EVENING NEWS. Published Daily, Sundays Racepted, AT FOUR O'CLOCK. PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY THE DESERET NEWS COMPANY CHARLES W. PENROSE, EDITOR. December S, 1888

portion of the population. A number of gentleman who delight in being called Liberals are opposed to the division of the city into wards as provided by the City Council pursuant to more discrimination, else it may be the law on that subject enacted by the deemed a blow where it is not inlate legislature: they were opposed to tended. There is nothing in the Ogden was walking slong St. Paul's church-the enumeration of inhabitants which plat remotely resembling, even by the yard yesterday behind a respectably. formerly took place, also pursuant to rule of proportion and comparison, a in a newspaper fell from the man's the law; they were opposed to the last Legislative district extending from coat. Osborse told hum that he had the Junction City, applied to and ob- the direction, of circumventing existing with similar stains on both sides. tained from the First District Court an things. alternative writ of mandamus to compel Registrar Corey to place him (Hays) on the rolls as an elector of the second district of that municipality. We have a communication purporting This the official had refused to do, but to be from Springville, which has atproffered his services to the extent of tached to it the name of Ch. E. Malenrolling the applicant as an elector at strom. The writer is not personally large. Of course this was not satis- known to us and we have not an overfactory, not being within the terms of whelming desire to make his acquain-hails of justice for alleged relief. We Mormon and expresses a desire to have say "alleged" advisedly, for to even them answered. He appears to claim the casual observer the transparency that the points he seeks to make are of the whole proceeding must be irreconcitable from his standpoint, and plainly discernible.

A striking peculiarity in connection | Like all fellows of his stripe he puts with the proceeding is the attitude of on an air of honesty of purpose by the registrar himself. If he had no strongly asserting that the object of authority to enter the applicant as his communication is the obtaining of from the Second Ward, what right in information, pure and undefiled. One law had he to enter him at all? He is who is really in pursuit of that valua- Laveleye. As one of the most learned not a court of review and cannot de- ble consideration needs to make no termine the question whether or not sach extravagant profession. a law that has become such in ac- The true inwardness of this individcordance with the customary forms, nal is exhibited toward the close including the actual sanction of the of his letter, when he threatens holding an appointment indirectly will admit the Book of Mormon to be a the duties of registrar for a district However, it already reposes in the not provided for or contemplated by waste paper basket, where it properly law, he virtually ignored the law, or belongs. pronounced it a numby, a performance We take grea ure in answering which we hardly deem within the the honest inquiries of all persons who are searching for truth, but do not scope of his official functions. It can scarcely be urged in his behalf treat with those who do not couch that as there are officers at large to be their communications in respectful voted for-the Mayor, Marshal, Treas- terms. We treat with gentlemen, but urer and Recorder-his proffer ex- not with the class to which the writer tended only to aiding the applicant to of the correspondence in question bevote for these, without the design of longs. We have no dealings with conferring authority to vote for ward those whose chief characteristics are officers in the wards. Where was he to impudence and self-conceit, tinctured vote if not in his ward, and how with idiotic malice.

spect to population, and sice varia. The only plan, then, that could properly be adopted was to make due allowance for both, by striking an average and making each of the thickly peopled wards as large in latitude as possible without having many more than its quota of the people, and the outside without having many more than its at the ends. He was wear- on education, the other day, gave ut-quota of the people, and the outside ing a long, dark coat, trimmed with terance to some remarkable stateones to have as many people as possi- astrakhan, a white collar, with black ments which show that France is ble without making their ward too ble without making their ward too bulky. As the city is divided by squares, it would be a wkward to have boots, and displayed from bis waist-is founded on the dignity of man, and wards otherwise than as square as coat a massive gold chain. His watch its work has been the human consci NaturdayDecember 5, 1555.NaturdayWards otherwise than as square as possible, or at least it was designed that irregular overlapping should be avoided. It would be entirely impossible for the work to be done over and come nearer to this rule, nearer to the provisions acter or compass to be considered a acter or compass to be considered a a little less than 2000 souls. Is not this, all things considered, as near an be reached? WeContain a little more, the others acter or compass to be considered a

