THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Rowland hall has opened this year with more boarding pupils than at any previous time in its history, and additional building accommodations are being added.

Mrs. C. Belle Jessup of this city has won a $5 prize offered by the New York Tribune for a short sketch story. The subject of the successful story was "Christmas in the South."

There will be a piano recital this evening, in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, by two of Mr. J. A. Anderson's advanced pupils, assisted by Fred Graham, the well known tenor.

Fruit supervisors' examinations will be held this month in cities throughout the west, in Park City, Utah, under D. B. Sheller, Oct. 20, and in Wallace, Idaho, under F. A. Fenn, Oct. 16.

From a number of "unaccountable disappearances" of valuable dogs about town of late, it is believed that there is a gang of dog fanciers getting in their fine work. The police have been notified.

Manager Zimmerman of Hold's band says that the economic properties of the new building at the state fair grounds are so good, that a band of 20 men playing sounds as though 40 musicians were at work.

The excavation going on at the old Sprague mansion site brings to light the old sidewalk some six feet below the present line of sidewalk, and which was filled in when the grade of State street was changed.

Acting Postmaster Kessler expects to move the office from the Dooly block to the Federal building in about 10 days. The custodian received yesterday quite a consignment of office fixtures for the clerk of the U. S. court.

There is a well defined movement among First street residents to have the street macadamized, and so many names have been secured to the petition circulated by E. A. Greenwood, that it is believed the proposition will be secured.

N. C. Dougherty, the Peoria embezzler and forger, owns $10,000 worth of Salt Lake real estate. J. W. Houston has a slight acquaintance with Dougherty, and says the man impressed him as a probable sharper, when here three years ago.

Business is lively at the Salt Lake stockyards, where 200,000 lambs bought by Sylvester Bros. & Chapman of Colorado are being handled in transit from Oregon and the northwestern to the San Luis valley, Colo., to be fattened on feed pens.

Some woman with more zeal than discretion has written an anonymous letter to Rev. E. L. Goshen of the First Congregational church, attempting to prove that it is improper for a woman to uncover her head in church. The letter signally failed in its mission.

The bankrupt stock of Thomas E. Vissing was sold yesterday to Rives Bros. by Receiver John Q. Critchlow, manager of the Utah Credit Men's association. Mr. Critchlow leaves this evening for Boise on business in connection with bankruptcy proceedings.

James McManamy, a miner who took part in the opening of the Flagstaff mine, the Ontario, the McHenry and other Summit county mines, and for 20 years a resident of Bingham, is dead in this city of miners' consumption, at the age of 62. He leaves two sons and three daughters.

County Attorney Christensen has been notified by Russell L. Tracy that a suit of Mr. Critchlow's attorney will be filed in the county recorder's office at once and thus comply with the new law in that matter. The plot of the South cottonwood cemetery will also be filed in a few days, and the county will be complying with the request of the county attorney.

Contractor J. D. Hanley of Idaho Falls and wife are at the Wilson. Mr. Hanley says the sewage system of his town has just been completed, the principal streets are to be curbed and macadamized, and that there is a building boom on. Then the sugar beet harvesting is on, giving work to hundreds of men, as the yield is the largest in the history of the industry.

The idea of a woman's class in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium is being pushed, but it will require 100 names in order to organize it. So far, 30 names have been secured, and Secretary Cox says 50 will be necessary by this evening, in order to make it a go. The association has now 87 members, so that it will be but a matter of a short time before the number crosses the thousand line.

There was an exciting runaway at Bingham Junction yesterday in which Charles Walters was dragged a considerable distance and severely hurt. While driving along the road, the horse became unmanageable and darted off at a terrific rate. A heavy turn threw the buggy on its side, and in this way Mr. Walters was badly injured. It is believed, however, that with careful nursing he will be out again in a few days.

Edward Christensen is finding that the way of the transgressor is hard. He was given a 30-day sentence for eating recently at Bingham by John Trainor, and while the latter was absent for a moment from his room, the man he had harbored deliberately went through his clothes and robbed him of $25. Christensen escaped to Salt Lake where he was captured. Justice Smith sent him to the county jail yesterday afternoon, for six months.

The gymnasium building at the state university is completed as to the structure itself, except the heating, and presents a neat and handsome appearance with its bright yellow brick and white stone trimmings. The equipment has been ordered in the east, and will soon be here. In the meantime the new addition to the building is being utilized for gymnastic purposes. The addition to the physical building is completed and ready for occupancy and use.

James Hall, a tramp, is now lying at the Holy Cross hospital suffering with a broken leg. He was brought in from Bingham Junction on Tuesday by Deputy Sheriff Beckstead and was placed in the hospital as a county charge. It seems that the tramp was wandering around back of a saloon at Bingham Junction in the dark and stepped into a hole and in falling to the ground broke his leg. He was taken in charge by Deputy Sheriff Beckstead and as soon as he is able to be up he will be charged with vagrancy.

Monday morning two sons of R. N. Bush of Clover, Tocco county left for foreign missions, and the occasion of their departure was taken advantage of for a family reunion Monday afternoon at the Auditorium hotel in this city. There were 15 members of the family present, and a pleasant afternoon was spent in visiting with one another. The young men who left were Lorenzo R. Bush, who will go to Australia, and Edward E. Bush who with his wife goes to the Sandwich Islands. Both of the missionaries expect to be gone for a period of years.

There will be a civil service examination in this city, Nov. 1, for the position of supervisor of native Indian music, department of the interior, at a salary of $1,200. The duties of the position will be to record, preserve, and teach the native Indian music. The position therefore requires a person with special gifts of disposition and a knowledge of Indian character and peculiarities acquired by association with the Indian. In addition, competitors should have a good musical education and be qualified to set to music native Indian tunes. There will also be an examination for the position, on the same date, of Montepie machinist in the government printing office at Washington.
