

H. B. SAWYER LOSES FOR SECOND TIME

Does Not Get One Cent of $15,000
Damages Asked.

VERDICT IN FAVOR OF CITY

Plaintiff Sued on Account of Injuries
Sustained by Falling Over a Stake,
Dislocating His Shoulder.

The jury sitting in the damage suit of H. B. Sawyer against the city for $15,000 for injuries sustained by the plaintiff through tripping over a stake and dislocating his shoulder and being otherwise hurt, this morning returned a verdict in favor of the city. This is the second trial of this case.

SUES FOR $10,000.

Trial Commenced in Damage Action Against Street Car Co.

Trial was commenced this morning of the damage suit brought by Anna Munz against the Salt Lake City Railway company for injuries sustained by plaintiff on April 1, 1900, on one of the company's street cars. Mrs. Munz claims that she boarded the car on East Temple street between First and Second South streets, and that before she was seated the car was started forward with a sudden jerk, throwing her violently against the seat and doorway and severely injuring her. She assesses her damages at $10,000. Plaintiff is represented by E. A. Walton and D. N. Straup, and the street railway company by E. B. Critchfield and George Thoutright.

THOUGHT HE WOULD SKIP.

Manager of Park City Business
House Takes Precautions.

Charles McFadden, a Salt Lake who works at the Ontario mine, Park City, developed a serious cold, and some three or four days ago, he and his family being in Salt Lake, he decided to come here to procure medical aid. He owed $18.50 to the Aschheim Mercantile company when he left for Salt Lake, and for some reason or other the manager of the store, who had the bill, thought he would skip. The police are now more inclined than ever to believe he was wounded while trying to break into a house. Last night word came from the Ontario mine that about a week ago a man was trying to gain entrance to the residence of John Snyder, and that a young man in the house fired a couple of shots at him. With the information at hand and the strange disappearance of the man, certainly makes out a strong case against him. The police here and in Ogden and the surrounding towns are keeping a close lookout for the stranger, and will do all in their power to learn something definite about him.

Taken Under Advisement.

The case of Samuel and George Stringfellow against Gray Bros., and J. Baumgarten in which plaintiffs seek to restrain the defendants from building a brick wall upon plaintiffs' land at the corner of D and Fifth streets, valued at $1,500. The trial was had last June.

Letters of Administration.

Two petitions for letters of administration of the estate of the late Adam Rich have come before Judge Hall. In one of these, Catherine Ann Rich, asks that Lulu D. Rich, a granddaughter of the decedent, be appointed. The other is by Dr. C. P. Wilcox, who has a claim of $100 against the estate for professional services, and asks for the appointment of Ezra Stephenson as administrator. The case has been taken under advisement for a week.

COURT NOTES.

Albert F. Holden asks the court to appoint him administrator of the estate of his late wife, Katherine D. Holden, who died possessed of a house and lot at the corner of D and Fifth streets, valued at $1,500. She left three children. The petition will be heard on Nov. 22nd.

Mary E. Barton has applied to the probate court to be appointed guardian of the estates of her four minor children, who are heirs to $1,500 bequeathed by their father, John H. Barton. The hearing will be on Nov. 22nd.

The conclusion of the trial of the suit brought by the heirs of Domineek Dignan against Eliza Nelson and others, involving the title to certain real estate in Park City, was taken under advisement yesterday afternoon and taken under advisement.

GOT FIVE YEARS.

Colored Burglar Sentenced—Crime and Criminals in Ogden.

(Special to the "News.")
Ogden, Nov. 8.—William Clark, the colored man who was found guilty in the district court of burglarizing the residence of Mrs. Williams in West Ogden, was this morning sentenced by Judge Holman to serve five years in the state penitentiary.

Information was filed before Judge Rolapp this morning against James Ryan and Jos. Allen charging them with burglarizing an Oregon Short Line car loaded with merchandise, which was standing on a sidetrack here. Attorney H. S. Collier was appointed by the court to defend the accused men, who were given until Monday in which to plead.

