After forming at the undertaking partors of Jos. W. Taylor, where the dead representative lay, the members of the fegislature marched in double file after the hearse containing the remains to the depot. Arriving there the committee appointed from the house and senate took charge of the remains, and through a line composed of their fellows, the legislators carried the casket to the cars. This committee was composed of Senators Binkerhoff and Miller and Representatives Dorius, Martin Jensen and Meeks, and Sergeant-at-arms Thompson and Chaplain David Heas, of the bouse.

Numerous floral offerings were heaped Numerous floral offerings were heaped on the casket as it was placed in the baggage car, and the long journey began. The train will stop at Richfield, where the 60-mile drive over muddy roads and mountain passes begins. It was calculated that about half the distance would be made yesterday, and the balance of the way covered today, so that the funeral services at Thurber could be conducted Tuesday morning. It no unseen obstacle presents itself, this program will be carried out, and memorial services will be conducted at the same hour tomorrow as those at Thurber.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—Tonight will mark the beginning of what should be an important week of the season's offerings at the Salt Lake theater. Nance O'Neil comes back to us after an absence of several years. Her appearance will commence with the presentation of "The Sorceress." The statement is confidently made that the production will be along broad lines and that the distinguished tragedienne will be seen at very best. "The Sorceress" will hold the board up to and including Wednesday night after which it will be superseded by "Magda" for the remainder of the engagement. Theater-Tonight will mark the be-

Orpheum—On Saturday night scores were turned away at the Orpheum, bringing the week to a close with all previous records in the box office smashed by a good margin. Tonight and for the balance of the week another well advertised bill is in order, headed by Ned Nye, former musical comedy star, and six rollicking girls, including the Reid Sisters, acrobatic dancers, in a vaudeville fantasy.

Grand—"Human Hearts" is the bill at the Grand for the first half of this week, and the promise is that the house will be packed at each of the performances. The play is an idyll of the Arkansas Hills and is one of the stories that the public never tires of hearing and seeing depicted back of the footlights.

Lyric—"A Gipsy Romance" is the bill at the Lyric and will run the en-tire week. It is an interesting play and is drawing a heavy patronage. Seldy Roach is in the cast and is given a hearty welcome by his friends here.

CHINESE REFORMS.

Superintendent of San Francisco Mission Talks on Conditions in Orient.

Rev. J. H. Laughlin, superintendent of the Chinese mission in San Francisco, spoke on conditions in the Chinese empire, in the Third Presbyterian church yesterday morning. He said that while the empress downger had set that while the empress dowager had set aside the reforms ordered by the emperor in 1898, alone with the emperor himself, she had since become converted to an appreciation of the value of these reforms, and was now putting them into execution. These reforms include doing away with the civil service examinations on the basis of learning obtaining 2,000 years ago, cutting off the queries, leaving the feet of girl children unbound, turning unused temples into school houses, etc. Moreover, in two of the provinces that have in years past been particularly backward about accepting western conditions of civilization, are now the most forward in accepting them. One of these is the province of Hunan where Yale university has established a branch on an apparently permanent foundation. foundation foundation.

The speaker illustrated the growth of Evangelical Christianity in the empire by referring to the arrival of Robert Morrison from England early in the century, a disguise being necessary to protect him from attack. He did not score his first convert for six years, and it was some time after that before he made another. It was not until 1870 that any appreciable growth in Christianian and the speakers are the made another.

NO MISTAKE HERE.

Discovery of a Proof-Reader.

Discovery of a Proof-Reader.

Even a proof-reader may make mistakes unless careful reading is maintained all the time.

It makes a lot of difference sometimes, just how a thing is real.

This is the tale:

"No tea and not one drop of coffee,' ordered the doctor—and I rebelled. But alas, with nerves that saw, felt, and heard things that were not, rebellion was useless.

With the greatest reluctance I gave up these lifelong companions, and drank milk, milk—until the very step of the mikman grew hateful.

"My nerves were some better, but breakfast without some warm beverage grew wearisome, and bid fair to be entirely slighted. And with a brain that for nine hours daily must work hard, ever demanding nourishment, the falling appetite was a serious proposition.

"Then in despair, Postum was tried. I had tasted it once and heartily disliked the pale watery compound, but now, literally starving for a hot drink. I read and re-read the directions on the package with the critical eye of the proof-reader, following them out to the letter and lo! the rich brown liquid of the advertisements.

"Not one but three cups disappeared and since then Postum has been my sole warm beverage, unfailingly refreshing and helpful; both body and nerves testifying to its helpfulness by new strength and vigor." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book. "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

The speaker was giad to see a change coming. Societies are now organized over the empire to prevent any more footbinding. The cause of this cruelty was the demand of the men for brides with small feet; the women themselves objecting to it. The Boxer movement has died out, and the governor of the most important province in the empire has ordered the New Testament placed among the Chines classics. Missionaries are now safe where only a few years ago they were in constant danger. The greatest obstacle at present is tianity was noticed in China. Now there are 160,000 Protestant Christians there, to say nothing of the Roman. Catholic Christians; with every prospect of a rapid increase as western ideas gain favor. The trouble with the Chinese has been that instead of living with the future in view, they lived only with the past of 2,000 years ago in view. It was as if the Pauline saying in Phil. 3: 13, 14 has changed so as to read: "Forgetting the things that are befind: I press backward to the things which are befind: I press backward to ward toward the goal unto the prize of the high calling in Confucius." For the last 1,000 years China has stood still.
