SOCIAL SOCIETY

The week has been an exceedingly busy one in a social way, each day being filled with a number of pleasant affairs. Luncheons and card-parties have predominated and not a few of the prettier affairs have been given in honor of early brides.

On Tuesday Miss Eloise Sadler gave an evening party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Savage, the amusement being cards. The rooms were beautifully decorated with pink peonies, bridal wreath and lilacs of the valley, and about 30 guests enjoyed the event.

An elaborate luncheon was given on Tuesday at the University club in honor of Miss Lazarus and Miss Sanders of St. Louis. The hosts being Messrs. Joe and Harold Siegel. The table was bright with roses and ferns, and invited to meet the guests of honor were Misses Ella and Marge Miller, Maud and Lilian Fitch, Mary Mow, Mary Smalley, May Kervin, Eloise Sadler, Jane McLouth, Beatrice Cheesman, Gertrude Hansen, Agatha Berkhoel, Elizabeth McIntyre, Helen Bamberger, Stella McIntyre.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Jennings have issued invitations for a dance to be given at the Ladies' Literary club on the evening of June 1, the anniversary of their wedding day.

Mrs. Elizabeth Belden entertained about 30 guests Thursday at bridge. Mrs. G. Y. Wallace assisting. The rooms were decorated in bridal wreath and pink hawthorne, and Mrs. Woodward won the prize awarded in the contest, while each guest was presented with a dainty pin-ball at its close. Present were: Mrs. M. S. Woodward, Mrs. William Bancroft, Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. Hugh Thomas, Miss Bean, Mrs. Everett Buckingham, Miss Maryriett Dunster, Mrs. James Dunn, Mrs. A. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. P. R. Ferguson, Mrs. Russell L. Tracy, Mrs. P. G. Mayne, Mrs. Charles Post, Miss Lane, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Howard Stowe, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. O. W. Powers, Mrs. William C. Mrs. F. S. Bascom and Mrs. Belle Gennell were hostesses at an informal dinner at the Elmore-Holmes on Wednesday, given in honor of Mrs. Ernest Eldridge of Portland, Or. Mrs. E. O. Carey and Mrs. William Heywood of Montana. La France roses and ferns were effectively used in the decorations and covers were laid for 12 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dinwoody entertained at dinner on Wednesday in honor of Mr. Moses Birne of New York, about a dozen guests being bidden to meet him. The table was prettily decorated with sprays of bridal wreath, smilax and streamers of Nile green ribbon, and the place cards were hand-decorated with spring blossoms. An informal musical program followed the dinner, given by the hostess, Miss Cecelia Sharp, and Mr. Birne. Invited to meet the guest of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Giendinning, Mrs. Charlotte Newman, Miss Cecelia Sharp, Hon. Young and Mr. and Mrs. William Reid.

Mrs. E. E. Bonnemort and Miss Esale Fitzgerald entertained at a musicale on Thursday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Harris of St. Louis, the rooms being prettily decorated, and about 100 guests being bidden. Snowballs, lilac and iris were used in profusion with vines and palms, the diningroom being specially pretty, as with its table done in smilax, ferns and Nile green candelabras. Those assisting the hostesses and guests of honor in receiving their friends during the evening were Mrs. W. W. Rivers, Miss Sigrid Peterson and Miss Louise Holt. A musical program was given by Mrs. Kate B. Anderson, Mrs. Sanborn, Mrs. John Milton, Miss Sigrid Peterson, Miss Theresa Raliffe, Miss Nettie Olsen, Messrs. Will Sibley, David Coulam, Schettler and Bert Barrett.

Miss Maud Fitch entertained at luncheon at the Country club yesterday in honor of Miss McShane, who is visiting Mrs. Channing.

One of the pretty affairs of the week

SMART EFFECT IN MOHAIR.

White mohair, the season's favorite, if one could really be chosen from the season's wealth of handsome materials for street suits, was used for this dainty two-piece costume. The skirt, cut on princess, with smooth-fitting girdle, has its natty little box plaits outlined with white soutache braid, triple rows of which top the wide hem. The coat is unusually pretty, with its inner vest formed of wide gold braid and trimmed white cloth buttons. The straps and cuffs, all with their complement of gold braid and white soutache, are additionally adorned with bits of Irish lace. The English walking hat is of white chip with a plaited band of ruby velvet around the brim, giving a dashing touch of color to the ensemble.

Mr. Clint G. Ford who has been identified with the very foremost dramatic attractions, including Gillet's "Secret Service Co.," "David Harum," "The Chansman," etc., has this to say of Newbro's Herpicide:

"For years I was annoyed with dandruff and itching of the scalp, all due to my twenty years of theatrical life with its incubent 'make-up' and wig wearing. At times the itching of the scalp was intense. All remedies failed me until I tried Herpicide, and I soon found that it was giving wonderful results. The itching and also the dandruff, entirely ceased and my hair resumed its natural life and vigor. There is no question in my mind about the reality of the dandruff germ, and I unhesitatingly recommend Herpicide to my friends in the profession."

THEATRICAL FOLK

Use and Recommend

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

Extravagant claims for roller remedies do not influence theatrical people, because long experience enables them to discriminate intelligently. They demand merit and will rarely use a preparation that is not actually worth as much or more than it costs in dollars and cents.

Herpicide kills the dandruff germ and by actual test does more good than all other hair remedies combined. This accounts for its popularity in theatrical circles.

"Queen Roselle" writes of Newbro's Herpicide

"I take pleasure in announcing the very satisfactory results I have had from the use of Newbro's Herpicide. My hair was falling out so rapidly that I was afraid I would lose it all. A friend advised Herpicide, and after using it faithfully my hair stopped falling, and the dandruff disappeared and my hair is now very soft and glossy."

I would like to see every lady of the profession try Herpicide, for I am confident that they would be delighted with it."

SEPARATE TAFFETA JACKET.

The separate coat of silk bids fair to have as great a popularity as that enjoyed by any shirt waist, or skirt, belonging to the family of popular "separate" things. The model illustrated is suggestive of the pony, but more of an Eton, and is made of black taffeta, with the plaited sides attached flat to give it body; the short sleeves, shawl collar, and banded motifs made of straw-colored grenadine edged with Persian embroidery. A white mull embroidered lining is lightly tacked to the inside of the coat, lending the familiar lingerie touch to a well-tailored garment.