DEATH CLAIMS R. G. TAYLUM.

End of the Career of Well Known Newspaper Man.

R. G. Taylum, one of the oldest and best known newspaper men in Salt Lake died at his home on Bridgeport street at an early hour this morning. He took to his bed about one month ago and very soon afterwards began to develop dangerous symptoms. His malady finally evolved into locomotor ataxia and paresis from which condition it was impossible for him to rally. While the end was known to be inevitable yet the final snapping of the vital thread was a shock to the wife and friends.

Mr. Taylum was born in this city in 1817 and when a boy thirteen years of age he began work on the Herald, a newspaper then published in this city for several years. He lived in Austin, Nevada, a brief spell and on returning to Salt Lake became a bookkeeper for the Kentucky Liquor company. He later went back to the Herald as telegraph editor and remained until about four years ago, when he obtained a

Ask Him

Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows the formula, so ask him if there is anything better for purifying the blood, strengthening the digestion, and building up the nerves. Follow his advice, whatever it may be.

"I have taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla every spring since 1848. As a blood-purifying and nerve-strengthening medicine it cannot be equalled."

S. T. Jones, Wichita, Kans.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

position on the editorial staff of the Tribune the position he was holding at the time of his death.

MORE RETURNS.

Reports of Elections of the Town Presidents and Trustees.

At the town election in Huntington county, out of a total registration of 27, there were 17 votes cast. The following were elected as a town board: John L. Braisher for president; Geo. M. Miller, J. B. Meeks, W. H. Leonard and W. A. Quymon, Jr. for trustees. There was a little opposition to the above but it did not amount to much. At Scofield, these gentlemen were elected as members of the town board, all of them being Democrats but the last named: Bedlington E. Lewis, president; George Ruff, Sr., Frank Boyles, Niel M. Madison, Alfred Newren.

THEN HE VANISHED.

Tom Phillips, the Wounded Tramp
Leaves for Pastures New.

Tom Phillips, the mysterious man who is suffering from a gun shot wound in the jaw, and who called on Mr. Mayo for treatment, has disappeared, and no trace of him can be found by the police here. The police are now more inclined than ever to believe he was wounded while trying to break into a house. Last night word came from the Ontario mine that about a week ago a man was trying to gain entrance to the residence of John Snyder, and that a young man in the house fired a couple of shots at him. With the information at hand and the strange disappearance of the man, certainly makes out a strong case against him. The police here and in Ogden and the surrounding towns are keeping a close lookout for the stranger, and will do all in their power to learn something definite about him.

TALE OF A LAMB.

Wm. Cochran Swears Out Complaint
Against a Shepherd.

William Cochran, of Sugar ward has sworn out a complaint against one of Peter Condie's sheep drivers and the bartender of Eckstein's saloon, on Twelfth South and East Temple streets, Cochran, claims that two of his lambs strayed among a flock of Condie's sheep as they were being driven past his place on Thursday. One of them was recovered, and the other was traced to Eckstein's saloon, where it was found to have been killed, but its butcher claimed that he had bought it from Condie's herd for some liquor, and refused to settle. The matter will be prosecuted.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. Robert Glendinning went to Potomac this week to take part in the wedding of Miss Annie Staunton Murray to the Rev. J. H. H. Coe of Idaho, Idaho. Mr. Glendinning acted as best man.

The musical recital at the Congregational church last night given by Miss Grady Flinders was a distinct success. The event was given chiefly for little Pearl Rothschild whose musical ability is of an exceptional kind. Mrs. Ella C. Wetzel rendered charming vocal selections, and the event was most enjoyable throughout.

Miss Sarah P. Wilson and James Smith, Miss Sarah J. Reese and William Matthews, all of Scofield, were married yesterday at the city and county building.

