Local and Other Matters.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, JUNE 17.

From Logan.—Apostle Moses Thatcher came down from Logan last evening. We learn from him of the death of Brother K. Thorgesen, telegraph operator at that place, who has been suffering from dyspepsia for many years, and succumbed to the destroyer, yesterday. He is said to have been a very excellent man, whose loss will be felt by the community.

Supreme Court.—The only case yesterday afternoon was that of the United States, respondents, vs. John H. Miles, appellant. The case was argued by F. Tilford, Esq., for the appellant, and by U. S. Attorney Van Zile for the respondents; submitted and taken under advisement.

This morning the case of W. F. Blake appellant, vs. the Butte S. M. Co. et al., respondents, was argued, submitted, and taken under advisement.

Adjourned till Monday the 23d, at 10 a.m.

Married.—This afternoon, Mr. Julius F. Wells and Miss Lena Forbes, both of this city, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, the father of the bridegroom, President D. H. Wells, performing the ceremony. The reception will be held at the residence of President Wells, 13th Ward, this evening. Both parties are so well known in the community that further explanation is unnecessary, and all that remains for us to do is to add our congratulations and good wishes for the success and prosperity of the young couple in their wedded future. This we do, most heartily.

Just Too Late.—The following telegram was received yesterday, at 5 p.m., at U. S. Marshal Shaughnessy's office:

WASHINGTON, D. C.,
June 16th, 1879.

M. Shaughnessy, U.S. Marshal, Salt Lake City Utah.

If George Reynolds has not already been sent to a penitentiary outside of Utah Territory, let him be detained in the Utah Penitentiary, until further notice.

CHAS. DEVENS,
Attorney General.

It was answered as follows:

Reynolds left, this morning, at 7 o'clock, for Lincoln, Nebraska.

Band Excursion.—The 10th Ward Band, at the request of many friends, will take their annual excursion to Ogden on the 4th of July, having engaged Kay's Grove, along the line of the Utah Northern, for the occasion.

It is expected that the Ogden Band will have their new uniform by that time, and as the "Junction City" will doubtless appropriately celebrate the nation's birthday, the good opportunity presented by this excursion will be generally embraced by those from this city who wish to witness the ceremonies. It will be a gala day in Ogden. Further particulars, concerning tickets, etc., will shortly be given.

Manti Notes.—The prospects are very good in Sanpete for an abundant harvest. Hundreds of teams are hauling railroad ties to Nephi. The roads are very much cut up in consequence of the dryness of the season. Work on the temple is progressing steadily. The people of Manti are building a very fine meeting house, which is nearly ready for the roof. A number of new buildings, designed for stores, are in course of erection; among them is one for the Manti Co-op and another for the Ladies' Mercantile Institution. George Sidwell has his new grist mill at the mouth of the cañon, and ready for the roof. The surplus grain has nearly all been disposed of in the county, and all kinds of produce is in good demand. A young man named Porter, from Orderville, who had come to work on the temple, died at Manti on the 10th.—Enquirer.

Logan Stoneware.—One of the growing industries of Northern Utah, is the stone cutting establishment of Messrs. J. H. Brown & Son, Logan, Utah. We have before made favorable mention of it, while on a visit to the north last winter, but we are pleased to notice in addition thereto, that since then an agency has been established in this city for the sale of these stone wares. Messrs. Watson Brothers, nearly opposite the Eagle Gate, on South Temple Street, have on hand specimens of vases and flower pots manufactured by Brown & Son, some of which are designed for ornaments to balustrades and stairways, and others, standing about three feet and a half in height, for lawns and gardens. They are made from a light colored sandstone, the same material that is used for the cuttings of the Logan Tabernacle and the Temple at that place, they are nicely carved, symmetrical in pattern, and are specially adapted for plants and flowers, the stone being soft and porous and therefore, from its capacity to retain moisture, favorable to the growth and nourishment of floral vegetation. Specimens of these elegant and substantial vases may also be seen at the conservatory of Mr. John Reading and at the residence of Apostle Brigham Young, Thirteenth Ward.

