But one thing we desire to be made clear. We have no quarrel same Court, on more than one ocapply, namely, to the blackiegs, land grabbers, legal thieves, seducers, whoremongels, drunkards, would be assasslus, libelers, defamers of women and children, and those who by legal forms or otherwise support and encourage them, and seek to promote strife, obtain institutional. imical legislation and in other ways seek our lujuly. We recognize the fact that there are honorable men and ladies here, who do not see with our eyes not endorse our views. We freely accord to them, and will help to maintain for them the same liberty we claim for ourselves. We have no words ef censure or represen for them except wherein they allow themselves to be in any way identified with the corrupt scoundrels who make all the mischief that disturbs the community.

- But to the infamous going to whose malign influences we have submitted so long without murmuring, we have no words of apology, and nothing else at present but contempt and scorn. And we wish them to understand that they are the party who had better "call a halt." We are ready for the collision if that is what they wish to provoke. We have amply proven to the world that we are a peaceable, quiet community, and that we have no desire for strife. But if they think we cannot stand up in defense of our rights under God and the Constitution, they will find that they are egregiously mistaken. The people are aroused, and the responsibility rests on the plotters against our peace as to what the result shall be. But as the Lord lives and the suid shines, they had better cease their diabolism, and at THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED any rate keep their hands of.

busily engaged preaching the gos pel, holaing public meetings in different localities, wherever opportunities present themselves

Our meetings generally are well attended. Wherever we find the people free from prejudice a favor able impression is made upon their minds. Some efferts have been ande by hirelings to prevent the people from coming to hear us preach, but these sanctisionlous warnings serve as a good advertise ment for us. Many who had hitherto known but little of the doctrines we teach, begin to think there must be something in them, or why should it agitate the minds of their priests to such an extent? such groundless cautions, from mer who profess Christian piety, are touched with the remembrance whose constitution guarantees religious liberty to all, and there ore have a right to think for them selves, speak for themselves, and listen to whomscever they desire,

A short time since, we made a trip into Blande County, where we found three Baints, old members one of whom was baptized by President Jedediah M. Grant. They were feeling well and made ar rangements for us to preach in that locality. We held a number of weil attended meetings and baptized three ladles; two of these had made applications to us for baptism s day or two previous to our meeting, on Weunesday, July 23rd. They requested that we give it out publicly, and invite all who felt desirous, to witness the ordinance A large concourse of people as-sembled on the water's edge, and teeling the promptings of the Holy Spirit, I enjoyed great liberty of speecn in addressing the people on the subjects of baptism and confirmation

After immersing the two young women, the third stopped fato the water and requested baptism. This was the first time I had ever seen this lady to speak to her. She had rode four or five miles to hear us preach, without any idea of being baptized, and therefore had to ride me in her wet cloth The ma genuine faith as in the case of these three st-hearted women, causes our hearts to rejoice, and ought to si-lence the clamor and lies of the prejudiced, in this district, who say that the believers in the gospel as revealed to Joseph Smith, are ashamed to be baptized in broad daylight. Those who have embraced the truth in this land, as well as in other parts of the world, are not ashamed of the gospel, though they are ashamed of men professing
