

France Sends a Squadron, Under Sealed Orders, to the Levant-May Seize Customs at Smyrna.

AGAINST TURKEY

French foreign office confirm the report that a division of the French Mediterranean flect, composed of three battieships and two cruisers, under the command of Admiral Caillard, has proceeded from Toulon to the Levant, to make a naval demonstration against Turkey. A foreign office official, in communicating the foregoing to the correspond-cut of the Associated Press, said: "The squadron sailed with sealed or-

The squadron sailed with sealed or-ders, and proceeds, first, to a Greek port, the island of Syra, I think, where the admiral will receive definite instruc-tions as to carrying out his sealed or-ders. I am not at liberty to say what the sealed orders are, but the seizure of the customs at Smyrna would proba-bly be a very effective way of convinc-ing the sultan that France's patience is exhausted and that we have decided to enforce an immediate execution of the Turkish government's engage-ments. We, however, are very hopeful that the sultan will not compel us to go to that extreme.

"Our squadron will not reach the Greek port before Sunday. The Turkish government has thus still three days' grace, and we trust in the meantime to receive complete satisfaction. We have receive complete satisfaction. We have acted very considerately toward Tur-key, hoping, up to the last moment, that she would carry out her engagements, and it is only now, when we find there is no serious indication of her doing so that we have rejuctantly resolved to put stronger pressure to bear, in the to put stronger pressure to bear, in the shape of a naval demonstration. It is now two months since the French am-bassador, M. Constans, left Constanti-nople. His departure failed to produce the desired effect. On the contrary, even the quays and tubini questions, which were settled by the sultan's

The official was asked what would happen in the event of the French squadron being ordered to seize the cus-toms and if the Turkish authorities re-sizacd, and he replied: "That is a very unikely contingency, but if it occurs I suppose we shall have to bombard that post. WALKED AWAY.

Frank Bartell escaped from the prisoners' guard while working with a gang on a county ditch on Tenth South street, near Seventh West yesterday afternoon and is still at large. Sheriff Naylor and Deputy Sheriff Raleigh took the night train to Ogden, hoping to head off the escaped convict, but returned this morning without having found any trace of him. Bartell is probably in hiding somewhere between Salt Lake and Ogden. The last clue of him was in the neighborhood of Beck's Hot Springs, but from this point he seems to have left absolutely no trace. It is not likely that he can have taken to the mountains as he left his coat behind, and only wore a light shirt, a pair of blue overalls and a black slouch hat. Bartell is a rather small man of about 40 years of age, weighs 120 pounds, stands 5 feet 51/2 inches. He is dark complexioned with black hair and whiskers, and has the appearance of an Italian, although American born. His teeth are decayed, and he has a slight scar on his left eyebrow. He has plenty of tatoo marks on his body, and on his right forearm is depicted a picture of a man and a woman. Bartell was serving a sixty days' sentance for Deputy Sheriff Lewis had charge of the gang, which was working on the ditch, and ex-Deputy Sherliff Harries had been appointed as a special guard had been appointed as a special guild to assist Lewis, and is really the man who is responsible for the prisoner's escape. RIGHT TO RECALL WITNESSES.

Apparently Mr. Raynor was sur-prised. He said: "Have we the right after we have closed the case to recall witnesses except in rebuttal? That would lead to an interminable case. The rule of law is you can rebut anything that has been brought out, but you cannot call witnesses to sustain former statements they have made. There is no objection to a witness in rebuttal." Capt. Lemly-Counsel is wrong when he says I closed the case. I did not close it. I simply said: "We rest here and L wronges to call further witness." and I propose to call further witnesses hereafter.'
