ports, notes and memoranda in re-gard to the Avery matter, but they were chiefly matters that had been published before. I have applained that all to the District Attorney to his full satisfaction. I took one telegram away from there, a tele-gram from Bluford Wilson, but that has all been explained to be that has all been explained to be that has all been explained to EVENING NEWS. TULISHED DATLY, SUNDAYS EXCEPTED AT FOUR O'CLOCK. DAVID O. CALDER, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER. Dyer. He understands the whole April 1, 1876. matter, and was perfectly satisfied with the explanation."

saturday,

HOG CHOLERA. For years past the disease known as hog cholera has made great rav-ages among the swine in Illinois ("Well, there is an understan-ding there, and I do not know that it is necessary to explain it to the committee." and throughout the Western States committee."

ages among the swine in linnors and throughout the Western States generally, and has attracted consid-emble attention. Experiments made in treating the disease have not afforded much astisfaction or been attended with very beneficial results. With a view to collecting the experience of swine breeders at the February meeting, directed its Secretary to prepare a circular of inquiry to breeders, which has been done. The circular embraces of inquiry to breeders, which has been done. The circular embraces a series of forty questions upon de-Chandler did exactly right in dis-was been done. The circular embraces tails concerning the practice of the breeders, and the symptoms, path-ology and other circumstances which have come under their no-tice in connection with hogs and the disease in question. The 35th question states as fol-lows concerning the general symp-toms, more or less prominent, and the progress of the disease, as ex-hibited in the generality of cases— "Dullness, loss of appetite for food and water, creeping beneath the straw, or seeking dark places with the head held low and ears droop-ing: disposition te he beliv: tails concerning the practice of the missing you then?"

food and water, creeping beneath the straw, or seeking dark places with the head held low and ears drooption had had had be dely; ing; disposition to lie on the belly; retching and vomiting of food, mu-cous or bile; diarrhoza of dark and fetid stools, or constipation; anx-ious and starting look; inability to stand; mouth hot and clammy; spasmodic breathing; partial or complete paralysis; bristles stiff and dry; sometimes the animal is wild and frantic, and sometimes quite unconscious; inability to scream; subdued and painful cough; discoloration of the skis, a red or perplish tint, especially on the belly, inner surface of the hinder ing; disposition to lie on the belly; retching and vomiting of food, mu-cous or bile; diarrhoea of dark and to, and in answer the witness sub- tion to Lyon. He was amazed at purplish tint, especially on the belly, inner surface of the hinder WASHINGTON, 31. - Ex Minister Schenck was before the committee on foreign affairs to-day, when his counsel laid before the committee extremities, on the back, ears, etc.; death within twenty-four hours to three d ys." a statement of facts connected a statement of facts connected with the Emma mine, its sale to the Emma Silver Mining Company of Lendon and its sub-subsequent history and present con-dition, prepared for the use of the committee on fereign affairs in the investigation of the connection of General Schenck with said com-nany. The statement was prepared By Telegraph. FER WESTERN UNION TEL. LINE. Last Night's Dispatches. pany. The statement was prepared before the counsel knew exactly what would be the course of the EASTERN. Continued from Fourth page.] proceedings before the committee. Q.-"And Bradley told you to get the evidence out of the District Attorney's office and bring it to the

Q. "He was entirely satisfied

Schenck replied that this arrangement was of ne concern to the di-ment was of ne concern to the di-thing for him, and he, Schenck, wanted to secure a good bargain. Faulkner asked whether good faith did not require that every one coming into the compasy should stand on an equality. The question was answered in the affirmative, but Schenck said stand on an equality. The question was answered in the affirmative, but Schenck said that so far as Park and himself were concerned, Park guaranteed a bandoned it,

Lyon's counsel.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES

EASTERN.

A Salt Lake Sensation

NEW YORK, 1.- The Sun's Salt

Lake correspondence professes to lisclose the details of an intrigue under which the Mormons are arranging to abandon Utah, to take possession of New Mexico and thus get into the Union under the bill for its admission as a State; the correspondent says that the initiatory steps are already taken, and that in a short time several thousand Mormons will start for New Mexico. In a general way this movement has been on foot for a considerable dividend of two per cent. a month as an inducement for him to take 500 shares of the stock. In reply to the question whether in reply to the question whether his resignation as a director did net cause a decline in the stocks, Schenck said it was his serious be-The office of the U. S. Express

W. T. HARRIS, - Business Manager

SATURDAY, APRIL 1st, 1876.