a little less than 2000 souls. Is not this, all things considered, as near an equation as could be reached? WeContain a little more, the others aster and come as could be reached? WeContain a little more, the others aster and come as could be reached? WeContain a little more, the others aster and come as could be reached? WeContain a little more, the others aster and come as could be reached? WeContain a little more, the others aster and come as could be reached? WeContain a little more, the others a little contain as could be reached? WeContain a little more, the others a pair of brown kidThe contain a little more, the others
a pair of brown kidThe contain a little more, the others
a pair of brown kidThe contain a little more, the others
a pair of brown kidThe contain a little more, the others
a pair of brown kidThe contain a little more, the others
a pair of brown kidThe contain a little more, the others
a pair of brown kidThe contain a little more, the others
a pair of brown kidThe contain a little more, the others
a pair of brown kidThe contain a little more, the others
a pair of brown kidThe contain a little more, the others a pair of brown kidThe contain a little more, equation as could be reached? We woman's shoulder, a pair of brown kid should think so. And the talk of was that he walked very softly." "shoestring districts" by the Ogden Liberals should be indulged in with pers states that the police have re-gether they searched for the myster-wire-worker, 20 Garden Row, London road, a statement to the effect funt he the law; they were opposed to the last Legislative district extending from city election going as it did, and in short, seems disposed to be satisfied with nothing that is. In these re-cards they uppear to be more pessi-nistic and intractable than their They were created for them, and not breater the latter either. A least has not acted in the very has yet thought, or at least has not acted in the period a brown kid a brown kid the parcel also are member of that party has yet thought, or at least has not acted in the period a brown kid a brown kid the parcel also are determined a brown kid the parcel also are membered to that party has yet thought, or at least has not acted in the period a brown which are parcel also are the strets and squares of the strets an A few days ago Mr. C. B. Hays, of thought, or at least has not acted in contained a brown kid glove, smeared Osborne found a constable, and to-> ous individual, but without success. A PROPER CONSIGNMENT.

The parcel, says the paragraph, was handed to the police authorities, "who, however, attach no importance to the matter." What on earth could be more important, after the statement made by the man Hutchinson and quoted above?", CURRENT TOPICS IN EUROPE. the ordinance lately passed governing tance. He starts out with a number the subject, hence the petition to the of questions in relation to the Book of Opinions of M. de Laveleye-Bel-gium Forts-Haly's Wenkness. - French Amairs- Noiseless Cabs. -- Statuemania. -- Cassignac's Duels .- Denmark's Jub-wishes the NEWS to clear them up. ilee .- Kmpress Frederick, etc. Within s stone's throw of the ever winding Meuse, within the grim old walls of the University of Leige, remen in Europe,-a.profound philesopher, an eminent geographer, and one of the greatest of living political economists-M. Laveleye has been the including the actual sanction of the of his letter, when he threatens Territorial Executive and the implied us with exposure if his effusion has looked for wisdom and counsel sanction of the National Congress, is is not published and answered. He these many years. To him more than valid; the process by which it became purposes taking the awful revenge of any one else belongs the honor of prelaw was formal enough and solemn having it published elsewhere, and of serving the little kingdom of Belgium enough, surely, even for an official announcing that we, by our refusal, in its present neutral and independent from the government itself. In an-nouncing his willingness to perform non-publication the letter be returned. gium is, in some respects, the gateway of the continent. Hence the ardent desire of both France and Germany to control the pocket kingdom. M. Laveleye does not expect everiast-openly and publicly haulting God. There is no Prince nor Emperor who believes in God. The rich tell the people, 'You go to Heaven if you suffer on this earth.' No-body ever proved that there is a heaven, and nobody ever will. But it has been proved that there is no God, no heaven. Why does not Mayor Roche send his chil-dren to work? Why does not he go to work himself if he can secure heaven by so do-ing? Religion does not elevate the mind; waking up to the necessity of a higher ing? Religion does not elevate the mind it stupefies it. We will have nothing to do It stupenes it. We will have nothing to do with religion. In our Sunday schools we will teach history and natural sciences. The rich teach the children of the poor the his-law of kings, but we will teach them the history of the people. Poems about free-dom are tangth in Germany, yet the citizens cannot approach their Emperor without being watched by splies." its work has been principally to reform the husian conscience. Whatever may What the private and parochial school of this class will be can be bet-ter imagined than described. But the anarchists can hardly be blamed for speaking disrespectfully of religion, when the religionists themselves have not a charitable of kind word for each other. Here is what one preacher said of its streets, it is an undeniable fact-that it is possible to travel through the most crowded parts of London and its envirous with much greater facility. yesterday in his sermon will soon adorn the Jardin d' Elisees Statues are of no great utility, one i sprouted in the Chamber of Deputies during a whirlwind of debate on the oth instant have all been nipped in the bud. The twelve persons appointed as seconds have been flitting about between M. M. Paul de Cassagnac Bouvier, Cales and Gerville and have come to the conclusion that nothing personal was intended by the epithets

