

PATRIOTS CLASH AT THE COUNCIL

Mark Reedall, Tailor-Patriot, and Joseph Lippman in Bloodless Encounter.

ALDERMAN GETS INSTRUCTION

Had He Known Identity of the Man Behind the Petition, Elongated Alderman Would Have Been Good.

Councilman Reedall, from the Fifth ward, and one of the most faithful patriots in the whole "American" ring, came in for a roast at the hands of one of the "great Sachems" of the "inner circle" at the meeting of the council committee on engineering held last evening. Joseph Lippman, who acknowledges himself that he "cuts some ice" in the councils of the "American" bunch, rained down upon the defenseless head of the short term member from the Fifth a torrent of his personal opinion that made the patriot tremble.

The trouble all came about through the pigeon holing of a petition directed to the city council by Garry Van Schoonhoven, who owns property in Third avenue, where the city engineering department in establishing its absolute grade has cut the sidewalk down nearly 20 feet from the property line. Van Schoonhoven made a most gentlemanly protest, and asked the council to do what was right in the matter, not mentioning any particular amount, but leaving to the judgment of the council and their well known liberality and the plethoric condition of the city treasury to designate a commensurate sum to compensate him for the damage inflicted upon his residence property by this arbitrary grade. Now this extremely polite petition was drawn up by Joseph Lippman, and to have one of his Tenneyson affusions treated with to say the least, proud disdain, to say nothing of the weight and authority the great name of Lippman should have carried in any proceeding of the great "American" nationettes, was too much for the big chief, and he could contain himself no longer.

TRADE AGAINST REEDALL

"Didn't you know that this man is a taxpayer and a good citizen?" thundered the aroused chief. "Didn't you know that you were elected to represent the people, and we are the people? You are not conducting the city's business right. You are piling up damage suits by your actions in this business. All this man wanted was a fair hearing, and what did you give him? You filed his petition, and he is justly indignant."

Mr. Reedall merely said that the council had heard up to now, and indicated in the petition once or twice, and had thoroughly gone over the ground, and he did not think any further action was necessary. Also, that he didn't know Lippman was acting as attorney for Van Schoonhoven, or he "wouldn't have done it."

MIGRATORY PANTALOONS.

A pair of trousers belonging to a man named Frank Ward were twice stolen before they were recovered and the thief landed in jail. Ward left a suit case in a cafe Monday night, and when he returned for it, found that a pair of trousers had been stolen. The theft was reported to the police and they started a search for the missing trousers. Yesterday Officer Henderson saw a man named Mike Papas sneaking away from the cafe with the trousers. He was placed under arrest and charged with larceny. The trousers had first been stolen by a man named Johnson and Papas stole them from the latter.

OLD MAN FLIM-FLAMMED

Joseph Spendlove of Morgan Banked Into Signing Note for $400, With Nothing in Return.

Joseph Spendlove, an aged and respected resident of Morgan, spent yesterday in visiting police headquarters and the county attorney's office in an endeavor to secure the arrest of a bogus agent of a Mexican land company which has headquarters in this city, and the charge of obtaining his wife's signature to a note for $400. According to a story told by Mr. Spendlove, the fellow has been canvassing Morgan and Summit counties with success and painting glowing word pictures of the money to be made by purchasing the stock of the particular company. He has secured a number of notes and in several instances has delivered the stock. He is now said to be engaged in discounting the notes at the various banks in the State of Utah. This proceeding is strenuously objected to by Mr. Spendlove for the reason that the fellow has long since omitted to deliver to him the stock promised.

Inquiry at the headquarters of the company in question elicits the information that the man who is operating in the rural districts has not worked for the company for three years past and apparently his scheme is to talk people into purchasing the stock at a price, then discounting the note given and with the money secured purchasing some stock and delivering the same to the signers pocketing a handsome profit on the transaction.

Mr. Spendlove has notified a number of banks that he will protect the note and warns the public against the fellow.

He was told by the authorities here to swear out a complaint against the man in Morgan county and with this resolve in mind he returned home last night.

