PREPARATIONS FOR TONIGHT'S PARADE

Crowning Event of the Elks' Carnival Celebrations.

Electrical Effects to be Star Feature-Queen Mabelle Christens Elk and Awards Prize Tonight.

The carnival grounds were opened to the public at one o'clock this afternoon and by two o'clock the midway shows and the concert by Held's band were in full blast.

This afternoon the assembled Elks concentrated their endeavors toward making purple day a success, and getting ready for the electrical parade which starts from Market street at 7 p. m. With this end in view every Elk in the city has been notified to meet at the lodge rooms at 6:45, clad in his top hat, duster and incidentals,

During the parade all traffic, with the exception of the United States mail, will be kept off the streets that are to be traversed by the pageant.

The parade will start out in the following order, with, perhaps a few addi-Honal attractions: Six mounted police led by Chief Hil-

Kangaroo Court and Methods Not visitors now sojourning in this city will go home by freight. They will also take home with them tales of unblushing hold-ups that will make the untophisticated stranger button up his pockets the next time he comes to town. It is all owing to the methods employed by the officers belonging to the Kangaroo court. The way the stranger within the gates was shaker up yesterday was simply terrific and by the time the court adjourned $520.50 had been added to the building fund. afternoon the court got in its fine work bright and early and from now t Saturday night the clang of the two patrol wagon gongs will merrily re-sound up the street. The two-thousand dollar mark has been passed, and still good work goes on In the meantime all kinds of conspir es are being hatched against th suergetic officers who are promised strenuous times if they go into certain establishments and "pull" the em-ployes. A foretaste of what is in store them was handed out yesterday the Wood Produce and Grocery com-pany's store on West Temple street Chief of Police Patsy Sullivan and Patrolman Fin Brooks were overjoye to see all the employes lined up to re ceive them, apparently anxious to be haled before the court. The officers advanced to take their men when in the twinkling of an eye they were whisked off their feet and hustled into the fish refrigerator and cold storage room at the rear of the establishment. Finally in response to their ardent pleading th men were released and sent on their way, leaving in their wake ar odor of fish that woke up Expressman Madison's old horse into a state bordering upon frenzy. If anyone desires to start an inciplent riot on the Midway he has now only to breathe the word "fish" in the ear of Patsy Sullivan, and

It will come at the drop of the hat.

A gentleman stated this morning that he was aware of a conspiracy on foot among the employes of another house in this city to turn the hose upon the patrol at the least provocation. It is generally conceded that the chief of the Kangaroo police will carn his money during the balance of the week. Salt Lake City has been gone over by him with a fine comb and now attention is turned to the visitors in town. The proceedings of the court officers have passed the lamblike, docility stage and last night several scenes were enacted in the form of rough and tumble arests outside the court which were decidedly distasteful to ladies who were passing. Then, too, poor judgment was displayed in endeavoring. isplayed in endeavoring to arrest gen lemen who had ladies and their fam flies along with them. Generally the cers desisted when the situation was explained by their intended victims. In one case, however, an enthusiastic po-liceman endeavored to gather in County Clerk John James who was escorting two ladles. James comes from the ol Liewellyn fighting stock, so drawing his sword and throwing away the scabbard he waded in and broke his cane over the fresh patrolman's shoulders.

Taken all in all the methods em-ployed by the Kangaroo court is having the effect of keeping a number of good citizens who would be only too glad to help a good thing along, away fro the Carnival grounds.

But the day of retribution is dawn hich will undoubtedly bear fru-fried will undoubtedly bear fru-ferein the judges, attorneys and pro-cents attached to the Kangaroo cou-If the plot matures, on Saturday e patrol wagon will leave hall and gather in all of th ders; a special sitting of the police art will be in order and all the or aders will be hauled before Justice Diehl on the charge of impersonation officers. WESTLAKE GOES INTO ECSTACIES

Correspondent of Indiana Paper Says Some Nice Things.

WAS A VISITOR TO THE CITY

Tells of the Lake, the Temple and Tabernacle and Praises the Big Organ.

