

DESERET EVENING NEWS

THE
SEMI-WEEKLY
NEWSTHE GREAT
COUNTRY PAPER
OF THE WEST

Is Issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

There will be a school dance in the Twenty-second ward annex Wednesday evening.

Bishop Spalding will give an address at 2 p. m. tomorrow, in St. Paul's church before the Ladies' guild.

The lake level has risen one-tenth of a foot in the last two weeks, and is now that amount above the zero mark.

The 1905 Salt Lake directory will be published in April, and work is being pushed on that now, as well as on the Boise City directory.

Collector Greenwald of the Salt Lake custom house finds business for the current month increasing at such a rapid rate as to attract attention.

The state board of examiners, consisting of the governor, secretary of state, and attorney-general, audited a mass of bills and salary accounts yesterday afternoon.

A West Temple street produce dealer had three cases of line and salt enameled eggs thrown back on his hands this morning, as the retailer who purchased them found they were no good.

The marble setters are making such headway in the Holmes apartment building, that they will be all out of the way in a few days. Getting marble in this part of the country from New England is found to be very slow business.

Thirty Elks of the Salt Lake herd will hit the trail for Ogden tomorrow afternoon, to participate in the initiation ceremonies of the evening, with the noble herd at Ogden, where a large and interesting assortment of mavericks are to be branded.

Rev. C. J. Heckner of the Scandinavian Methodist church read a paper yesterday afternoon, before the Ministerial association on "The Relation of the Preacher to the People." He held that heresy trials are not always helpful, and sometimes result in harm to the church originating them. The relation of the preacher to honest doubt should be one of candor and kindness.

Clifford Wilkinson, aged 33, and Henry Bowditch, aged 14, were seriously injured last evening, while coasting on the steep east Seventh South street hill. Their sleds collided with a hitching post at North East street, and each boy broke a leg. They were carried home and medical aid summoned, and both are now doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Willard Cummings, aged 7, of 25 S. street, went from the Grading school yesterday afternoon, to visit with his cousins, without notifying his folks, and the result was that his mother became frantic before the evening was over, over the disappearance of her child. Finally the father thought to phone to his brother, and quiet was restored in the Cummings household when it was learned that Willard was asleep in bed with his little cousins.

A couple registering at the Grand Pacific hotel as F. J. Brown and wife Sunday night, were assigned to room 116, and two hours later were detected by a boy lowering the rocking chair in the room out of the window to the ground by a rope. However, the boy did not think in time to notify the hotel people, and the lovely couple disappeared with the chair. The affair proved to be a drunken freak, so the hotel people say, and the chair was recovered later.

The music teachers of the city are called on to meet next Friday evening, in the studio of Mrs. Martha Royce King, Commercial club building, to organize a Music Teachers' association. The idea of the organization is for self protection against non-professional teachers; and it is proposed to ask the Legislature to appoint a board of examiners to examine all persons desiring to teach before being allowed to do so, and to issue proper certificates.

After an illness of only a few days, Clara Heath Skowes died suddenly at her residence, 353 east Third South street, Saturday morning. She was widely known in social and business circles, and leaves a host of friends who were greatly shocked to hear of her sudden death. In her immediate family she leaves her mother, a daughter, Doris, a brother, Henry F. Heath, and a sister, Mrs. O. T. Carlson. The funeral was held at 2 p. m. yesterday afternoon, Jan. 17, at 2 o'clock, from 225 south Second East street.

The annual election of the Unitarian society was held last evening at Unity hall, when the following officers were elected for the following year: Trustees, Henry W. Lawrence, John Zink, L. L. Perkins, Frank Larson, George H. Raybould, A. A. Moulton, Mrs. Martha Watson, Dr. H. A. Whitney and Mrs. A. A. Ball. The election was followed by a reception to the new pastor, Rev. F. E. Eddy. The board of trustees will meet next Thursday evening to elect a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer of the society.

We pay 4 per cent interest per annum on $1 to $5,000. Zion's Savings Bank & Trust Co. 105 West 1st St., Smith, President; George M. Cannon, Cashier.

C. S. MARTIN COAL CO.
Rock Springs, Cumberland, Castle Gate and Clear Creek lump, nut and slack.

BURTON COAL & LUMBER CO.
Rock Springs, Castle Gate, Cumberland, Anthracite. Both Phones 503.

NEW TELEPHONE BOOK IS BEING HURRIED UP.

Notwithstanding a healthy growth in subscribers was provided for with last issue of the directory, it has so far exceeded expectations that the supply of books is exhausted, and the new book is being hurried to completion. It will show over 7,500 subscribers in Salt Lake, a growth of over 1,000 since July 1, 1904, and over 200 for the half month ending Jan. 15. The book is being published by the ROCKY MOUNTAIN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

Amusements

Last night's attendance at the second concert by the Salt Lake Symphony orchestra, gave still further evidence that the taste of the town is awakening. The audience was brilliant, and although there was yet room for many more. Gov. Cutler, Gen. Bowman, and the staff occupied two stalls; Rev. Mr. Goshen and a party from the University club had another; a big delegation of the students from the Sisters' academy half filled the first circle; Prof. Stephens and a section of the Tabernacle choir occupied the front rows in the family circle, and throughout the house were sprinkled many of the leading teachers and musicians of the city.