Zion's Musical Society.—At the meeting held last evening in the Council House, the constitution and by-laws were read and adopted, and about one hundred and fifty brethren and sisters were enrolled as members. President Taylor was present and made a few encouraging remarks, inciting the members to diligently improve the opportunity that will be afforded by the founding of the Society for developing proficiency in the "divine art." The first rehearsal of the choral department will be held at the same place on Monday evening next at 8 o'clock. Two very fine glees have been selected for immediate practice, in addition to which Gilbert and Sullivan's popular opera "The Sorcerer," will be placed in the hands of the members as soon as copies can be procured. There are still a large number of good singers who express a desire to become members of the Society, and they will be accommodated by making application to the Secretary, or at future meetings, which will be held every Monday evening.

At the director's meeting, Prof. C. J. Thomas was appointed conductor, and Messrs. E. Beezley, T. C. Griggs, John Daynes and Dr. Ellen Ferguson assistant conductors for the choral department, Jos. J. Daynes was appointed accompanist, and E. Giles and J. M. Chamberlain assistants.

A CARD.

SALT LAKE CITY,
June 17, 1879.

Editors Deseret News:

In your issue of the 16th inst., I note that Mrs. Emmeline A. Young, alleging certain frauds touching the administration of her father's estate, has entered suit against President John Taylor et al. Allow the writer, in behalf of his wife, to disclaim any participation in the above suit, any faith in its justice, or any intention to allow the plaintiff, Mrs. E. A. Y. to represent there, or any other interests of her co-heir, Mrs. J. Y. Y.

HENRY ONELL.

CARD OF THANKS.

Miss Adams, through the DESERET NEWS, wishes to tender her sincere thanks to the public, for their generous attendance on the occasion of her benefit last evening; also to the ladies and gentlemen who kindly assisted in the performance, to the attaches of the theatre, the press, and all who have so effectively contributed to the success of the entertainment; likewise acknowledging the valuable services of Capt. Symons and his band. The occasion will ever be remembered by Miss Adams as one of the brightest incidents of her life.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, JUNE 18.

Omitted.—In our last night's notice of the meeting, Monday evening, of Zion's Musical Society, among the assistants appointed to aid Conductor C. J. Thomas, the name of Prof. A. C. Smyth was omitted.

Cure for Hemorrhage.—Brother E. W. Phillips, of Porterville, Morgan County, gives us the following remedy for hemorrhage, which he declares is an inevitable cure: The patient should fasten a wet sheet around the abdomen, take a sitz bath in cold water, and be given a tablespoonful of soot mixed in water.

"Woman's Exponent."—The June 15th number of the woman's paper is one of much interest. "Aunt Em's" letters entitled, "After Long Years," have resumed; Mrs. King has a continued article, "Thoughts on the Poets;" "Early Education" is the leader, and there are other interesting pieces in prose. The poetical contributions are little gems: "Drifting Away," by Mary J. Tanner, and "A Woman," by Emily Hill Woodmansee.

Normal Musical Institute.—The normal course in music for the benefit of school teachers will open on Monday next, at the Conservatory Rooms, over Calder's Music Warehouse, at 10 a. m. Teachers who desire to qualify themselves for the probable demands which may be made upon them in connection with music in the schools will do well to attend this course, which will be at once thorough, comprehensive and eminently practical.

DR. ELLEN B. FERGUSON, Director.

Departing Missionaries.—The following Elders left yesterday morning for the Southern States mission, and have been assigned as follows: Elders D. H. Peery, Wm. W. Fife and Levi P. Helm to Virginia; George Carver and Hyrum Belnap to Tennessee; Henry Bartholomew to Mississippi; Solomon Stephens, Noah L. Shurtliff and Teancum Heward to Georgia; Moroni Pickett and John W. Gibson to Alabama; Francis Macdonald and Samuel Butterfield to Kentucky. Francis Macdonald has been appointed to preside over the Kentucky Conference and J. H. Van Atta to preside over the Alabama Conference, vice Ara W. Sabin, released.