Of all the pleasing events of the present year, none is more so than the is also receiving honor for his faithful service. Some factions of the Parliament may be hostile but the mass of the people are loyal to their king. They remember how he rode through the trenches at Duppel when gallast little Denmark in 1864 stood poldly up uniform of the Prussian words:

ubilee accorded to good old King that then flew around so lively.

"The Roman Catholic Church," said Mr Nickerson, "has always been an enemy to the institutions of this free Republic. I speed and safety than can be obtained has never been in harmony with its spirit of progress, it does not believe in liberty, and does nothing to aid the country. It is in Paris under its present service. The increasing number of English and increasing number of English and American visitors to Paris, and the enormous influx of strangers. expected at the approaching Univer-sal Exploition of 1889, make this a suitable time for introducing this kind of conveyance. The use of rubber tires on these carriages will add much to the quiet of thecity and the comfort of passengers.

The property of the Catholic Church in Chicago is worth millions; what a splendid field it would be for an Ed-mund's-Tucker confiscation law; and amid the streets and squares of the what a French capital. The statue of Balzad free to admit; still they cannot do any The Catholics laugh at the Rev. Mr harm and if any Frenchmen nave a right to take up a certain number of square feet on the public grounds with their monuments certainly the great poet is one of their number. But what about Musset and Victor Hugo, when will they among in marble? inderson, and say they will own his ittle church in a few years more. Even among the .preachers them-selves education and religion are looked upon as mere will they appear in marble? The three embryonic duels that THEMES FOR LAUGHTER.

HARVEST FOR LAWYERS, JUDGES AND FOLITICIANS.

No better way of illustrating what I here assert can be here adopted than by giving a clipping from the published sermon of one preacher who criticizes another of the different denominations. Here it is:

"In the Tribunc article I have mentioned the number of men and of women attend-ing the different churches was given. In many of them the men were scarce, and in some there were not many of either. [Laughter.] The answer of the Rev. Mr. Bristol to the question: 'Do you beheve in Hell?' I read with particular interest. 'If by Hell you mean Ingersoll's lake of fire,' said Brother Bristol. 'I do not believe in it "In the Tribune article I have mentione Christian at Copenhagen, It is a cu-rious fact that he and his son. King George of Greece, celebrate the twentysaid Brother Bristol, 'I do not believe in it, fifth anniversay of their accession in the same year. Two more conscientious monarchs never did honor to reyalty. Estrup, the prime minister of Den-mark (a small Bismarck in his way), and it is not a doctrine of the church. Ing-ersoil is simply making fools of people when he makes them believe that this is the Hell that is preached. I never heard such a Hell preached." "I wonder," said Dr. Thomas, "if Brother Bristol ever read anywhere about such a hell? [Laughter.] John Wesley is an an-thority in the Methodist Church. He, in dethority in the Methodist Church. He, in de-scribing hell, imagined a finger held in the fame of a candle for years, then the hand thrust into the fame, then the arm, and then the entire bedy plunged for all eternity into flames of fire. 'People will ask,' says Wesley, 'if this is material fire. There is no other fire,' he answers. 'To say that fire not plut is to cast the lis on the teach to face such fearful edds. On Monday the 19th of November the Empress Frederick of Germany, Crown. no other nice, he answers. To say that fire is not material is to cast the lie on the teach ings of Christ? "John Wesley, my friends, is an authority in the Methodist Church. He teaches eter-