Farewell Benefit

POSITIVELY LAST APPEARANCE THOSE WHO DESIRE A RICH TREAT SHOULD PURCHASE

Finan Haddies,

YARMOUTH

BLOATERS,

And & full assortment of

Family Groceries

a: ##;## A;#* ,

LIDDELL & BROWN'S.

A LUXURY!

PURE GROUND

We are particular to have

then ground while HOT from the Cylinder, thereby retaining its full aroma.

North of Post Office. d25

Mr.J. H.VINSON, SOME OF OUR

On which occasion he will appear in his celebrated character of

BEN ISRAEL In the Drams of that name JAVA UUHH

this Fresh Roasted and

HAVE in the estray pound :

One red and white STEER, about three years old, under slope in both ears, no brands visible. Also one black and white STEER, about four years old, swallow fork in left ear. If the above are not claimed they will be sold on Saturday, April 8th, 1876, at 4 o'clock p.m., at the estray pound in this city. JOSEPH HORNE,

B. L. City, March 29th, 1876. (sk w GIVE IT A TRIAL

O.F.DUE, Florist and Seedsman,

Is preparing for the Spring trade with a FLOWER & GARDEN SEEDS and will sell at reasonable prices.

5

NI

5

Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution invite the attention of the People to an extraordinary line of Genuine

ZION

U

00

ß

 $\tilde{\varphi}$

15

2

Ŷ

0

2

Bargains, now offering in their VARIOUS Departments. Having transferred their entire business to the New Quarters on Main St, and opened up an entirely new and attractive line of Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Boots and Shoes, etc., and made a Altornay's once and bring it to the Lindell hotel to be destroyed?" 4.-"He did.'

Q.-"Did you attempt to get it?" A.-"No sir, I thought that was going too far in the matter."

A .- "Yes, sir. I related all I had testimony before the committee beseen and heard in St. Louis, and I told him of this proposal of Brad-ley's. The matter was talked over fore he left London was a paragraph in the London newspapers of bey's. The matter was talked over between us afterwards, and he re-marked that if I got it I would be well rewarded. I told him I didn't like to go into it. I also met his six or seven times. I gave them as written report of all that I had seen and heard at St. Louis. I haven't a copy of the report. I had given them that report pre-vious to this talk about getting the evidence, and up to the time of making that report I still thought making that report I still thought the matter was intended as a politi cal move; but when I found out that I was wrong I dropped it, and went from here to N.Y., and didn't return to Washington, till about the menth of February. I then took the President at his word and the menth of February. I then took the President at his word, and teok measures to zend him informs-tion that Babcock was guilty. I should have stated that I gave the thing up after Bradley left St. Louis, which was a night or two after Luckey left. I went to Lex-ington, Ky. From there I wrote to Bradley and asked him to return my letter, and he did so, accom-panied with the following—

"Washington, Dec. 19.

""C. S. Bell-Yours is received. I am authorized to request you to come at once, and to say that you will be cared for will be cared for. of Lyon and Johnson, the state-ment having been published

" A. C. BRADLEY.""

through the associated press. "It was intended that I should be He answered that the object of appointed special agent in the At-torney General's office, and sent to St. Louis to environe my work, and here is the key to the cypher that the statement was to present the course of examination that ought to be pursued, and that the reply should be as broad as the attack. was given to me to communicate with."-(The witness here produced the original of the cypher publish-ed in the N. Y. Herald, February Faulkner interrogated Schenck as to whether he had heard any of as to whether he had heard any of the original stockholders charge fraud in the sale of the stock. Schenck, in the course of his reply, said he had received nu-merous letters, the writers asking him what they should do. He never advised them to hold on to the stock, but said they must act for themselves. This was after he 10th.") Q. "Were you appointed in the Attorney General's office?"

