

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Notice.—The 5th Quorum of Elders will meet Monday evening at 7 o'clock in the vestry, at 13th Ward Assembly Rooms. A punctual attendance is desired.

Congratulatory.—From the Ogden Junction of yesterday we learn that Mrs. Josephine West, the amiable wife of Mr. Jos. A. West, business manager of the Junction, gave birth to a fine boy on Thursday last. Both mother and child, we are glad to state, are doing well.

Seventies' Conference.—There was a conference of the Seventies at the Sugar House, Farmer's Mill, East Mill Creek, and Big Wooded Wards, to which many of the Saints who desire to attend are invited at the Mill Creek Meeting, at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., Sunday, August 15, 1880.

Dead.—We regret to state that Mrs. Josephine West, one of the legs of her head, at Ogden, on the morning of Wednesday, July 29th, died yesterday morning at 6 o'clock. The physician who was called to attend the case, Dr. J. H. Smith, expressed his fears that the shock to the unfortunate gentleman's nervous system might be fatal.

City Creek Pollution Case.—A case was recorded in the court yesterday, in which a man being fined $25 for allowing some sheep in his charge to pollute the waters of City Creek. To complete the business the case of said sheep, Mr. Wrathall was arrested yesterday and gave bonds in the sum of $100 for his appearance for trial on the 17th inst. Mr. Wrathall says he instructed his men to keep the sheep away from the creek, but to all appearances he had failed to obey orders.

Fire at Marriott's.—The Ogden Junction says: "Last Tuesday, Mr. Peter Raty, of the above named place, had his stable and stackyard, together with two sets of harness, a good stock of grain, with quite a number of carpenter tools, two tons of hay and considerable other property destroyed by fire. His horses were cut loose and got out just in time to save him, one having his hair singed in several places. Mr. Raty valued the property destroyed at about $200. The fire was caused by a little boy of the kind in that place within one week.

Priesthood Meeting.—The usual monthly Priesthood meeting of this Stake of Zion was held in the Assembly Hall this forenoon, Pres. Angus M. Cannon presiding. The usual routine of business having been disposed of, the meeting was addressed by Apostle Brigham Young, Pres. Cannon, Bishops Thomas Taylor and Crane, and Elder Thomas Dixon, all of the speeches more or less having a reference to the absolute necessity of unity amongst the Saints. The benediction was then pronounced and the meeting adjourned.

Serious Accident in Ogden.—Yesterday afternoon, Mr. Warren Elmer met with a serious accident. He had been engaged in assisting to raise a building in the rear of W. H. Wright & Son's store, Main Street, the property of Mr. W. G. Child, and was carrying a board, when he slipped down a cellar in the rear of said building. The cellar had been covered by a board, but the board being weak, let the gentleman in. He did not fall to the cellar, his fall being stopped by a projecting board. He was taken up, when it was found that he had a nail driven into his side, he had sustained a severe fracture of a rib on the left side of his body, besides receiving severe bruises. Dr. H. J. Powers dressed Mr. Elmer's wounds.—Ogden Junction.

Found Dead in Bed.—An old man named James Talbot, living in a lodging-house opposite the Continental Hotel, was found dead in bed yesterday morning. He was observed to retire about 10 o'clock, on Thursday evening, and as he did not get up in the morning as usual, his room door was opened, when he was found lying dead as stated. An inquest was held over the body yesterday afternoon, when a verdict to the effect that death had resulted from causes unknown to the jury was returned. The deceased was about 60 years of age, and at one time was very well off. He had managed, however, to use up his money. The body did not show any evidence of a struggle, and it is probable that deceased died of heart disease.

Wasatch Stake Conference.—We are in receipt of a lengthy account of the proceedings of the late quarterly conference of the Wasatch Stake of Zion, held in Heber City on Saturday and Sunday, July 31st, and August 1st. It is written on both sides of the paper, is very voluminous and has no signature, therefore we do not present it in full. From the report we gather that the conference was presided over by Pres. Abram Hatch, and that there were present Joseph F. Smith and Albert Carrington of the Twelve Apostles; John Smith, Patriarch, and Joseph E. Taylor, of the Presidency of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion, together with a large number of the local priesthood. Two meetings were held each day. Large congregations attended each meeting. The speakers on Saturday morning were President Hatch and Apostle A. Carrington; and in the afternoon Elder Jos. E. Taylor and Apostle Jos. F. Smith. On Sunday morning, after the reading of the various reports, etc., the conference was addressed by Apostle Carrington, the afternoon being occupied by Elder Joseph E. Taylor, Patriarch John Smith and Apostle Joseph F. Smith. The teachings throughout were of a very interesting and practical character, and altogether the conference seemed to be highly enjoyed by all.