Among the people who are said to have been flim-flammed by this smooth talker are a couple of widow ladies of Hennefer. From Coalville also comes a story regarding this fellow to the effect that the penitentiary yawns for him on account of an alleged wife episode at Coalville.

In the meantime Mr. Spendlove desires to notify all note brokers and financial establishments that a note for $400 bearing the signatures of himself and wife is not worth the paper it is written on.

DESERT NEWS BIRTHDAY

Special Train Will Leave for Lagoon
On Tuesday at 3 p. m. With 200 Employees.

A special train will carry the employees of the Deseret News to Lagoon on Tuesday, leaving the depot at 3 p. m. In consequence but one edition of the paper will be printed so that the 200 employees of the 14 departments of the institution can celebrate the fifty-eighth birthday of the oldest paper in the west in fitting style.

The committee on sports is arranging for an extensive athletic carnival, which will run the gamut from baseball to swimming races. After the requisite amount of enthusiasm has been worked up, all will adjourn to the restaurant, where Joe Sands has undertaken the biggest contract in the catering line since the dining room was opened. It is anticipated that over 200 people will sit down to the banquet.

We understand from the local columns that paper is fifty-eight years old today, and we are glad to say that is a worthy age for any newspaper. It is remarkable here in the mountain west.

And the "News" has something more than that to be grateful for. It has had a mission to perform, and it has probably discharged its duty creditably. Maybe it has made mistakes. If it hadn't, it wouldn't have lived so long. For the only newspaper that doesn't make mistakes are those that are under tombstones—marked with regrets, but missed with resignation. Its mission has been dual. It has had to be a newspaper, and the organ of its Church. It is probably the only paper of its kind in the country. Its own people seem to approve it in both capacities, for they wouldn't have supported it so long. And, therefore, it is to be congratulated for attaining success in the direction toward which it labored.

In this connection we want to compliment the business and the editorial management of the "News." It seems to be in a flourishing financial condition. It certainly is a handsome paper, not badly made, and its Saturday editions are distinct, a remarkably distinct, credit to the journalism of America.

Therefore, taken all together, we congratulate the Deseret News on its approaching fifty-eighth birthday.

HOME WITH HER PARENTS.

Mrs. Butler Returns from Ogden Wedding Trip Without Her Husband.

Mabel, the daughter of Gov. John C. Cutler, who on Tuesday night was secretly married to Thomas E. Butler at Ogden, is with her parents on south West Temple street. While the whereabouts of the groom is unknown to the relatives of the bride, it is stated positively by the family that she will remain at the parental home and will have nothing to do with Butler.

According to the "News" Ogden correspondent, young Butler and his wife returned from the Idlewild resort in Ogden canyon Wednesday morning and went to the residence of a man by the name of Hassing on Twenty-fifth street. Here they stopped over night, but before going to the home, according to the story, the couple secured a lunch and spent the day on the mountainside east of Ogden.

For the time being, however, out that the reason the couple went to the home of the friend and the taking of lunch to the mountains and spending the day was on account of the shortage of funds of young Butler. The couple left Ogden yesterday, but it is stated that when the train reached Salt Lake, young Butler did not accompany his wife to the home of her father to ask for the parental blessing, but that he would wait for a few days before doing so.

BUILT UP

Right Food Gives Strength and Brain Power.

The natural elements of wheat and barley, including the phosphate of potash, are found in Grape-Nuts, and that is why persons who are run down from improper food pick up rapidly on Grape-Nuts.

"My system was run down by excessive night work," writes a N. Y. man, "in spite of a liberal supply of ordinary food. After using Grape-Nuts I noticed improvement at once, in strength, and nerve and brain power."

This food seemed to lift me up and stay with me for better exertion, with less fatigue. My weight increased 20 lbs. with vigor and comfort in proportion.

"When traveling I always carry the food with me to insure having it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

VOICING PROTEST IN STRONG TERMS

West Side Citizens Will Use Every Right to Prevent Invasion.

APPOINT THREE COMMITTEES

One of them is Formed for the Purpose of Correcting Public Abuses —Menace to Children.

Westiders will employ every means, legal and right, to prevent the scheme of foisting upon their locality the red-light district. Last night an indignation meeting was held in the Fifteenth ward chapel, where strong speeches were made and resolutions passed against the proposition, which was designated in no uncertain terms as being a gross outrage.

Attorney Elias C. Ashton was chairman of the meeting. The legal phase of the question was handled by him in a vigorous manner, and he declared that an aggregation of the underworld had no place in any decent and civilized community, least of all in a section heretofore ideal as a residence district.

Other speakers were J. J. Moyer, Mrs. A. Butterworth, Dr. A. B. Wenzell and Ed. Butterworth, the latter being secretary of the meeting. Mr. Butterworth asked how children of the west side could go to and from school without menace and danger with questionable houses on First and Second South streets, with South Temple street closed as well as Third, Fourth and Fifth South streets.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS.

The resolutions adopted at the meeting follow, with the names of the various committees appointed: Whereas, a plan is now on foot looking to the moving of the underworld to a location on the west side of the city:

Resolved, first, That we vigorously protest against such a movement;

Second, That it is our conviction that such a move would work hazard to the moral and peace of that large and increasing community known as the west side of Salt Lake City;

Third, That we unhesitatingly condemn the policy of those who from a distorted sense of what constitutes good morals in business life, propose to furnish the financial backing necessary to make the proposed scheme a reality, and,

Fourth, That we propose to fight the proposition unitedly, vigorously and persistently.

COMMITTEES NAMED.

Publicity and protest to city council—J. J. Moyer, J. P. Schmitt, Elias C. Ashton, Mrs. A. Butterworth, Mrs. S. J. Olson.

Circulation of petition—Thomas Lamplow, Mrs. F. M. Baer, John Ed. Wards, Mrs. S. Ashton and J. H. Worrall.

Deweyville Man Shows Himself One
Not to be Left to Roam Abroad.

Special Correspondence.
Brigham, June 12.—W. V. Call, state fish and game warden for Boxelder county, arrested N. B. Marble of Deweyville last Sunday on the charge of violating the fish and game law. Marble killed two yearling deer in the foothills just east of his residence, Saturday.

Two bunches of deer have been ranging for the past six months near the town and Marble could not resist the temptation to try his marksmanship with a double barreled shotgun. The two fawns were very friendly and hid little fear of danger. Marble's aim was murderous under these conditions. The warden armed himself with a search warrant, and making Marble believe he knew all the facts, wrung a confession from his prisoner. The skins were found in a granary covered with barley, and part of the venison was taken possession of by the warden.

Other arrests may follow, as the deer in the neighborhood of Deweyville and Honeyville are very gentle, but have been bothered lately by heartless hunters (?)

WILL PROTECT THE CROWDS.

Police Will Probably See Addition in Plain Clothes Squad.

When the United Commercial Travelers arrive in Salt Lake next week there will be considerable work for the police to do, and already preliminary steps are being taken to afford protection to visitors and citizens from the delegation of crooks which is sure to follow the travelers to this city.

In all probability the police force will be materially increased with plain clothes men during the convention, but to just what extent this will be done will not be known until after the return of Chief of Police Tom D. Pitt from the convention of chiefs of police, Chief Pitt is expected back tomorrow.

Never was a convention held in this or any other city that was not attended by pickpockets, porch climbers and all around crooks. They are always attracted by the golden opportunities that await them to practise their nefarious occupations and in every up-to-date city the police make preparations for the protection of the citizens and visitors.

A member of the local detective force said today:

"It is certain there will be a gang of 'dips' in Salt Lake during the convention and the entire force will be kept busy. The 'dips,' or pickpockets do not fear the ordinary policeman, but that is the man who is in uniform, because they always keep an eye on him and avoid him while lifting pocketbooks and diamonds. The crooks of this character have no particular fear of the uniformed men, but they do fear the officer in plain clothes because they never know when their operations will be detected by an officer in citizen's clothes. Therefore, to provide for competent men to mingle with the crowds and keep a lookout for such crooks."