The appreciation was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

The program was very marked throughout, and the more classical numbers of the evening were followed with a studious attention very flattering to Mr. Shepherd and his men. The orchestra, comprising nearly 40 instrumentalists, together in beautiful fashion. There were some occasional flaws evident, notably in the horns, but as a whole the program was admirably carried off. The first number, "The Plague Dance" overture, was brilliantly rendered, especially on the part of the strings and the flutes. The audience all seemed to be in the mood for the strings and the flutes.

and the event promises to be a most delightful one.

Mrs. C. E. Richards and Mrs. M. S. Lacy gave an interesting program yesterday at the home of the former.

The Cleofan met today with Mrs. C. R. Wells, the hostess giving a paper on "Paris in the Middle Ages."

Mrs. William Bayley, Jr., leaves this week for Los Angeles.

At the B. B. hall this afternoon, the usual charity card-party was given—the hostesses being Mesdames Samuel Wells, Henry Cobb and Harry Joseph.

Miss Grace Cannon entertained a few friends at luncheon yesterday at her cooking class, and her guests enjoyed a menu made up of some delicious recipes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Boyd entertained Mrs. F. K. Fernald of Elkhart, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Holding celebrated their silver wedding anniversary last night in a delightful party at their home. A large number of friends being present to honor the occasion. Music was one of the pleasant features of the affair, which was enjoyable throughout.

The Keith-O'Brien company will give an employees' ball at Christensen's on Friday evening next. Every member of the store force from the manager to the cash boys are interested in the affair, and all expect to have a good time, promote fellowship and good will, and keep alive the enthusiasm of the store. Punch will be served and a novel cozy corner is provided to promote sociability.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

Friday afternoon a large party was given by the Relief society of the Twenty-fifth ward in honor of Mrs. Margaret Hart, on her 72nd birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Barker. After singing and prayer refreshments were passed and a program rendered. There were present Mesdames Catherine White, Elaine Robinson, Lucy Richardson, Margaret Barker, Annie Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Janet Marshall, Mary Ann Breun, back, Mary E. Pearson, Mary Ann Davis, Catherine Walker, Emma Bates, Emily Packer, Benn Hanson, Annie Morrison, Mary Bees, Margaret Geddies, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Sutherland, Miss Winnie Geddies, Miss Bees, Mary Ann Larson, Master Alan Davis, Master Albert Geddies, Mary E. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas, Flora P. Neilson.

This Day in History.

JANUARY 17th.

1706—Benjamin Franklin born in Boston; died 1790.

1740—Victor Alfieri, Italian poet, born; died 1803.

1771—Charles Brockden Brown, noted early American novelist; born in Philadelphia; died 1810.

1781—Battle of the Cowpens.

1790—George Bancroft, historian, died at Washington; born 1801.

1805—General Rutherford Birchard Hayes, sixteenth president of the United States, died at Fremont, O.; born 1822.

1809—Hon. John Russell Young, American journalist and diplomat, ex-minister to China, died in Washington; born 1818.

1900—The left wing of General Buller's army crossed the Tugela, west of the Tugela river, and attacked the Boer position against the Boer position.

Don't Let This Day In

Your History

Pass without buying a Diary for 1905. A nice assortment to select from, at Deseret News Book Store.

dren of the Lord." Roll call showed all schools represented but Pleasant Green. Supt. James N. Lambert made a few remarks in behalf of the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions. The speaker also referred to the circular letter sent out by the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions. The speaker also referred to the circular letter sent out by the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions.

dren of the Lord." Roll call showed all schools represented but Pleasant Green. Supt. James N. Lambert made a few remarks in behalf of the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions. The speaker also referred to the circular letter sent out by the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions. The speaker also referred to the circular letter sent out by the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions.

dren of the Lord." Roll call showed all schools represented but Pleasant Green. Supt. James N. Lambert made a few remarks in behalf of the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions. The speaker also referred to the circular letter sent out by the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions. The speaker also referred to the circular letter sent out by the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions.

dren of the Lord." Roll call showed all schools represented but Pleasant Green. Supt. James N. Lambert made a few remarks in behalf of the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions. The speaker also referred to the circular letter sent out by the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions. The speaker also referred to the circular letter sent out by the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions.

dren of the Lord." Roll call showed all schools represented but Pleasant Green. Supt. James N. Lambert made a few remarks in behalf of the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions. The speaker also referred to the circular letter sent out by the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions. The speaker also referred to the circular letter sent out by the Juvenile Instructor, urging the officers and teachers to support the magazine by sending in their subscriptions.

dren of the Lord." Roll