T. B. Barry was in the hall when the session opened and endeavored to speak, but Powderly told him that having been expelled he must go. He again tried to speak in explanation but was compelled to leave the hall. The delegates express the belief that having got the warring elements on naving got the warring elements on the outside thus early in the session it will be plain sailing.

The case of T. B. Barry is one of appeal from the au hority of Powderly and it will be considered in due time by the proper committee. Barry claims to be entitled to a seat and expresses confidence in his ultimate ancess. It confidence in his ultimate success. It is said by some of those close to him that Barry contemplates the organiza-tion of a new order if he falls this time, and his possible action is watched with interest. The other protest cases, not herein mentioned, brought up much discussion. The delegates have been seated in each case.

The atternoon session today was devoted to the completion of the organization of this general assembly by the appointment of committees. These appointment of committees. These are the legislative committee, the committees on law, finance and state of the order and secret work, on appeals and grievances, and a press committee. There was no discussion over these appointments, but some debate was aroused when the legislative committee was under consideration, it being thought by some not advisable to form such a committee at this time. It is the duty of this committee to consider the legislation which it is desired to have brought before congress, and it is intended for it to act in an advisory capacity with the regular standing committee at Washington.

A telegram was received from the chief officer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen expressing good will and the hope for success and promising co-operation with it.