The next company of Elders for the Southern States will leave on the 1st of July.

A JARD.

To the Editors of the Deseret News and People of Salt Lake City:

Allow me to express my sincere thanks to you and the people of this place. I have received kind attention from both Mormons and Gentiles. I am delighted to find the Mormons to be a better people than they were represented to me. I have had the pleasure of remaining three weeks in your midst which has given me ample opportunity of forming the acquaintance of many ladies and gentlemen among the Latter-day Saints. I shall not seek an opportunity on my arrival in the east to speak of the Mormons, but whenever I find that someone is trying to misrepresent them I shall always be ready to plead their cause.

In bidding you and the people farewell, I remain yours respectfully,

BLANKA ANASTASIA BROLOWKY,
Countess von Brolowky from Russia.

June 10th, 1879.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, JUNE 19.

Appointment.—From the last number of the National Citizen and Ballot Box, we learn that Mrs. Emmeline B. Wells, of this city, has been appointed vice-president of the National Woman's Suffrage Association for Utah.

Lost.—On Saturday last a purse containing two Tithing Office orders, a meat order, some receipts, etc., was lost by a lady, between the Tithing Office and the 19th Ward bench. Will the finder please leave it at this Office, and confer a favor on the owner.

New Mining Company.—A new mining company has been organized in this city, for the purpose of working some new mining property in Parley's Park. The company includes a number of well-known and reliable capitalists, and will be known as the Free Silver Mining Company of Utah.

Filed his Bond.—The only item of interest developed in the matter of the suit against the executors and Trustee-in-Trust, is that W. S. McCornick, Esq., appointed receiver, pending the trial of the case yesterday, filed his bond of $100,000; Messrs. Salisbury, Chambers and Gilmer becoming his sureties.

"Enquirer" Items.—On Thursday, a horse owned by James Harwood, of Lehi, was killed by lightning.

The town at the terminus of the Utah Southern, heretofore known as Chicken Creek, has been rechristened, and will hereafter be called "Juab."

The fruit in Mona is all killed.

The Hopper Parasite.—The hopper parasite seems to be a reality. The Enquirer says:

"It is really a fact that the grasshoppers on the Lake bottom and as far north as Pleasant Grove are dying off by the bushels. They are attacked, just as they are shedding to take their wings, by a little fly that deposits an egg under the wing of the hopper, and in a few days the egg is hatched and a small worm finds its way inside of the 'Ironclad,' ceasing to live only when the grasshopper is cored. This hopper parasite makes its appearance when the grasshoppers are very numerous and generally destroys a great many."

The Grand Entertainment.—The following committees have been appointed to arrange and conduct the grand entertainment to be given in the Tabernacle, on the 24th of July. Executive committee: George Goddard, C. W. Stayner, Joshua Midgeley, John G. Daynes. Musical committee: C. J. Thomas, A. C. Smyth, T. C. Griggs, J. M. Chamberlain, E. Beezley, Wm. H. Foster, Joseph J. Daynes. These appointments are sanctioned and endorsed by Pres. A. M. Cannon. The gentlemen named above will immediately take measures to visit the various Sunday Schools to select the best musical talent among the children, and arrange other preliminaries for the occasion.

District Court.—Proceedings, in the District Court on Wednesday, Associate Justice P. H. Emerson presiding:

J. F. Bock vs. Olef Hammer; Zera Snow enters appearance for defendant; motion to strike answer from files argued and overruled; defendant given leave to file amended answer by next Saturday.

Lipman & Davis vs. Cleveland Silver Mining Company; judgment for plaintiff as prayed; referred to the clerk to compute.

Maroni Skeen vs. I. S. Waterman; motion to settle statement and hearing on motion for a new trial set for Saturday next at 9.30 a.m.

Wm. Burrows vs. E. T. M. Guest et al.; injunction order dissolved; plaintiff excepts.

Edwin Rushland vs. M. Edwards; plaintiff given leave to file complaint.

The Court is in session to-day, but up to 3.30 this afternoon, no business had been transacted.