The members of the Society of College Girls give a reception and banquet this evening to the trustees, teachers and students of the L. D. S. University. The affair promises to be a most enjoyable one.

The house warming given by the signal corps N. G. U. last night was a delightful affair, all who attended enjoying the event to the utmost. The hall and rooms were prettily decorated, and the affair was successful in all details.

Our line of Battle Creek Sanitarium Nut Foods are complete and a perfect substitute for meat. Give them a trial. Sold at E. E. South.

R. K. THOMAS.

Our line of Dressing Sacsques, in red, old rose, cadet and grey from $1.00 up. Found from 25c to 50c each under value.

WARD ENTERTAINMENTS.

Following the program to be rendered in the Tenth ward this evening in honor of Chas. W. Saunders:
Male Quartette, Joseph Hillstead
Recitation, Mrs. Bessie Browning
Mandolin and guitar selection, Misses Symons
Solo, Charles Pike
Remarks, Chas. W. Saunders
Saxophone solo, C. G. Berry
Reading, Miss Bertha Bousquet
Solo, Mrs. Maude Harris Strong
Duet, Messrs. Paul and Brady
Remarks, Bishopric

Tonight

If your liver is out of order, causing Biliousness, Sick Headache, Heartburn, or Constipation, take a dose of

Hood's Pills

On retiring, and tomorrow your digestive organs will be regulated, and you will be bright, active and ready for any kind of work. This has been the experience of others; it will be yours. HOOD'S PILLS are sold by all medicine dealers. 25 cts.

BENJ. KING DISCHARGED.

Famous Living Issues Libel Suit Terminates
Abruptly Yesterday Afternoon.

Ex-Editor Exonerated of the Charge and Forfeiture of $1000 Bond by Justice Kroeger Set Aside.

Who was the editor of Living Issues on April 27th last?

Echo answers: Benj. King was not, and that fact has been established beyond the shadow of a doubt. It became known yesterday afternoon in the course of the preliminary hearing of King on the charge of criminal libel. It was brought out by the state's attorney witness by whom it was expected to be proved that King was the editor on that date and that he was the author of the libelous article published under the caption "Judge Johnson's Jobbery." The case fell flat so far as the prosecution was concerned and at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon King was exonerated of the charge and the forfeiture of his bond of $1,000 ordered by Justice Kroeger was set aside by order of Judge Diehl on motion of the prosecution. The same order will be duly made by Justice Kroeger so as to clear King.

But the mystery deepens and the question remains, who was the editor or manager of Living Issues on April 27th, and who wrote the libelous article? It is not believed the responsible parties will endanger life or limb in their eager rush to impart the desired information.

After the "News" report of the hearing closed, three witnesses for the prosecution were examined. Attorney W. L. Snyder testified that he purchased a copy of the paper containing the article involved, and after carefully perusing it, marked a copy and mailed the same to Judge Johnson. He was asked, "So you circulated this paper through the mails did you?" demanded Attorney Rogers with affected severity.

"Well, I suppose I did."

Those present thought it was a good joke and laughed heartily and Mr. Snyder was excused.

Miss Lou Morris was called upon to prove that King had admitted to her the ownership of the sheet. She is a stenographer in the office of Mr. Loftis, and took the conversation occurred there when King called on day to collect a bill. Witness thought the conversation took place in March.

"How do you know it was in March?" asked Mr. Rogers.

"Because Mr. King had that white overcoat on."

This referred to King's "Benny" and brought forth more mirth.

Judge Johnson was examined at some length as to his various trips about the country, and his object and to other districts to attend to his judicial business, and as to his claims against the State for mileage.

King was the only witness for the defense and clearly corroborated the testimony of Mr. Newberry, namely, by change in the management of the paper. It was also proven by him that Miss Morris was mistaken as to the time of the conversation, that it occurred in the preceding November.

The attorney then occupied about an hour in arguments. Judge Hiles attacked the testimony of young Nightingale, and said: "He is a stupid fellow anyhow."