W. B. Westlake, writing to the Daily Leader, published at Marion, Ind., tells of a visit which he made to Salt Lake City, and he has some very nice things to say about what he saw and heard

The lake comes in for a good description as to its bathing peculiarities and the big dancing pavilion at Saltair is given proper credit for its being the largest in the world. Due attention is paid to the Temple and Tabernacle, and about the big organ Mr. Westlake has this to say: "The Tabernacle * * * seats ten thousand people, I was told. Its pipe organ is said to be one of the finest in the world, and organ recitals are given free to the public on Wednesday and Saturday mornings. I was fortunate in having an opportunity to hear two of them. I could not describe the music, because the grandeur of it is beyond my power to tell. I have heard some of the finest organs in the coun-try, but none of them produced the same effect upon me. Possibly the great Tabernacle with its hundreds of breathless listeners gathered in the shadows of the balcony and the slanting rays of sunlight from the high dome, making tunnels through the semi twilight to the unending rows of vaed to the charm of the music. Some mystic influence certainly dwells there and when at the close the great organ peals out that grandest of all hymns to an American. "The Star Spangled Banner," the audience is fairly lifted out of the seats, and as the people stand, all eyes are turned to a great stand, all eyes are turned to a great eagle which surmounts a shield of the national colors, high up in the dome. Such music ought to make Sait Lake City famous all over the world. If you go there remember the recitals. * * Don't be late."

After telling of a visit to the Wa-satch summer resort, Mr. Westlake

"I was much interested in the Mormon Church and the Mormon people The Church is wealthy and it seems to me its practices might be generally emulated with good effect. The Mor-mons are somewhat exclusive in private life, but mix with the gentiles free y in business and large social affairs. Many of them are rich, and, as a peo-ple they are gentle-mannered, considerate and polite. You like them becaus lown at Delphi, where Charley Landis holds sway. As an institution it seem never to have been offensive, because it was a part of the religion. The younger Mormons seem to regard its passage as a matter of small import-ance, and take no note of it. If polygamy is practiced in Salt Lake now is along the same lines as it is practiced in Marton. In fact, after being in Utah. I would advise the reformers to start in at least as far east as Indiana.'

BIG EPISCOPAL CONVENTION

Prominent Divines En Route to San Fransome Questions to be Discussed-The Divorce Question-Name of Church - Ecclesiastical Division.

The big national convention of the Episcopal church convenes in San Francisco on October 2nd, and already parties of eastern Episcopalians are passing through Salt Lake en route to the coast. It is the first convention of that church to be held in the West and great preparations have been made in San Francisco.

According to one prominent Episcopal bishop who stayed in this city one day lately, the coming convention will not only be the largest ever held in this country but one of the most important ever held by that church on account of the subjects that will come up for dision and action.

The divorce question will come up for iscussion and it is probable that stricter rules will be made. Priests can unite n matrimony persons who have been parties in divorce proceedings, under certain conditions, it is thought that a rule abolishing this custom altogether will be installed and priests be forbidden to marry divorced persons.

The present name of the church will come up for discussion as the name Protestant Episcopal is objectionable to many who consider the church a branch of the Catholic.

It is also the intention of certain prominent bishops to bring up the sub-ject of the division of the country into ecclesiastical provinces to be presided over by a presiding bishop, and it is thought advisable by many that the title of archibishop be instituted as is now the case in England and elsewhere. The convention will be of great interest and Episcopalians from every part of the country are en route to Sar Francisco, Among today's visitors at the Knuts ford was Bishop Scarborough and party from Trenton, New Jersey. The bishop is a prominent Episcopalian divine and spent today in visiting the sights of Salt Lake. DR SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR The best Liver Medicine. A Vegetable cure for Liver Ille, Biliousness, Indigestion, Constipation Maiaria

HYRUM BARTON FALLS DEAD Sudden Taking Off of an Old Salt

Lake Citizen. Hyrum Barton, brother of Bishop Isaac Barton of the Nineteenth ward, and Counselor William B. Barton of the Eighteenth ward, fell dead at 3:45 this afternoon. He was riding along First South 'street in his customary nner, when he was seen ward and fall out of the vehicle. Several men rushed to where he was lying prostrate on the ground. It was seen at once that he was in a dying condition. He was placed back in his buggy and taken to his brother's store on East Temple street, and the latter directed them to convey the remains to the late home on Oak street.

Hyrum Barton was about 45 years of age, and was raised in this city. His death was undoubtedly caused by heart failure.