Princess of England, once more set toot ou her native land to make a long hal torment in hell fire, and what he teacher he Methodist Church accepts as truth. And visit after the melanonaly vicissitude yet Brother Bristol says that Ingersoll is making fools of people by saying that thus is the orthodox hell-this hell that Wesley which have darkened her life and made her widowed and sorrow-stricken. The period of her prolonged anxiety described 100 years ago. It would seem that one has need of an almanac to dis-tinguish between orthodoxy and heresy. [Laughter.] Because the religion of the past has come down to us heavy and dark, does dates from the time when the late Emperor Frederick, then Crown Prince of Germany, rode in the jubilee pro-cession of London wearing the white schools because religion is an institution of the rich to suppress the poor. The rich are not religious. There is Frederick the Great openly and publicly insulting God. There is no Prince nor Emperor who believes in God. The rich tell the people, 'You go to modern civilization and the conservatism of law, order and religion. Yes, men of Utah, now is your time, come closer together, live your religion, educate your children, leave no corner n your household or in your heart for he anarchist and alleged Christian. spurn the booms of the shark adventurer, the enterprise of the financial lupatic, the ethics of the rum-seller, and the religion of the mercenary hypocrite who calls himself Christian missionary. By doing this, in the page of history yours will be the most

ALL WOOL! Childs', Misses' and Ladics Hese. Men's and Boys' Socks, Mittens, Leggings, Shawls, Yarns, Blankets, Flannels, Etc. JOHN C. CUTLER & BRO.,

Agents Provo Woolen Mills.

No. 36 EAST TEMPLE ST.

SALVATION ARMY WEDDING t the Grand Opera House, Wednesay, December 12th, at 8 o'clock p. m.

Salvation ceremony conducted by Brigadier Fielding, and the legal mar-riage rite by Rev. Libby, of the M. K. Church. The contracting parties are the hallelujah lawyer and the saved school ma'am. Everybody come and see for yourself. Admission to first floor 25 cents; Gallery 10 cents; re-served seats 50 cents; to be obtained at the box window of Opera House, Wednesday, from 9 to 12 o'clock.

> AUCTION SALE OF CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

1 will sell at auction Saturday afteroon and evening, at 2nd door south of post office, about 250 Etchings, Steel Engravings, Photogravines and Oil Paintings, all beautifully framed and nothing finer for Holiday Presents. Pictures now on exhibition. J. L. DURGIN, Auctioneer. d3

MANY persons contract severe colds during the early winter months and permit them to hang on persistently all winter; weakening the lungs and paving the way for catarrb, chronic bronchitis, or consumption. No one can afford to neglect a cold. A single pottle of Chamberlain's Cough Rémedy will cure the most severe cold, and costs but 50 cts.

Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

A good Farm in Summit County for sale, or exchange for city property or land in the 5 or 10 acre plat. Apply to W. W. RITER, Apply to W. W. Hast Street. PLENTY OF WERER COAL

I E., FIRST SOUL

Red Canon Coal.

For Grates, Furnaces and Base Burner FRANK FOOTE & CO'S. Stoves at Office, 133 S. Main. Telephone 175. Orders taken at Sears & Liddell's, All the DELICACIES of the SEASON!

FIRE!

WHY WOMENIFADE.

to Angostura Bitters as the most efficacious stimulant to excite the ap-petite and to keep the digestive organ in good order. Ask for the genuine article, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B.

Siegert & Sons, and beware of imita-

The 'Exposition Universalie de 1 art to Augostura Bitters as the most ef cacious stimulant to excite the ap-petite and to keep the digestive organs in good order. Ask for the genuine article, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons, and beware of imi-tations.

HOW DOCTORS CONQUER

Doctor Walter K. Hammond says

DEATH.