A. "I was not, but I was to be appointed, and I had a card from the President to Attorney Gene-ral Pierrepont, similar to the one I for themselves. This was after he had to Secretary Chandler, and the Attorney General delayed the apceased to be a manager or director had to Secretary Chandler, and the Attorney General delayed the ap-pointment from day to day." Q. "And the object of your going was to get hold of the testimosy?" A. "It was to see what was going on." Q. "Is this cypher in Luckey's handwriting?" A. "Most of it." Q. "Did you ever communicate with Luckey by means of this cypher?" A. "I did not, because I was not appointed by the Attorney General to go there." Q. "How did you communicate the information to the President that you believed Babcock was guilty?" A. "I went three times, and the committee on the 28th inst. by Schenck contained allegations of acts within his own personal knowledge. Schenck replied that the draft of the statement was submitted to him by his counsel, and after several shanges had been made in it he adopted it. All he knew of the Spanish people of that Territory. Immediately on reaching his new field of operations, Axtell be gan his work, and soon after signs

New Mexico, where they are understood to have located and to be actively at work.

About the same time the authoritles of the church here became suddenly impressed with the maniold beauties and importance of the Spanish language, and orders were given to all the young priests to begin its study, and it became at once the leading branch of instruc-tion in the schools. The Book of Mormon was translated into Span Territory, at 2 o'clock p Stockholders of the Salt Lake City Railroad the money to pay for the lands, and they will take possession im-mediately under color of the territorial law, until certain bills now pending, introduced by the delegate from New Mexico, S. B. El.

kins, fer confirmation, by Congress of a large number of these claims

States.

dent Brigham Young, Sa't Lake City, Utal

Territory, ut 2 o'clock p.m., on Saturday ish, and disciples went vigorously to work studying it.

Preparations were next made to gain possession of large tracts o R. R. ANDERSON, Secretary.

chase of some of the Spanish grants outright, and of an interest in others. The legislature of New Mexico, under the dictation of this ring of speculators, recently passed a law by which the District Court Salt Lake City, March 25th 1876. d104

GLENDALE GARDENS

South-east Corner of the City, can order the whole of a grant to be WILLIAM WAGSTAFF, Proprietos sold at public auction upon such notice as it sees fit, upon a demand of any one of the parties in interest. HAS ON SALE SHADE TREES, no matter how small that interest may be. By this means all these grants are to be forced to sale for ding Balm of Gilead, Lombardy Pop z Elder, Weeping Willow, Catalpat cash, and as the titles are in an un-FRUIT TREES and SHRUBS, cash, and as the titles are in an un-settled state, and most of the papers and records are in the hands of the ring, there can be little com-petition in bidding, and the lands will be obtained at neminal figures. It is arranged that Brigham and his apostles are to furnish most of the money to new for the lands Such as Black Walnut, Apples, Penches, and Planss of different varieties, Gopec-berries, Black and Red Currants, Hardy and other Grapes; also Boneysuckles, Wistarias and many other flowering shrube and plants; and Linneus, Victoria, and Glant Rhubarb Roots. diff

Home Manufactory WM. PAUL Will engage to make any number of

EATS AND DESK Suitable for SCHOOL-ROOMS & MEETING-HOUSES,

can become laws of the United est, strong and cheap, not easily broke as is too frequently the case with im-ported cast iron ones. Models and plans may be seen at the residence of The bill for the admission of New

The bill for the admission of New Mexico as a state is also to be pushed to its passage under the pressure of a strong lobby interested in the land speculations. This bill gives to the Governor, Chief Justice and the United States At-torney unlimited power in fixing the time of the election, the netice to be given, the qualifications of WM. PAUL

ARCHITEOT AND BUILDER. Soth Ward, Sait Lake City. d37 w50

DOUBLE TEAM HARNESS to be given, the qualifications of voters, and the manner of holding the election for the selection of From $35.00 to $60.00. CARRIACE HARNESS, $60.00 to $150.00. EUGGY HARNESS,

$35.00 to $75.00. SINGLE EXPRESS MARNESS, OROICEST AND LARGEST $25.00 to $50,00, SADDLES, $8.00 to $30.00, CASH.

GARDEN SEEDS,

Grass Seeds,

LOT

