O. S. L. SUE FOR DAMAGES

Damage Suit of Fred Wolcott Against Same Company Dismissed by Judge Rolapp.

State Relief Society Building—Ogden
Polling Places—S. S. Singing Classes
—Republican Rally.

Suit was filed in the district court by Michael J. Sanders against the Oregon Short Line Railroad company for $35.00 alleged to be due for personal injury. The complaint alleges as cause of action that on September 13, 1901, the plaintiff was in the service of the defendant company as head brakeman upon one of the defendant's north-bound trains, and as said train was going into the station at Hot Springs, Weber county, in nighting from said train the plaintiff was struck by a hand car which was negligently placed by the side of the defendant's track, knocking him from said car violently to the ground and under the wheels of the moving train, thereby crushing and mutilating his left leg, knocking out his teeth and cutting his face and bruising his body to his permanent injury.

DAMAGE SUIT DISMISSED.

The case of Fred Wolcott against the Oregon Short Line Railroad company for damages alleged to be due for personal injuries, came on for hearing before Judge Rolapp. L. R. Rogers and D. W. Starnes appeared as attorneys for the plaintiff. The railroad company was represented by Attorneys F. L. Williams, Judge W. N. Whitcomb and George Smith. The jury was unimpressed to hear the case.

The attorneys for the defendant moved that a non suit be granted on the ground that the accident occurred by the negligence of a fellow servant who was on an equal with Wolcott as an employee of the railroad company, and who gave the order that caused the accident, the law being interpreted to hold that the employer is not responsible for the accident to the employee which is caused through the negligence of a fellow-employee. The point was argued at length by the attorneys, but the court held that the point was well taken and dismissed the action.

The building will be constructed of brick with a large basement and will be a credit to the society and the city. The plans are very desirous of completing their building by Christmas and hope to raise the remaining amount of money necessary to complete the building by that time, they have therefore decided to give a fine literary and musical entertainment in the Ogden Tabernacle on Monday evening, October 28. Some of the best talent in the state has been secured as the jury failed to agree Thursday, will be tried again Monday.

CASTLE DALE.

BRIEF COURT SESSION.

L. N. Link, charged with Murder, Given Change of Venue.

Special Correspondence.

Castle Dale, Emery Co., Oct. 24.—The September term of the district court for Emery county has been called and adjourned all in one day. The calendar was disposed of by Judge Johnson with expedition and this evening everything is cleared up.

The matter of the greatest importance to occupy the attention of the court was the case against Fred Mikel, charged with the murder of L. N. Link of this place in August. The prisoner, who had been in the state prison in Salt Lake City for safe keeping since the day after the killing, was brought down by Sheriff Tuttle last night and this morning appeared before his honor and entered a plea of not guilty, and by his attorneys asked for a change of venue to some other county.

His reason for the request was given as the extreme prejudice of the people against him and the great difficulty which would necessarily follow in getting a jury to try the case. District Attorney Livingston raised no objection, and the court ordered the prisoner to be delivered to the custody of the sheriff of Sanpete county until after his trial, which will be held at Mantle some time during the month of January next.

Peter P. Mikel, Joseph Swasey and Lee McDonald, convicted at the last term of court of grand larceny and sentenced to serve three years in the penitentiary, but just now out on bail, appeared and asked for a new trial. The grounds given are that one of the jurors who tried the case, a man named Killian, had expressed before the trial unqualified opinions as to the guilt of the defendants. Affidavits were presented in support of the charge. Some delay was occasioned by the non-appearance of Killian, who was wanted by the State to rebut the allegations of the affidavits, but he could not be found. The matter went over until Saturday of next week, when the arguments by counsel will be heard in chambers at the home of Judge Johnson on Saturday of next week at Spring City.

Inasmuch as it has pleased God to summon from his earthly abode, to another and more exalted sphere of existence, our beloved brother, friend and leader, Ezra T. Clark, High Councilor of the Davis Stake, of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, whose life and labors have been of such far-reaching consequence, and of such noble example, and inspiration to the young and old of Israel;

Therefore, be it resolved that we, his associates, of this High Council, express our sincere sympathy to his family and of the example which we have received and enjoyed, during the many years of our associations together; and that we hereby place on record, by these resolutions, our testimony of his exemplary life and labors, as a leader in and out of this Council with the Saints of God, and of his integrity to every true worshiper in him as a gentleman in all the walks of life—a devoted father, a loving husband, and in our own nation, a citizen of the highest type. Many of Utah's most prominent citizens have received of his hospitality and are today worthy exemplars of the great mission which our Heavenly Father called our departed brother to perform.

Be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Council, and that copies be sent to his bereaved family, and also published in the Deseret News.

WILKES PLAYERS THE VICTORS.

Defeated the Olympians by a Score Of Five to Nothing.

ALL HALLOWS VS VARSITY.

Big Teams Meet on Walker's Field This Afternoon—Interest in the Game at Denver.

On the High School campus yesterday afternoon, the Wilkes and Olympia teams met in battle array and for small teams put up a pretty stiff fight. The players were interfered with to a considerable extent by clouds of dust and small boys who insisted on crowding onto the side lines. The teams have been anxious to come together for some time, and twice the game has been postponed. They were severely matched, which made the contest close and exciting. The organization playing under the Wilkes colors had a slight advantage in experience, having trained more than the Olympians.

A touchdown was made by the Wilkes in the nick of time, for had the light ended a few minutes sooner it would have been a tie game.

An error on the part of the officials probably gave the game away. The Wilkes made an off-side play and were set back to yards, but were given possession of the play side, which was wrong. In the play following, Robinson secured the ball and was pushed over the line for a touch down. As there were no goal posts, the score was not kicked and the game ended with a score of five to nothing.

The following is the line-up and officials.

THE GAME AT DENVER.

Many Believe the Y. M. C. A. Has a Good Chance.

There is a good deal of speculation among local footballists as to the probable outcome of the game at Denver to be played this afternoon. The Y. M. C. A. and Denver Wheel club teams, and many believe the local lights will carry off the honors.

They have practiced faithfully, are in perfect physical condition and have a hard line to meet the favorites.

McAndrew, known as the "Iron" in Denver, will receive a warm welcome, as he is well known through as a first class football player.

In the Wheel club line up is Van Stone, who played here last year with the Denver High school, and he is counted upon for some fine drop kicking.