After a long experience I have com to the conclusion that two-thirds of all the deaths from coughs, pacumonia

Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

DANCING!

CATABRE CURED.

prepared to arrest it as soon as the first symptoms appear. True croup never comes without warning; a day or two e enheten

Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

under a positive guarantee by

FOX & NYMONN.

could he vote there if not registered there? The only registering places and the only polling places provided for are to be in the respective wards, and being registered there is being registered generally, the balloting for city officers and for ward officers taking place in the same operation. The only logical deduction from this is that the officer acts as a partisan in the pretended fulfillment of a public duty in which he is it, and the phenomena connected with supposed to recognize no parties and to exercise only perfunctory jurisdic-

Of course all this is to "test" the ordinance; of course the object in testing it is not to amend or improve it be resorted to when the disease apanywhere, but to kill it; and of course, pears; and that the specific cause of it thirdly, the design in killing it is not are germs in the form of living mipro bono publico, but the consummation crobes, capable of crawling, flying, or and maintenance of Liberal interests moving upon currents of air, from to the exclusion of other consideraplace to place, or of being conveyed in tions. The fact that Liberal attorneys the clothing of human beings, or on the the appear for the petitioner, that Liberal bodies of domest ic animals. attorneys were engaged for the respon-Another theory is that yellow fever dent, that the whole thing was engenis neither infectious nor contagious, dered in the Liberal comp and was to be engineered and concluded by Liberals, is a pretty fair illustration of itself that the power and pelf resulting from the gaining of the offices is what is simed at, and an admission that under the law as it has been all along and as it is now, they were precautions, or quarantine. They and are unable to win; and here another ridiculous feature of their conduct appears: They were dissatisfied with the old law because, as they Claimed, it gave them no show to win. and want the new law done away with One high French medical authority because it permits them to win about holds that thousads of people have in proportion to their strength, and yellow fever, in districts where it prethe old law to be restored! That vails, in such a mild form that they do would of course be the result of sucnot realize the fact, and that the discess in their present movement; and ease may be the mildest or most terriit does seem as though nothing short ble of fevers. After reading what the. of abject and complete surrender on savants have to say respecting the the part of their political opponents cause and true nature of this disease. would be satisfactory at all. fais, of one is led to half believe that none of course, is not to be thought of. As a them understand the anbject they are minority party they are provided for treating. under under the new ordinance, something which majorities in politics rarely concede, and the proper plan, one would think, store o much gained would be to take 1, and thereafter do as parties elsewhere do-increase TROSE who have taken an interest in their voting strength by conversions. the Whitechapel (London) murders, from the other side, by natural growth which have of late startled the civiland by immigration, and in tais man- ized world, on account of the atrocity ing extract which lately appeared in the official journal Nord Allgements ner become themselves the majority. and mystery connected with them, will

The Democrats of Vermont have also be interested in reading the following, from the Palt Mall Hazette practically had no hand in the forms tion of the laws by which they were "Last evening a man named George

Hutchinson,a groom who is now work-ing as a laborar, made the following statement to a reporter, and his de scription of the murderer agrees in every particular with that already fur-nished by the police and published yes-terday morning. and are controlled for more than a generation, if they ever did; yet they maintain their organization, put forth their nominations for each election and vote for them as cheerfully as terday morning though they expected to win, know-

'On Tuesday I had been to Romford, ing full well that they will not until Providence intervenes. And yet they accept the inevitable gracefully; there is no hatching up of legal schemes * by means of which Street L massed a man standing at stock. The French lines are in goed ing full well that they will not until ent distribution of power in Europe as definite. The eminent Belgian be-lieves that an anti-Russian and anti-French alliance is forming woich will probably involve England as well as italy. He says: "It will not be a mere repetition of the tame Crimean strug-gle, but a war to the knife with im-mense spoils for the victor. Germany will attempt to restore Finland to Sweden and thereby reward her fer her alliance, but will take Russia's Baltic provinces, where the German language alteady prevails and annex them to Three hundred thousand herself.

