HIGHEST HONORS

AT THE

UNITED STATES

CentenniaL

World Exhibition,
1876.

MASON & HAMLIN
CABINET ORGANS

Unanimously assigned the

"FIRST RANK

IN THE

"SEVERAL REQUISITES"

of such instruments!

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Organs of their manufacture, have been unanimously assigned "the FIRST RANK in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of instruments of the class" by the Judges at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THIS GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the severest competition by the best makers, before one of the most competent juries ever convened.

They have also received the MEDAL, but, as is well known, medals of equal merit have been "awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition," so that it will be easy for many makers to advertise that they have received "first medals."

The differences in competing articles, and their comparative excellence, are recorded in the Reports of the Judges from which the following is an extract:—

"THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.'S exhibit of Reed Organs and Harmoniums shows instruments of the FIRST RANK IN THE SEVERAL REQUISITES OF INSTRUMENTS OF THE CLASS, viz: Smoothness and equal distribution of tone, range of expression, promptness and singing quality, freedom and quickness in action of keys and bellows, with thoroughness of workmanship, combined with simplicity of action."

(Signed by all the Judges.)

The Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus declared to rank first, not in one or two respects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and they are the Only ones assigned this rank. This unanimity has also been manifested where Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs have uniformly been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been scarcely six exceptions in hundreds of competitions. They were awarded highest honors and

FIRST MEDALS

PARIS, 1867; VIENNA 1873; SANTIAGO, 1875

PHILADELPHIA, 1876;

and have thus been awarded highest honors at Every World's Exposition!

at which they have been exhibited; being the Only American Organs which have ever obtained ANY Award at any competition with best European makers, or in any European World's Exposition!

NEW STYLES, with improvements, exhibited at the CENTENNIAL, elegant new cases in great variety. Prices very moderate, consistent with best material and workmanship. Organs sold, few cash or installments, or rented until rent pays. Every Organ warranted for five years, and sent to every responsible purchaser on THE MONEY REFUNDED. ☞ ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUES sent free.

EVENING NEWS.

Monday . . December 3, 1877.

Conference at Sunset Crossing.

Minutes of a Quarterly Conference Held at Lot Smith's Camp, Sunset Crossing, Yavapai Co., A. T., November 17, 1877.

Presidents of camps—Elders Lot Smith, T. O. Ballinger, Geo. Lake, John Bushman and Nathan C. Tenney.

The conference meetings were opened by singing and prayer, President Lot Smith presiding.

Nathan C. Tenney said nine families started with him at his camp. They had now increased to thirteen, and numbered about forty souls. There was a marked increase of the spirit of union and good feeling. They had worked hard, endeavoring to raise their bread and build houses. They thought of commencing the United Order this fall. The Spanish and Mexican brethren had a good spirit. He had come to this conference to learn how to organize his camp in the spirit of the United Order. In talking to the Spanish and Lamanite laymen they universally fell in with the principles of the gospel, while the priests bitterly opposed. He felt we had nothing to discourage us in the least.

Elder Berghman felt encouraged and desired the blessings of heaven to rest upon each and all. He had visited Utah on business, and had enjoyed his trip. There was a great deal of work to do to provide for the many that would join the different camps. He realized that the great amount of labor that had been performed by the camps could not have been performed on the individual principle.

Brother J. M. Walker spoke of the purpose for which we had been called on the Arizona mission, that it was to establish principles of truth and righteousness. Where our treasure was there our heart would be also. We were in a school to learn how to become useful and be directed by our leaders for the benefit of the kingdom of God.

2.30 p. m.

Elder George Lake spoke of the necessity of feeling after our fellowman in persevering in our duties in preaching the gospel. We should put away all selfishness and live and act for the interest of the kingdom of God. He compared our old mode of living, and the way we were called to live and move in the holy Order, advised all to rid themselves of their false traditions and notions, and be united in all things, that we might be able to ward off evil influence from us. exhorted wives to be subject to the counsel of their husbands, and let the influence they had over their children be salutary, that they might be a blessing to them when they grew to years of maturity.

Elder W. R. Tenney referred to the purpose for which we had been called on this mission, and exhorted all to a faithful performance of their duties.

Elder George Dablin encouraged all to impart and receive kindly knowledge on any subject.

President Lot Smith referred to the commencement of the southern mission, to the number of those called at that time who had shrunk from the duties of their mission, and of those who had remained and how well they felt. He spoke of the necessity of adopting articles of agreement and bye-laws for all the camps on the Arizona Mission. Articles of agreement and bye laws were then read and unanimously adopted.

Nov. 18, 10 a.m.

Brother T. O. Ballinger said we were engaged in the great work of the gathering of all things into one, and spoke of the long and continued teachings of our late President Brigham Young on the United Order and our becoming one in all things.

Elder Joseph James was satisfied that the settlements on Colorado River would prosper and become great and good settlements. He felt well in returning home from Utah.

Elder Joseph Richards felt glad of the privilege of meeting with the Saints at home. The Saints in Southern Utah felt well and felt to assist in building up the kingdom of God. He referred to our having been called to establish the United Order and form new settlements and unite our labor.

Elder John Bushman felt well and willing to sacrifice all false notions. We should seek to become humble, prayerful, energetic, and prompt in the performance of our duty.

Elder John Bloomfield said we should seek to prepare ourselves for the coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. He spoke of the time being nigh at hand when we should not be able to procure clothing from the outside world, that we should try and provide for those contingencies.

Elder George Ladd spoke of the propriety of the move made at this conference for all to be governed by the same laws, rules and agreement. He viewed the people on this mission as pioneers to prepare the way for all the Latter-day Saints for the establishment of the United Order. All were looking to us in Arizona for the success of our labors. The influence of our example was having a salutary effect on the Mexicans and Lamanites.

2:30 p. m.

The Sacrament was administered, and the authorities of the Church were presented, with the presidents of camps and Elder Lot Smith as President of the Arizona Mission, and unanimously sustained.

President Lot Smith said we had received much food for reflection, and had had a good opportunity for learning the feelings of each other. He was thankful for the goodly portion of the Spirit of God that had been with us.

Elder Nathan C. Tenney exhorted the young men not to be discouraged in trying to acquire a knowledge of the Spanish language.

Conference adjourned until the 6th day of April, 1878, at 10 a. m.
