SUICIDE OF WILLIAM WARD

Unfortunate and Irresponsible Resident of North Ogden Hangs Himself in Barn.

WILL SUPPORT STATE MILITIA.

Weber Club and Business Men Want Prize Company in Ogden—News Briefs.

Ogden, March 29.—William Ward, a well known resident of North Ogden, aged 39, a son of Bishop James Ward, committed suicide some time early this morning by hanging himself in his barn. The unfortunate man lost his life by death three years ago, which preyed on his mind until he lost his reason, and was not responsible for his actions, being under constant watch. He went to bed last night apparently well, but when his children arose this morning he was missing, and upon a search being made his dead body was found in the barn. He had got up in the night, slipped on his pants and went out in his bare feet without awaking anyone in the house and accomplished the rash act which has shocked the entire community. The sympathy of all goes out to the family. He is survived by three children.

a state militia. This appropriation, however, does not obtain unless the militia is kept up to a certain standard. The state officials must, before April 15, increase this militia and bring it up to the standard, and the handsome appropriation will be lost. Some time ago, a meeting was held at the Weber club, and an honorary committee of inquiry was formed, with a view of furnishing needed moral support to the local organization. A mass meeting of the members of the Weber club, and the business men of Ogden, has been called to meet at the assembly rooms of the Weber club on Friday evening, March 29, at 8 o'clock. Adj. Gen. E. A. Wedgwood and Col. C. O. Plummer will attend and explain in detail the plans for reorganization on such a basis as will prevent this appropriation from being lost, and make of the national guard an organization of which the state may be proud.

As you may know, we now have an armory in Ogden, which is the best between Denver and the coast, and its proper maintenance should be encouraged. You are, therefore, urged to be present at this meeting.

CORRUPTION AT PRIMARIES.

JAPANESE IN HAWAII.

Gov. Carter Says There Has Been Big Increase in Attendance at Schools.

Washington, March 28.—In his annual report to the secretary of the Interior G. R. Carter, governor of Hawaii, calls attention to a marked falling off in the attendance of Hawaiian and American children at the public schools and a corresponding increase in the attendance of Japanese children, but he does not hold the latter circumstance responsible for the former.

Speaking of the Japanese he says: "There is nothing to deplore in the increase of Japanese children. The Japanese are probably in large proportion to remain. Their natural increase has been very great and as eight years have elapsed since annexation, a large number of the Japanese children now crowding into our schools have been born under the American flag. When these reach maturity they will have the right of citizenship. It is, therefore, important that they should have full opportunity of becoming equipped with the knowledge and habits of thought requisite to good American citizenship. Apart from that consideration it would be conceded that it is the inalienable privilege of every child under protection of the flag to enjoy the benefits of that public school system, which is one of the chief glories of the American commonwealth, and which moreover, Hawaii took as an ideal long before admission and continues, as a part of the Union, its best endeavors to maintain."
