

DESERT EVENING NEWS

WEATHER REPORT.

Record at the local office of the weather bureau for the 24 hours ending at 6 a. m. today:

Barometer reading at 6 a. m., 25.49 inches. Temperature at 6 a. m., 35 degrees; maximum, 46; minimum, 25; mean, 35, which is 2 degrees below normal.

Excess of the daily mean temperature since the first of the month, 2 degrees. Excess of daily mean temperature since Jan. 1, 24 degrees.

Precipitation since the first of the month, .10 inch, which is .11 inch below the normal.

Excess in precipitation since Jan. 1, .52 inch.

FORECASTS TILL 6 P. M. SATURDAY.

Local forecasts for Salt Lake City and vicinity:

Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday with rain or snow; colder tonight.

For Utah: (Forecast taken at Denver, Colo.)

Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday with rain or snow; colder tonight.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The high area central yesterday morning over the central west, has moved eastward and now overlies the Ohio valley. A secondary "high" has made its appearance over the Pacific coast. A trough of low pressure extends from southern Arizona northeastward into the Canadian provinces.

Precipitation occurred over the Pacific coast and the middle and northern plateau regions, with snow still falling this morning at Spokane, and rain at Victoria. A thunderstorm was reported at Winnemucca.

Temperatures were generally higher, especially over the Missouri valley, where the rise was considerable.

J. J. HYATT, Local Forecaster.

The Semi-Weekly News

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER

OF THE WEST.

Is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Rabbi Reynolds will lecture this evening in the Jewish synagogue on the Book of Esther.

The water supply of the Utah Light & Railway company is all now that is desired, and the company has some 2,000 spare horsepower floating on its system.

Jesse M. Smith is in receipt of Arizona papers naming ex-President John W. Springer of the National Livestock association for the vice presidency of the United States.

The governor has appointed Winslow P. Smith and Robert J. Grant, two additional delegates to the first international congress on school hygiene, to be held at Nuremberg, Germany, April 9, next.

Local nurserymen say that there are indications of a good trade this spring, the demand being particularly encouraging in the line of fruit trees, while there is also a good demand for Carolina poplars.

Homer Davenport, the celebrated cartoonist who appears at the Theater under the auspices of the Press club Sunday night, lectures this evening at Provo. A delegation left for that city this afternoon to meet him.

Elder Henry Peterson of the Sunday School Union board, will attend the state union meeting at Pocatello on Sunday, while Elder J. W. Summers, says and John P. Barnett will go to Nephi to confer with the Sunday school workers of Juab stake concerning their attendance at the convention to be held at Provo, March 26 and 27. Elders Horace Cummings and W. A. Morton will visit Stockton on Sunday to arrange to organize a school there.

The Independent Telephone company management says that by May 1, it will have expended in construction $1,000,000, and by that time will have service in Ogden as well as Salt Lake, and at the intervening points. The company proposes to be in Pocatello, and in one year to be in Butte and Helena. A feature of the city service will be the absence of party lines, and each subscriber will have a line to himself. The management says the company is preparing for a city of 150,000.

Two sets of articles of incorporation were filed in the secretary of state's office yesterday. The Pioneer Land & Irrigation company of Plain City, Weber county, capitalized at $24,000, divided into shares of the par value of $15 each. Moroni S. Sorenson, president; Moroni Sorenson, Jr., vice president; J. H. Sorenson, secretary and treasurer. The Wellsville Northfield Irrigation company, Wellsville, Cache county, capitalized at $3,500, divided into shares of the par value of $10 each. J. B. Woodward is president; J. T. Darley, vice president; G. T. Darley, secretary and treasurer.

We pay 4 per cent interest per annum on $1 to $5,000. Zion's Savings Bank & Trust Co. Joseph P. Smith, President; George M. Cannon, Cashier.

J. M. HIGLEY, HONEST PLUMBER
Reliable Electric Wiring.
109 E. First South. Phone 712.

D. J. SHARP COAL CO.
Offices, 73 South Main St., telephones 719 and 430.
Rock Springs and Cumberland, lump, nut and slack.

M'KINLEY'S BIRTHDAY.

On McKinley's birthday President Roosevelt, the cabinet officers and all the Washington officials were pink carnations. The memory of McKinley was in many minds and many words. McKinley anecdotes that were vividly told.

Congressman Dick of Akron said: "McKinley was always good to the poor. When he lived in Canton, he had each winter a great stock of blankets, shoes, potatoes and many other things that he would distribute where they were needed most."

"One day he gave a Bible to a newsboy. He would not have ventured upon such a gift as this had not the newsboy asked for the book."

"I am glad," said the lad, "that you want a Bible. Are you happy now that you have gotten one?"

"Yes, sir," said the boy. "I know a place where I can trade it off for a dollar."

DR. J. S. WITCHER DIES SUDDENLY.

