WHO IS UNACQUAINTED WITH THE GEOGRAPHY OF THIS COUNTRY, WILL SEE BY EXAMINING THIS MAP, THAT THE

CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC R'Y

By reason of its central position, close relation to principal lines East of Chicago and continuous lines at terminal points West, Northwest and Southwest—is the only true middle-link in that transcontinental system which invites and facilitates travel and traffic in either direction between the Atlantic and Pacific.

The Rock Island main line and branches include Chicago, Joliet, Ottawa, La Salle, Peoria, Geneseo, Moline and Rock Island, in Illinois; Davenport, Muscatine, Washington, Fairfield, Ottumwa, Oskaloosa, West Liberty, Iowa City, Des Moines, Indianola, Winterset, Atlantic, Knoxville, Audubon, Harlan, Guthrie Centre and Council Bluffs, in Iowa; Gallatin, Trenton, St. Joseph, Cameron and Kansas City, in Missouri; Leavenworth and Atchison, in Kansas; Albert Lea, Minneapolis and St. Paul, in Minnesota; Watertown in Dakota, and hundreds of intermediate cities, towns and villages.

THE GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE

Guarantees Speed, Comfort and Safety to those who travel over it. Its roadbed is thoroughly ballasted. Its track is of heavy steel. Its bridges are solid structures of stone and iron. Its rolling stock is perfect as human skill can make it. It has all the safety appliances that mechanical genius has invented and experience proved valuable. Its practical operation is conservative and methodical—its discipline strict and exacting. The luxury of its passenger accommodations is unequaled in the West—unsurpassed in the world.

ALL EXPRESS TRAINS between Chicago and the Missouri River consist of comfortable DAY COACHES, magnificent PULLMAN PALACE PARLOR and SLEEPING CARS, elegant DINING CARS providing excellent meals, and—between Chicago, St. Joseph, Atchison and Kansas City—restful RECLINING CHAIR CARS.

THE FAMOUS ALBERT LEA ROUTE

Is the direct, favorite line between Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul. Over this route solid Fast Express Trains run daily to the summer resorts, picturesque localities and hunting and fishing grounds of Iowa and Minnesota. The rich wheat fields and grazing lands of the interior Dakota are reached via Watertown.

A short desirable route, via Seneca and Kankakee, offers superior inducements to travelers between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Council Bluffs, St. Joseph, Atchison, Leavenworth, Kansas City, Minneapolis, St. Paul and intermediate points.

All classes of patrons, especially families, ladies and children, receive from officials and employes of Rock Island trains protection, respectful courtesy and kindly attention.

CRITICAL ANALYSIS.

UNIVERSITY OF DESERET,
Salt Lake City, June 8th, 1887.

By carefully examining DeLand's Chemical Baking Powder with the microscope and with chemical reagents, I find that it is free from Alum, Starch, Flour, Bone Ash, Ammonia and White Earth; and that it consists essentially of Cream of Tartar and Bi-Carbonate of Soda.

The Baking Powder examined I purchased at Barnes & Davis, in this city.

A SACRAMENTO LYNCHING.

HOW "JIM, THE BRITISHER," MET HIS MERITED DESERTS—A PIONEER INCIDENT.

In the recently issued work of Bancroft, entitled "Popular Tribunals," appears the following, which is of local interest:

"On my way to Marysville," writes Mr. Coke, in 1850, "I stopped a couple of days at Sacramento. The weather was beginning to be cold. I had been rambling all the morning through the town, and had just returned to my hotel and sat ruminating over a large stove in the bar-room, thinking Sacramento the most comfortless place in the world. In the course of my walk I had observed a crowd collected round a large elm tree in the horse market. On inquiring the cause of this assembly I was told that a man had been lynched on one of the lower limbs of the elm at 4 o'clock in the morning. A newspaper, containing an account of the affair, lay on a chair beside me, and, taking it up, I was perusing the trial, when a ruffianly-looking individual interrupted me with—

'Say, stranger, let's have a look at the paper, will you?' 'When I am done with it,' said I, and continued reading.

"The answer would have satisfied most Christians endowed with any moderate degree of patience, but not so with the ruffian. He leaned himself over the back of my chair, put one hand on my shoulder, and with the other, held the paper so that he could see as well as I.

"'Well, I guess you're readin' about Jim, ain't you?'

"'Who's Jim?' said I.

"'Him as they hung this morning,' he answered, at the same time resuming his seat. 'Jim was a particular friend of mine, and I helped to hang him.'

"'Did you?' said I. 'A friendly act. What was he hanged for?'

"'When did you come to Sacramento city?'

"'I arrived this morning, and have not yet heard the particulars of this case.'

"'Oh, well, I reckon I'll tell you how it was then. You see Jim was a Britisher; that is, he come from a place they call Botany Bay, which belongs to Victoria, but ain't exactly in the old country. I believe when he first came to California, about six months back, he wasn't acquainted with any boys here away, as he took to digging all to himself. It was up at Cigar Bar whar he dug, and I happened to be digging there too, and so it was we got to knowing one another. Jim hadn't been there a fortnight before one o' the boys lost about three hundred dollars that he'd made a cache of. Somehow suspicion fell on Jim. More than one of us thought he had been digging for bags instead of dust, and the man as lost his money swore he would have a turn with him, and so Jim took my advice and sloped.'