Mr. Maistrom can proceed with the Russian soldiers are now necessary to execution of his terrorizing threat. hold Poland in subjection. This vast slice of Muscovite territory will be cut away and formed into a separate state, under Austrian control, and serve as a back beyond the banks of the Dhieper. NOTWITHSTANDING that physicians and scientists have had abundant op-portunity to observe the symptoms and effects of yellow fever, the circum. of ever reaching Constantinople. Concerning the Balkan peninsuls, Austria really aims at nothing less stances and conditions which attend it, its real nature and cause seem shrouded in mystery. One class of than the conquest of the entire coun-try for herself. Her aim is to dominate the whole, from the shores of the Adri scientists claim that it is highly infections, and that rigid quarantine, rial conquest, but, by the triumph of combined with thorough disinfection her political and industrial influence, and strict sanitary discipline, should already increased by the new eastern railways which run through Pesth, and sylencouraging the home rule of the Balkan States, as opposed to Russia's greedy policy." That Belgium is preparing herself

YELLOW FEVER.

That Beigum is preparing herself for a conflict in accordance with this outline is evident from the corrange with which, when the shades of death were hangoutline is evident from the correspondence that has been going on during the past lew months in the pages of the Nouvelle Revue as well as from the kind of buffer state between strengthened Austria and Russia then thrown extent and character of her fortifica-tions. These forts-if such they may be called-resemble ant-hills and are is neither intectious nor contagious, but indigenous to certain localities, and dependent upon certain conditions of temperature and moisture, and upon the duration of those conditions. Some of the scientific gentlemen whe hold this theory, place but little con-fidence in the effectiveness of sanitary precautions, or quarantine. They and moving sentences? It is the Em-press Frederick herself, in a preface to a small volume entitled "Frederick surmounted by a cap of artificial stone reason that the failure of the disease pis ed fiat upon the ground and at a to appear for a number of seasons is short distance scarcely visible. Nea due to the absence of material on which to feed, which absence is in turn due to prevailing climatic conditions. One high French medical authority kept out of sight except at the moment of firing. At suitable places there are armored points of observation from which electric light may flash if necessary to watch the movements of the enemy. Below the surface the earth is hollowed out in the form of a huge castern with armored sides, which is divided up into sections, one part for provisions, one for ammunition and another for machinery, which includes the dynamos for the lighting of the whole fort, and engines for the mo of the turrets. Communication with the gallery and this in turn is fortified by armored doors and mitrallieuses. On-A PICTURE OF 'JACK THE ly thirty or forty men are necessary RIPPER." for the working of each fort. The cost of each fort is nearly a million dol-

That Germany does not feel very confident, concerning her Italian al-liance may be learned from the follow-Zeitung: "The good relations which exist between Germany and Italy has been a theme of much congratulation, but in details little has been actually known. The late visit of the Emperor to Italy was the occasion of an inter-change of opinions, as well as an op-portunity of observing the capabilities of the Italian army. The utter con-fusion in the working of Italian railways caused by the transport of thirty thousand men for the military review shows their total inefficiency in case of war, A sudden mobilization of the army would paralyze the en-Curass'ers. rove that there is nothing in religion the stateliest and most soldierly figure of all that pageant. The whisper of but for women and children. Let reason drive out the error and the truth will ap the sad fate destined for him was then pear.

just beginning to be heard; its shadow All this may seem bad enough for religion, but there is worse to come. We seemed already to fall upon the kindly, friendly face; and from that day until the tragic 15th of June of the passing may blame the anarchist for his strictures on Christianity, but we certainly cannot commend the Christianity which year, the Imperial lady never again had one hour of undimmed joy or assured hope. Her great-hearted bas for its corner-stone cardplaying Yes, cardplaying; that is the latest de-velopment in church society. Church husband survived indeed long enough to succeed to the German throne, and thereby to link the eldest daughter socials and church entertainments now hinge on the of England with the imperial purple