Then Rogers made a brief argument and took occasion to say that Judge Johnson had certainly been libeled but not by King. The prosecution had a good case but for one fact. They had selected the wrong man to prosecute.

Attorney Rogers said: "The article was libelous. It was damnable and would constitute a libel on a yellow dog, much less an honored and distinguished member of the legal profession, and the event was most enjoyable throughout."

"With your kind indulgence I will decide this case in five minutes," said Judge Diehl. After consulting his notes and looking over the article which caused the trouble, the court said:

"I agree with counsel that the article is libelous and outrageous, but I am not satisfied with the proof adduced, however, that the defendant was libeled, and the event was most enjoyable throughout."

Chief Hilton and a number of officers heard the noise and rushed to the rescue. Officer Hempel ran into the women's department of the old city jail, caused consternation among the city prisoners last night, and the old battle had a close call from total destruction.

About 11 o'clock Pearl Padgett, the "girl soldier," and Bessie Nixon, the only women in jail, were awakened by a loud noise and found that some damage done to her sofa. He began to scream with all his might. Some of the male prisoners hearing the cry of "Fire, fire!" joined in the chorus and for a few minutes there was a vehement demonstration in the reeking place.

Chief Hilton and a number of officers heard the noise and rushed to the rescue. Officer Hempel ran into the women's department of the old city jail, caused consternation among the city prisoners last night, and the old battle had a close call from total destruction.

A mattress and a few quilts were destroyed causing a loss of about $10.

BACK FROM ALBERTA.

David R. Stevens and Alva N. Murdoch Speak Highly of Canada.

David R. Stevens, of Holden and Alva N. Murdoch of Charleston, were in the city today having returned for the winter from Alberta, Canada. They seem highly pleased with the Alberta province, and speak very favorably of it as a stock raising country. They would recommend Alberta to the young men who are seeking homes. The average yield of un-irrigated wheat, they report, is from 35 to 45 bushels to the acre and the root crop has made rapid growth since the early storms of September.

SET FIRE TO THE HOUSE.

Children Wish to Surprise Their Mother by Getting Supper.

The residence of George Roach, at 312 north Third West, came very nearly being destroyed by fire last evening. An overheated stove in the summer kitchen set fire to the place and caused damage to the extent of about $40.

It appears that Mrs. Roach left her home in the afternoon and instructed her children, ranging in age from 10 to 14 years, to remain there. The little folks wished to surprise their mother by getting supper ready for her and built a fire in the stove. The stove became red hot and the fire got beyond their control, setting fire to the roof of the kitchen. The children gave

TOMORROW IS SHOPPING DAY

Leave your Orders for Groceries with

Evergreen
Grocery Co. 18 MAIN

Telephone 805.

L. G. HARDY, MGR.

the alarm and the apparatus from Station No. 3 was soon on the scene. The blaze was soon extinguished, the loss being about $40.

BUSINESS NOTES.

Today's clearings amounted to $712,848.86 or $394,792.68 in excess of the clearings for the corresponding day of last year, which amounted to $318,056.18.

Several wagon loads of Big Cottonwood potatoes are on the market today and $5 to 10c per bushel is asked in wagon load lots of from 50 to 75 bushels each. The farmers in charge of the wagons state that there are quite a few more potatoes yet to come from that section.

The directors of the Inland Crystal Salt company, including the First Presidency of the Church, will leave for the plant of the company at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and will spend the day inspecting it. Since their last visit the plant has been modernized in every particular, and over $15,000 has been spent in improvements.

The four new rural delivery routes authorized by the postoffice department at Washington, will be established on January 1, 1902. Practically all of Salt Lake county will then be under the rural delivery system. The new routes are as follows: To start at Calder's park, one running east to Mill Creek and ending at the Highland Hotel, and another running north to the western limits of Granger, skirting Taylorsville. A third starts at Sandy and goes east, taking in Butlerville, and the fourth begins at Murray, extending to the south, passing through the fifth will be between Riverton and Herriman.

