Church from above fill join the Church from beneath and they shall be joined together, and Christ shall relen over them all as King

Christ shall relen over them all as King of kings and Lord of lords. The next speaker was Elder Ben. Goddard, who said that the people re-joiced in contemplating what God was doing in the latter days. God has rul-filled other prophecies besides the gath-ering of the people together in these mountain vales. The Church is blessed with the living oracles of God, and the promises that God has made to them have, been verily fulfilled. When the Apostlee in these days went out to

HEALTH REGULATIONS. A Laxness in Quarantine That Will

Be Overcome.

Clerk Smith of the City board of health has issued a circular drawing attention to the laxness in observing the quarantine law in persons leaving houses where contagious diseases have been located before the quarantine flag has been hung up. This custom, so the circular says, is countenanced by some physicians, but is directly contrary to law, and the board asks physicians to ald them in getting evidence towards the conviction of persons so wantonly careless of the spread of disease.