"'Well,' said I, 'he wasn't lynched for that, was he?'

"'Palnt likely,' said the ruffian, 'for the last week or ten days nobody knowed whar he'd gone to. Well, when he come to Sacrmenty this time he come with a pile and no mistake, and all day and all night Jim used to play at faro and roulette and a heap of other games. Nobody couldn't tell how he made his money last so long, nor whar he got it from; but certain sure everybody thought as how Jim was a considerable loafer. Last of all, a blacksmith as lives on Broad Street said he found out the way he done it, and asked me to come up with him to show up Jim cheating. Now whether it was Jim suspected the blacksmith I can't say, but he didn't cheat, and lost his money in consequence. This riled him very bad, and so, wanting to get quit with the blacksmith, he began to quarrel. The blacksmith was a quick-tempered man, and after a good deal of abuse he could not keep his temper any longer, and struck Jim a blow in the mouth. Jim jumped from his seat, pulled a revolver from his pocket and shot the blacksmith dead on the spot. I was the first man that laid hold on the murderer, and if it had not been for me I believe the people in the room would have torn him to pieces.'

"'Send for Judge Parker!'" shouted some. "'Let's try him here,'" said others. "'I don't want to be tried at all,'" said Jim. "'You all know d——d well that I shot the man, and I know bloody well that you will hang me. Give me till daylight, and then I'll die like a man.'" But we all agreed that he ought not to be condemned without a proper trial, and as the report of his pistol had brought a crowd to the place, a jury was formed out of them that were present, and three judges were elected from the most respectable gentlemen in the town. The trial lasted nearly a couple of hours. Nobody doubted that he was guilty, or that he ought to be hanged for murder; but the question was whether he should die by lynch law or be kept for a regular trial before the judges of the criminal court. The best speakers said that lynch-law was no law, and endangered the life of every innocent man; but the mob would have it that he was to die at once; so as it was just then about daylight they carried him to the horse market, sat him on a table and tied the rope round one of the lower branches of a big elm tree. All the time I kept by his side, and when he was getting on the table he asked me to lend him my revolver to shoot one of the jurymen who had spoken violently against him. When I refused he asked me to tie the knot so as it wouldn't slip. "It ain't no account," said I, "to talk in that way, Jim, old fellow; you're bound to die, and if they didn't hang you I'd shoot you myself."

"'Well, then,' said he, "give me hold of the rope and I'll show you how little I care for death."

"'He seized the cord, pulled himself in an instant out of the crowd and sat down cross-legged on the bough. Half a dozen rifles were raised to bring him down, but reflecting that he could not escape they forbore to fire. He tied a noose in the rope, put it round his neck, slipped it up till it was pretty tight, and then stood up and addressed the mob. He didn't say much, except that he hated them all. He cursed the man he shot; he cursed the world, and last of all he cursed himself; and, with a terrible oath, he jumped into the air, and with a jerk that shook the tree, swung backwards and forwards over the heads of the crowd.'"

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

—Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 15, news was received here this evening by the Lawrence county officials of the murder of Oscar B. Selden at Manville, this Territory. The murder was committed last evening. Selden was at work in his office when some unknown person fired through the window, killing him instantly. There is no clue to the murderer. Mr. Selden was of the firm of Selden & Sheffer and was from Omaha, Neb. He was one of the owners of the townsite of Manville, which is on the line of the Elk Horn and Missouri valley railroad.

—Joe Lynn, the man who shot and killed saloon keeper Wright at Fort Fetterman, Wyoming, in June last while on a drunken spree, was arrested, at Omaha last Saturday as a suspicious character. It was discovered on Wednesday that he was one of the four murderers who broke jail at Laramie City a month ago. The authorities at Laramie City were notified and Chief of Police Seavey received instructions from Sheriff James Sterling to hold Lynn until the 18th, when he would arrive with the necessary papers to remove him to Wyoming. A man who had been seen with Lynn previous to the arrest and who is supposed to be another one of the Laramie City jail breakers, has not turned up since the arrest, and has probably left for other parts.

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR

DYSPEPSIA

Up to a few weeks ago I considered myself the champion Dyspeptic of America. During the years that I have been afflicted I have tried almost everything claimed to be a specific for Dyspepsia in the hope of finding something that would afford permanent relief. I had about made up my mind to abandon all medicines when I noticed an endorsement of Simmons Liver Regulator by a prominent Georgian, a jurist whom I knew, and concluded to try its effects in my case. I have used but two bottles, and am satisfied that I have struck the right thing at last. I felt its beneficial effects almost immediately. Unlike all other preparations of a similar kind, no special instructions are required as to what one shall or shall not eat. This fact alone ought to commend it to all troubled with Dyspepsia.