Glenn R. Bothwell and wife and Robt. E. McConaughy and wife have conveyed a lot 74x125 feet facing north of Second South street from 165 feet east of Sixth East to Timothy Egan for a consideration of $3,000.

Eisenmann Bros., of Boston, have bought their present stock, John Goodfellow, purchased 200,000 pounds of wool from Covey and Sons, of this city. The wool was grown in Wyoming and is stated to be of very fine quality. The approximate purchase price was $25,000 or 12 1/2 cents per pound.

The following two cases were dismissed by stipulation by Judge Morse this afternoon: John Hess vs. Salt Lake Hot Springs Sanitarium company and Milton Hess, by John Hess his guardian at item vs. the same defendant.

WHO STOLE THE STUFFING?

Mrs. Bradley Swears that the Upholsterer Took the Hair and Moss.

This is a story of the alleged robbery from a sofa by an upholsterer. It is not alleged that the man stole the sofa, but that he purloined the stuffing thereof, to-wit: Six pounds of hair, valued at $3, and nine pounds of hair, valued at $9. The alleged offense constitutes petit larceny. The man accused says he didn't do it; but the woman who owns the sofa says she did.

According to the story of Mrs. Annie M. Bradley, the complainant in the case, on the 15th of November, she engaged a upholsterer to repair some damage done to her sofa. He took the piece of furniture away but later Mrs. Bradley concluded to have another firm attend to the work. Accordingly the couch was taken away and it was soon discovered that six pounds of hair and nine pounds of hair, which was alleged to have been in the sofa, had been taken out.

The lady consulted with the county attorney and was advised to swear out a warrant for the arrest of Hansen. Mrs. Bradley proceeded to the office of Judge Smith and swore to a complaint charging him with petit larceny. Hansen was taken before the court and entered an emphatic denial of each and every allegation in the complaint.

Judge Smith released him upon his own recognizance, and set the case for trial, Monday, at 10 p. m.

Our conference really opened with the concert on the evening of the 5th. It was held in that most beautiful hall with its richly decorated walls and ceiling, its ornate chandeliers, its numerous sculptured figures and glittering mirrors. This brilliant hall with its seating capacity of over five hundred was full to overflowing. Nearly a hundred people remained and some turned away. The program was very fine.

One regrettable circumstance connected with it was the indisposition of Nannie Toot which prevented her from appearing in her usual splendid way. Sister Gates was in good voice and completely won the audience by her charming presence and her finished artistic rendition of classic and popular songs. All of the numbers were of superb quality. Little Irving and Ella Toot, five and three years of age respectively, sang a duet that captivated the audience. The people were much impressed by the splendid ability displayed throughout, and they were free to express their appreciation. A great deal of prejudice was removed by the beautiful music, more, I think, than could be done by any ordinary means; because the people are more susceptible to the charms of music than to the logic of discourse. Much sympathy may be enlisted through music, I believe, that could not be through preaching.

By writing personal letters to about fifteen editors of the leading daily papers we were able to get press representatives at all of our gatherings, and the Daily Mail, the paper with the largest circulation, perhaps, of any daily paper in London, and consequently in the world, gave us a very favorable and attractive "Interview" two days before our conference began. Through this and a great deal of other advertising, London generally was aware of the fact that there were to be gatherings of the Latter-day Saints, or "Mormons" in London on Oct. 5th and 6th; and by the way I learn that a dispatch published by the Salt Lake papers announced the same thing. Several accounts and interviews were given in the various papers, and the general fairness and interest shown by them was gratifying. A reporter called and interviewed President Lyman and put a

For Tired Brain
Horsford's
Acid
Phosphate

Rests and invigorates the
tired and confused brain,
dispels the nervous headache
and induces refreshing sleep.