JACK OF KNAVES, of the Hohenzollerens. But his reign who is generally the pastor himself. In endured only three months-months of yesterday's sermen Bishop Fallows spoke feelingly on the subject. As a religious and church recreation he concruel suffering and saint-like endurance for him, and months of such trials of mind and soul for his emdemned it. Of it morally and physi-cally he said : press as few, very few among, her sex are called upon to endure. Let us read carefully the following

"While approving of all virtuous forms of recreation which leave the body and mind refreshed, I can find nothing to ap-prove in progressive cuchrer. It is played in warm, close rooms. The players keep a sedentary position. The muscles are under tension from the mental excitement. When "Those in humbler walks of life, who are denied many of the blessings enjoyed by the rich, are often apt to imagine that their burden is the hardest to bear, that struggles and pain are only for them. These, per-haps will think differently when it is over every player feels tired. The wear and tear are much greater than in other forms of social cards, because of the crowd and intense rivalries. I am told that they read of sufferings borne with such patience, and of duty so cheerthings are even carried so far that ladie things are even carried meas. lose their temper sometimes. The game is now impossible without prizes. This heips to foster the chief vice of the age and to give many young mea fully performed while sickness was undermining the strength of the strong man. They will be able to enter in some degree into the depths of regret their first taste for gambling." and disappointment felt by a ruler These clippings taken from the serwho loved his people, at being unable to carry out the long-cherished plans for their welfare that he had so much moss and discourses of the most prominent religionists of the day, will suffice to show that both education and suffice to show that both education and religion are in a very poor condition. Of course these people call themselves Christians, and fancy that the jeal-ousles, rivalries, squabbles and bicker-ings which they induige in are a part of Christianity. At stated times they all unite in a fine outburst of indignaing over his path, he strode stead-fastly along to the end; broken hearts are to be found in palaces as well as in cottages; and the boad of brotherhood seems strongest where tion at Mormonism, and then felicilove and pity unite all hearts and reverence for what is good lifts up our tate themselves on the good work they without education and without re-Who is it that has proned these true ligion what can the -Crown Prince and Emperor," which has appeared most fitly at the moment when she herself comes back to sojourn with her mother's people. J. H. WARD.

from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, and vainly trying every known remedy, "It is the Pharisees who are doing this. It is men of prominence and respectability who raise large sums of money, knowing the use they will be put to, men who deal openly in corruption one day, and go to church the next. "It is these men who bring disgrace upon the State. You may convet a hundred-yes even a thousand-obscure voters for bribery, but the effect upon a community would be as nothing compared to that which would follow the conviction of one promi-nent man." and vainly trying every known remedy, at last found, a receipe which com-pletely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dread-ful disease sending a self addressed stamped envelope to Prof. J. A. Law-rence, 88 Warren Street, New York City, will receive the receipe free of charge charge. nent man."

In the State of Indiana these are at election times 25,600 votes for sale in open market. It is in reference to this from the country promptly responded to. C. B. DURST. to. that ; Judge Gresham made the above remarks. Is it any wonder the order of "White Caps" flourishes in that The dry, cold weather of the early winter months is productive of a great

State? Is it any wonder that w. bave avarchists and rioters in Illinois? In national politics the situation is not at all reassuring. Here is what of the Southern question :

SENATOR INGALLS SAYS

of the Southern question : "The race question at the South remains, as it has always been, and for the next gen-eration at least it will continue to be, the most important and formidable in our poin-tics. The change from slavery to freedom, from subordination to legal equality, has complicated instead of simplified the situa-tion; so far from solving the fatal problem, it has added new elements of difficulty and danger. Unless history is a false teacher it is not possible for two distinct races not homogeneous, that is, which cannot assimi-late by intermarriage and the minging of blood, to exist upon terms of piractical po-litical equality under the same government. One or the other must ge to the walt. The time will come when the negroes, aware of their equality under the law, and then there will be a crisis which may become a cataa-trophe."

trophe."

BOCTORS' BILLS.