How Ben Tasker Escaped.—From the Beaver Watchman, just received, we are put in possession of further particulars as to the escape of the notorious Ben Tasker:

"From the testimony of the guards," says the Watchman, "it appears that the cell, being full of other prisoners, who were awaiting trial, it became necessary to lodge Ben in the Sheriff's office in the front part of the jail, two guards being placed in the corridor and another two patrolled outside. Owing to the intense heat and bad ventilation of the room, the door leading from the apartment into the passage was left open. The two men in the interior having been on duty all day, fell asleep, and Tasker, taking advantage of this fact, stepped over them and leisurely proceeded to manipulate the lock on the south or back door of the jail, and succeeded as he did, in removing some of the screws from the lock, he made good his escape, getting away some time about daybreak. Deputy Marshal Pratt was at once informed, and immediately organized a party to scour the surrounding country in search of the runaway convict, but as yet no clue has been obtained as to his whereabouts.

Marshal Pratt states that on the night previous he attempted to place irons upon Ben, but finding that the shackles were not large enough for the prisoner's ankles, and it being Sunday, he was compelled to postpone shackling him until morning. Mr. Pratt says that he visited the jail at midnight and found everything secure, and thinking that perhaps some assistance might be rendered Ben from the outside, he instructed his men to watch particularly what was apparently the only vulnerable point in the building, the window on the north end of the jail, looking into Ben's cell.

Mr. Wm. Thompson, who was one of these outside guards, says that just before daybreak he walked around the building and tried the back door, and finding it locked he returned to his post at the front end. At an interval of about 15 minutes he made another circuit, tried the door again and found it open and the murderer gone.

As soon as the court opened for business on the morning of the escape, Judge Boreman issued a warrant for the arrest of the colored mistress, who for the last four weeks has occupied a house in close proximity to the prison; charging her with being accessory to the breaking of the jail and also of the escape. Attorney Christian immediately sued out a writ of habeas corpus, and at the hearing, the prosecution placed a fellow known as "One armed Red," on the witness stand, who testified to facts which, if true, prove beyond a doubt that not only was the crime premeditated by Tasker, but that with the exception of the unfortunate Englishing all the people at the ranch knew of the proposed murder several days before it occurred.

Those Mischievous Boys.—An affair which threatened at one time to be of a serious nature occurred last night. A resident of the 11th Ward coming home from the field about 7.30 last evening, with a full load of hay, and when within a block and a half of his dwelling, noticed a group of boys at the corner of the street, saw them make for the hay, and took up further notice. After passing about 50 rods, his attention was aroused by a cry of fire by a child, and on turning, saw smoke proceeding from the rear of the load. He at once jumped down, unhitched his mules and proceeded to pitch off the hay. By this time the alarm spread, neighbors soon gathered, and by their help, with jails of water, the fire was soon mastered, but not before nearly half the load was either burned or rendered useless. Still efforts would have been of no avail to save the hay and running gear, had not a thoughtful neighbor been provided with two barrels of water, as there was but a very small stream in the creek. It was afterwards discovered that these lads, on bonfire intent, had provided themselves with matches, and considered this traveling load of hay presented a good opportunity to them. Boys who seek such objects for a bonfire ought to be taught a lesson from the law.

A Chinaman's Row.—At the City Hall, this morning, Sang Wan, a Chinaman, appeared before Justice Pyper, charged with assaulting and beating a boy. The latter, it appears, had said something which had provoked the heathen, whereupon he turned upon the boy and gave him a sound "licking." While the beating was going on, Nels Boukoffsky put in an appearance, and in his endeavors to save the boy struck "John." Will Greng also had a hand in the row, and it is said used abusive language to Wan. After hearing the pro and con of the case, Justice Pyper fined the Chinaman $5, and discharged both Boukoffsky and Greng, who had been arrested for having been concerned in the fracas.

Alleged Assault and Battery.—At the City Hall this afternoon, Justice Pyper's attention was occupied in hearing the particulars of an alleged assault and battery on the person of a Mrs. Lee by three or four members of Mr. Charles Bue's family, residing in the 15th Ward. The case lasted a considerable time. Finally Justice Pyper dismissed it, as there was not sufficient evidence before him to convict any of the accused.