Gives good appetite, perfect
digestion and a clear brain.

A Tonic and Nerve Food.

The greatest tonic the name "Horsford's" on label.

COMMUNICATION FROM LONDON.

George O. Morris Writes Interesting Letter to Mrs. Alder.

A NOTABLE CONFERENCE.

Hundreds of Prominent London Citizens Attend the Sessions—A Most Excellent Concert by the Saints.

The following letter was received by Mrs. Lydia D. Alder, of this city, from George O. Morris who is the president of the London conference:

Your letter of September 28 came to hand recently and was read with much pleasure. I find myself frequently thinking of those who have returned and I often wonder how they are all getting on. Word from any of them is always very welcome.

I am reminded with you who have left your old fields this tendency to think of past associates and the fields in which you have labored may be still stronger than with us who are yet here, and the desire for news from them may be keener than ours. To us who are going on in much the usual way these occurrences seem not very "newsworthy." To you they would be of great interest.

I have remembered your request for an account of our conference to be sent to the "News" as has been the custom for several sessions past. If you were still here it could have been easily accomplished, but none have been taken up your pen since your departure. However, I shall try to let you know how things have gone with us.

During the past summer, coupled with our other labors, we have carried on a very active outdoor work. Much preaching has been done in the outer districts throughout many of the towns and villages. The cry of the Gospel warning has filled the streets of the towns, and into the open door and windows of the houses have been sent the people have been sitting about the summer evenings. In the larger cities, including London, very many meetings have been held and thousands of people have been able to stand upon their own feet and hear the printed word of the Gospel explained and the latter-day testimony given. Nearly five hundred meetings have been held this season throughout the conference.

The results of our very apparent in the open and determined opposition that is being met in the various parts of the conference. In Bedford anti-"Mormon" meetings are being held, in Ashford the papers are publishing letters against us, and some forty or here in London we have been meeting opposition from all sides. The "Daily Express," one of the leading papers of this big city, attacked us in its editorial and in the columns of the paper, and the local papers and the religious press have been saying much about us, usually against us. A number of local "Christian" workers have organized and are holding regular meetings in and out of the city. "Mormonism" is exposed in the usual way. Two lectures were recently given in the United Methodist Free Church in North London, the subjects being, "The Origin of 'Mormonism,'" and "The Bible System." The latter was a standard authority of the lectures. The anti-"Mormon" street and park meetings began in the middle of the season and have helped to draw people to our meetings when we needed them most. The worst of it was that the very best was being mobbed out of Finsbury park one Sunday. It was in the morning we were driven out, in the afternoon of the same day we were driven out, and in the evening we were driven out. The people were much interested in the preaching of the Gospel. It has been just a little encouraging to see that by the "preaching of the word" we have been able to stir even London.

During the past summer, coupled with our other labors, we have carried on a very active outdoor work. Much preaching has been done in the outer districts throughout many of the towns and villages. The cry of the Gospel warning has filled the streets of the towns, and into the open door and windows of the houses have been sent the people have been sitting about the summer evenings. In the larger cities, including London, very many meetings have been held and thousands of people have been able to stand upon their own feet and hear the printed word of the Gospel explained and the latter-day testimony given. Nearly five hundred meetings have been held this season throughout the conference.

Our conference just past was very successful. In many respects it was quite extraordinary, and attracted much attention. What helped to make it so was the presence of the apostle and the presence in London of our very best. C. Toot and his talented family, and Sister Emma Lucy Gates. The latter with Sister Lucy R. Young were on their way home from Berlin, but they were held in London to remain over to assist us. Having all of these with us we were able to advertise advantageously and give a very fine free concert on the eve of conference. Another pleasing feature connected with it all was that the conference was held on October 6th, of all dates the one most appropriate for a fall conference. As you were together in the Tabernacle we were assembled in the Finsbury Town hall, and the latter-day saints were greatly missed in Zion, but the same day he was highly appreciated in London.

