

THE INSIDE OF SAN FRANCISCO

The Few Days' Mayor of Earthquake Town is Modest and Will Not Negotiate Loan.

SCHMITZ EATS REGULARLY.

Convicted Mayor Thinks He is Napoleon of Politics and Will Be Welcomed from Prison Edna.

Special Correspondence.

San Francisco, July 10.—Our new mayor, Mayor Charles Boxton, D. S., is a modest fellow and so far has resisted the temptation of seizing the key of the treasury or getting a personal loan on the twelve million of unsold city bonds. The worthy dentist feels that his honors are transitory and he is content with the knowledge that when he dies the newspapers will say that he was once mayor of San Francisco. He has fought one successful campaign in the Philippines against the enemies of his country and he has won in four political campaigns against the enemies of graft. Now the height of his ambition has been reached and he is the foremost citizen of his native city, even if it is only for a few days.

SCHMITZ EATS REGULARLY.

Eugene Schmitz is eating regularly at the county jail and his appetite does not seem a whit disturbed by the five years' sentence in San Quentin imposed by Judge Dunne. He is confident that the applause in the courtroom following the judgment of the court was made by hired claqueurs carrying out the orders of political conspirators who wish to depose him from his high office and alienate from him the affections of the plain people. He has no faith in the jury. He is planning for a triumphant re-election in November and has taken to fiddling again in order to keep his right hand in trim for glad-handing the flogging masses.

THINKS HE IS A NAPOLEON.

Many of his old time henchmen are falling away from the convicted leader. A well known labor politician said today: "Schmitz cannot realize his position. He thinks he is a sort of Napoleon. He believes that he could return from the jail, which he perhaps considers a sort of Elba, and regain his former following. He believes that he has a personal magnetism sufficient to make men forget his crimes and receive him once more. He does not understand that his race is run."

SITUATION INTERESTING.

The proposed plan of a convention of 30 to elect a new mayor who will in turn give the city a new administration is being warmly discussed and all the old time political prophets are completely at sea. One thing is certain that the 15 delegates from the labor organizations are not going to agree with the 15 delegates from the commercial bodies on the proper man to select unless public sentiment is strong enough to break down a deadlock. It is certain that the labor leaders will put a complete ticket in the field this fall and it will present the unique spectacle of having on it business men as well as representatives of organized labor. As for Schmitz heading it, Supervisor Twelme, who was appointed by him, says: "It is absurd, simply absurd."

FILIPINOS WITH US.

It is comforting to know that the Filipinos are with us as against the Japs and now that the state militia are mauling the forts around the Golden Gate, we feel perfectly safe in defying Nippon and refusing her sons licenses to conduct employment agencies. Police Commissioner Hagerty still believes that there would be "bloodshed and carnage" if the Japs were allowed the same privileges as other residents but the supervisors evidently take a more humane view of the matter and have cut down the assessments of two Japanese banks

STRENUOUS TELEGRAPHERS' PRESIDENT.

S. J. Small, president of the Commercial Telegraphers' union, is one of the most aggressive labor leaders in the country and a man of a high order of ability. In the present crisis between the operators and the Postal and Western Union companies he has handled the operators' affairs with intelligence, yet many enemies of the union have belittled him and rumors have been current that he is to be deposed from his office.

which Assessor Dodge had raised too highly.

WHAT WILL "SOCIETY" DO?

Nick and Alice Longworth, who will be with us shortly, are evidently getting wiser as they get older. When they were here before society grabbed them and so completely monopolized them that they had no time to themselves, but this time they propose to fool society. As soon as it was known that the Longworths were coming the social leaders prepared for a battle royal and invitations to the reception function would settle the social status of the recipients. Now the president's daughter has sidestepped all that by peremptorily declining all social attentions so there will be no reception and no establishing of the social status.

FUNERAL RATES RAISED.

It costs more to die in this city than it did formerly. That is it costs more if the funeral ceremonies are carried out with proper regard for the deceased. For some time past the Musicians union have been deploring the fact that it was losing some of its prestige because of the disgrace which has fallen on Eugene Schmitz, one of its distinguished and prominent members, and because of this there was a perceptible diminution of revenue. How to raise more money immediately became the burning question of the hour. The scheduled rates for nearly every event were already up to the top notch and more than the traffic would really bear so in a happy moment of financial ecstasy it was decided to raise the rates for funerals.

MAY LEAVE FOR EUROPE.

Andrew Wilson, elected last fall to the important office of state railroad commissioner, is feeling rather bitter these summer days over what he regards as the fickleness of the dear public. He does not believe that it pays to be frank and tell all you know. Because he happened to be a supervisor for a few months while the public service corporations were passing around various and sundry monies in the nature of gifts and he accepted them as such, and afterwards told the grand jury all about it, he is on the brink of losing his present good position. When running for office last fall, he put on his election cards, "On my public record I solicit your support," and he got it, by a big majority. Now he has been asked to go to Europe and stay there long enough so that his office can be forfeited without an additional disgrace of depriving him of his liberty.

She Was Opposed to Slang.

While teaching the district school at Carolina, R. I., Miss Eva Matteson, now with a Providence school, received the following interesting instructions from a certain fond mother. The lady was more remarkable for her egotism than for the old school gentility she professed to have. She had moved into the village from the city and was most solicitous that the well bred manners of her little daughter Muriel, should not be contaminated by contact with the country

PROSPECTIVE VANDERBILT MARRIAGE.

Society which thinks of itself in capital letters and as the only society in the land because it has places in New York, "cottages" at Newport, is sitting up and taking notice over the rumor that Miss Gladys, youngest daughter of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt and heiress to many millions, is to bestow her hand in marriage on Robert Walton Goelet, of the family of bankers and land holders in New York. The announcement of the engagement has not been made, but neither has denial of its truth.

"Always see that she has your best attention," said she, "and be very careful that she associates with no little child that uses slang, which Muriel has never heard. Above all, do not have her sit near that Williams boy. I knew his father in Providence and (confidentially) they're a bun lot, the whole push of them."—Boston Herald.