Then there is the split in the G. A. R. and the split in the Knights of Labor. The news from Europe is such that

CHEESE,

EXTRA FINE TEAS AND COFFEES

DUY NORTHERN-GROWN SEEDS. WE ARE THE PRODUCERS OF D seed sold by us. They are the best in the world. They are the best for all limates. They are earlier, more hardy, vigorous and productive than those grown in lower altitudes. We keep a large stock of fresh seed and believe that we can give you satisfaction. We unhesitatingly affirm that no better seeds than those we deal in CAN BE PROCURED. Bestowing such assiduous care upon them, we feel justified in saying our seeds are UNSURPASSED in purity and quality. We do not pretend to be the "only house in the west selling NORTHERN-GROWN SEEDS," but we do claim that we have the very best seed to be had anywhere; and that has not been all over the country, for several years, in commission boxes, as we do not send out any commission boxes at all, as so many do. Ask your HOME MERCHANT for our Northern-grown Seeds OUR PRICES are as low as reliable stocks can be sold at and afford a fair re-OUR PRICES are as low as reliable stocks can be sold at and amord a fair re-numeration for the expense and labor attending the proper conduct of the see business. We ask a trial order from all who have not used our seeds. Write for circulars. Address all correspondence to the UTAH NURSERY CO., General Western Agency, Salt Lake City, Utah. NORTHRUP BRASLAN & GOODWINS CO., Minespolis Minn

"Seal Pluah Modjeska Wraps, at $16 00 and $18 00; reduced from $20,00 and $24 00. deal of croup among children. Mothers should be on the look out for it and be

A Line of 52 inch BROADCLOTHS in all the leading colors, at 75c; worth $1.25

This season's Pattern Dresses, reduced to actual cost.

28 inch All Wool Tricot, in Myrtle and Black only, at 35c.

38 inch Tricot, assorted colors, superior quality, at 40c.

comes without warning; a day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse, and that symptom is soon fol-lowed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlan's Cough Remedy is given as soon as this hoarseness of cough appears, all danger and anxiety may be avoided; it has never failed, even in the most severe cases. There is no danger in giving the remedy, for it con-tains no injurious substance. 10 pieces best makes French All Wool Dress Goods (this season's importation) consisting of stripes, checks, plaids, and in the best solid colors, at 55c per yard; reduced from Toc, 53c and $1.00.

The accumulation of the last 60 days'

FLANNEL REMNANTS

have been placed on sale; they are marked down 25 per cent below the regular prices.

The fountain of perpetual youth was one of the dreams of antiquity. It has been well-nigh realized in Ayer's Sar saparilla, which purifies the blood, gives vitality to all the bodily func-tions, and thus restores to age much of the vigor and freshness of youth. SILK and LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS 2005-0210

20 and 22 inch Chinese Silk Hemetitched Handkerchiefs, at 25c and 40c. 23 inch very fine quality Japanese Hemstitched Handkerchiefs, at 50c, 75c tention of the leaders and directors of opinion in Chicago. The Illinois legislature passed a COMPULSORY EDUCATION LAW some five or six years ago. This reouter world is made by a subterranean quired all children between 8 and 14 vears of age to attend school, at least during 12 weeks in every year. The law was not absolute inasmuch as exion could be granted a child by Europe, Nov. 26, 1888.

CHICAGO LETTER.

euce.-The Closing Paragraph a

At the present time the question of education is largely engrossing the at-Gem for Latter day Saints.

a school director or board of education under certain conditions.

Lion under certain conditions. In Chicago this law is in a worse condition than that of innocuous de-suetude; it is literally as dead as a door nail. No attempt has ever been made to enforce it either in Chicago or anywhere else in Illinois. In July last (1888) the of Chicago showed 142,294 children be tween 6 and 16 years of age in the city. The public school enrolment is 81,000, the private and parechial schools 47, 279, leaving a balance of 18,000 child-ren entirely unaccounted for in an educational sense.

SCHOOL CENSUS

POLITICAL CONDITION of a country be? Judge Gresham, gentleman who was a candidate for the presidency last July, answers my question. He says: "There ought to be a reform in our state clectoral system, and unless the state takes steps to stop the corruption at the polls a condition of affairs will be produced to which the rebellion will not be a circum-"It is the Pharisees who are doing this unius Excels Himself -- Everybody Should Read this Correspond-