Our conference really opened with the concert on the evening of the 5th. It was held in that most beautiful hall with its richly decorated walls and ceiling, its ornate chandeliers, its numerous sculptured figures and glittering mirrors. This brilliant hall with its seating capacity of over five hundred was full to overflowing. Nearly a hundred people remained and some turned away. The program was very fine. One regrettable circumstance connected with it was the indisposition of Nannie Toot which prevented her from appearing in her usual splendid way. Sister Gates was in good voice and completely won the audience by her charming presence and her finished artistic rendition of classic and popular songs. All of the numbers were of superb quality. Little Irving and Ella Toot, five and three years of age respectively, sang a duet that captivated the audience. The people were much impressed by the splendid ability displayed throughout, and they were free to express their appreciation. A great deal of prejudice was removed by the beautiful music, more, I think, than could be done by any ordinary means; because the people are more susceptible to the charms of music than to the logic of discourse. Much sympathy may be enlisted through music, I believe, that could not be through preaching.

By writing personal letters to about fifteen editors of the leading daily papers we were able to get press representatives at all of our gatherings, and the Daily Mail, the paper with the largest circulation, perhaps, of any daily paper in London, and consequently in the world, gave us a very favorable and attractive "Interview" two days before our conference began. Through this and a great deal of other advertising, London generally was aware of the fact that there were to be gatherings of the Latter-day Saints, or "Mormons" in London on Oct. 5th and 6th; and by the way I learn that a dispatch published by the Salt Lake papers announced the same thing. Several accounts and interviews were given in the various papers, and the general fairness and interest shown by them was gratifying. A reporter called and interviewed President Lyman and put a

Our conference really opened with the concert on the evening of the 5th. It was held in that most beautiful hall with its richly decorated walls and ceiling, its ornate chandeliers, its numerous sculptured figures and glittering mirrors. This brilliant hall with its seating capacity of over five hundred was full to overflowing. Nearly a hundred people remained and some turned away. The program was very fine.

One regrettable circumstance connected with it was the indisposition of Nannie Toot which prevented her from appearing in her usual splendid way. Sister Gates was in good voice and completely won the audience by her charming presence and her finished artistic rendition of classic and popular songs. All of the numbers were of superb quality. Little Irving and Ella Toot, five and three years of age respectively, sang a duet that captivated the audience. The people were much impressed by the splendid ability displayed throughout, and they were free to express their appreciation. A great deal of prejudice was removed by the beautiful music, more, I think, than could be done by any ordinary means; because the people are more susceptible to the charms of music than to the logic of discourse. Much sympathy may be enlisted through music, I believe, that could not be through preaching.

By writing personal letters to about fifteen editors of the leading daily papers we were able to get press representatives at all of our gatherings, and the Daily Mail, the paper with the largest circulation, perhaps, of any daily paper in London, and consequently in the world, gave us a very favorable and attractive "Interview" two days before our conference began. Through this and a great deal of other advertising, London generally was aware of the fact that there were to be gatherings of the Latter-day Saints, or "Mormons" in London on Oct. 5th and 6th; and by the way I learn that a dispatch published by the Salt Lake papers announced the same thing. Several accounts and interviews were given in the various papers, and the general fairness and interest shown by them was gratifying. A reporter called and interviewed President Lyman and put a

For Tired Brain
Horsford's
Acid
Phosphate

Rests and invigorates the
tired and confused brain,
dispels the nervous headache
and induces refreshing sleep.

Gives good appetite, perfect
digestion and a clear brain.

A Tonic and Nerve Food.

The greatest tonic the name "Horsford's" on label.

SPECIAL SALE OF WILTON RUGS

We have just received a very large assignment of the above. They are of an entirely new manufacture, of the quality of a fine Wilton but at the price of a Body Brussels. In order to introduce them we offer them at the following remarkably low prices: