THE MEASURE IN PROGRESS. As there appears to be a great lack correct information in regard to the provisions of the bill which passed the House of Representatives on Wadnesday, we print it in full to-day, including the one amendment, introduced by Mr. Tucker, extending the appointing power to municipal officers. The full text of the bill, with a few unimportant exceptions, was published some time ago in the DESERET News, as furnished by the Judiciar; Committee through the Delegate it Congress for Utahr, It was afterwards dressed up a little in phrasequery, but the differences between the documents as printed then and now are verbal rather than essential.

The frantic rejoicings of the clique engaged in the present effort to destroy local self-government, in Utah are, to say the least, a little premature. to the Senate, where it may receive more rational consideration about was accorded to it in the House, and may there be, amended, which House for coacurrence, and must