A Well Known Physician Passes Away at Holy Cross Hospital This Morning.

A GOOD FRIEND OF THE POOR

Acute Gastritis as the Cause of His Demise—His Deeds of Kindness Were Numberless.

Dr. John S. Witcher, a well known Salt Lake physician, died at the Holy Cross hospital between 4 and 5 o'clock this morning. He had been seriously ill only since Tuesday evening when he went to the hospital. Death was caused by intestinal trouble, and acute gastritis is given as the cause. He frequently had severe hemorrhages and when he went to the hospital Tuesday evening, his nervous system collapsed, and his condition became rapidly worse until this morning when death relieved his sufferings.

The announcement of his demise will be a severe shock to scores of Salt Lake citizens. His sunny disposition and obliging manner won for him many warm friends, and his unbounded charity endeared him to the hearts of hundreds of poor people for he was in very deed the friend of the poor in distress, and was ready at all times, day or night, to minister to their wants without promise and without price.

The writer, who was probably as intimate with him as any one in the city, outside of the family, knew him to be a kind hearted, wholesome, genial gentleman. He was always ready to do a "good turn" as he termed it, to rich or poor. Time and time again he has been known to send other physicians to attend some of his cases while he responded to charity calls.

He never obtruded his troubles on any one. Sick or well, he was always the same good natured, kindly hearted man. Only his most intimate friends knew that he was seriously ill or realized the heroic fight he made for weeks to keep up his courage. At times he would brood over his trouble, but a word or two of encouragement from a friend was all that was necessary to put him in good spirits again.

On Wednesday morning he sent for a "News" reporter to visit him at the hospital. His condition was very serious at that time and he realized it. Still he had hope of arising from his bed of affliction. He worried a great deal about various cases and gave directions as to what should be done.

"Old man," he said "I am horribly sick, but if I can hold my own for three or four days I may be up and around again. I have made a long, hard fight to ward this off but I have simply gone to pieces and can not pull myself together."

Wednesday night he seemed a little easier but yesterday his condition grew steadily worse and toward evening his family became alarmed. During the night he lapsed into unconsciousness and his physician, Dr. Root, was in the room. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

Dr. Witcher's father, General J. S. Witcher, is now with his wife in California, but they have been notified and are expected here by tomorrow night. The end things will be a severe blow to those who have known him, but it was a losing fight, a fact that he himself finally and fully realized. Some time before the end came, he talked to his brother, Arthur H. Witcher, and gave directions as to matters that worried him. He then spoke of his approaching death. He said he realized that it would soon be all over, but he felt reconciled and commended his soul to his Maker. He gave directions as to the disposition of his remains. The end came peacefully, and the watchman at his bedside felt that it was a relief to see him out of his suffering.

Shortly before he died, Mrs. Witcher was notified and hurried to her husband's bedside, but the grim reaper had preceded her, and when she arrived at the hospital the pall of death hung over the ward in which his body lay.

W. B. and Edgar J. who reside in the east. A married sister now living in Virginia also survives him.

The funeral will in all probability take place Sunday, though arrangements have not been completed, in the absence of word from the father and mother in California.

PERSONALS

General Manager C. A. Quigley of the Studebaker company will be home Sunday from his extended eastern trip.

Fred Wood of the Wilson hotel has returned from his advertising tour of California.

The Count de Clermont-Tonnere of Paris was among the globe-trotters taking in Salt Lake today. He is on his way to California.

E. J. Yard, chief engineer of the Rio Grande line, is at the Knutsford.

George H. Champ is down from Logan. He met here his brother, Frederick Champ, of Rockford, Ill.

Miss Belle Olson has gone to Sacramento on an extended visit.

Frank Tuily of Custer, Ida., and William Felker of Challis, Ida., are in the city on a business trip.

W. H. Korn has gone to Beaver county on a business trip.

H. J. Talbot, the newly chosen superintendent of the Methodist mission in this state, has returned from Portland, accompanied by his family. They are at the Wilson.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

TEMPLE NOTICES.

The St. George Temple will close Friday evening, March 25, 1904, and will reopen Tuesday morning, May 24, 1904. DAVID H. CANNON, President.

NO GERMS OR IMPURITIES IN ROYAL BREAD. Made by machine of the very best flour. The label with the crown on every loaf. Sold everywhere.

The Continental Life Insurance and Investment Company, Gov. H. M. Wells President, H. T. T. Vice President and General Manager, W. H. Cunningham, Secretary, is now organized and ready for business. Offices, Rooms 301 to 305, Deseret News Building.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time. We invite inspection of the book. See our show window.

DESERT NEWS BOOK STORE.

McCoys livery stable for carriages and light livery. Telephone 51.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Revised and enlarged edition of 1903. Full sheep, double thumb index. Supply limited. This offer good only a short time