THURMAN IN NEW YORK.

His Magnificent Reception in the Metropolis.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Judge Thurman rose late. Shortly before noon he emerged from the Fifth Avenue Hotel and strolled along the avenue with his son. He looked remarkably well.

Madison Square Garden contained a mighty swarm of people tonight upon the occasion of the democratic reception to Allen G. Thurman, and when its holding capacity was exhausted it served as a center to many thousands of people, who were addressed by speakers upon stands at each corner of the building. The interior of the garden was profusely decorated with the American colors. When the doors opened a tremendous stream of people rushed in, trampling and pushing the 150 policemen present, who vainly tried to preserve order.

In an incredibly brief space of time the southern gallery was packed and a few minutes later every seat in the northern galleries was filled. Then the crowds surged on to the main floor and every minute saw them packed closer and closer to the stout railing of the reserved enclosure and every minute saw the remaining space for standing room grow less and less. Still hundreds more poured in and squeezed room for themselves until the building fully held its estimated capacity of 150,000 persons. Suddenly there was heard a loud crackling and men mounted their chairs and looked about them with anxiety. Before a panic could be created, however, it was found that the impatient crowd packed against the reserved seat enclosure had violently sel.ed the railings and wrenched them from their place, and made a rush for the chairs of those who has risen to see what had caused the disturbance. No harm was suffered by anyone, however, excepting those who lost their seats.

At 8 o'clock Calvin S. Brice, chairman of the national campaign committee, appeared in the speakers' stand cane in hand, and rapped for order. He at length made himself heard above the din, and called the meeting to order and presented Hon. Roswell P. Flower.

Flower made a short speech, touching mainly upon the treasury surplus. Flower referred to Judge Thurman as that able and upright judge, that leader of the Senate and that incorruptible statesman." While Flower was still speaking the crowd near the Madison Square entrance began to cheer, drowning the voice of the speaker as they announced the coming of Thurman. As he made his way to the platform the cheers were resounded, bandanas were waved and the band struck up "Hail to the Chief." At the same time there reached the platform Gov. D. B. Hill, who took a seat beside Mayor Hewett, Congressman McMillan, Patrick A. Collins and ex-Governor Abbott, of New Jersey. A greeting in the form of a resolution was then read and adopted. Flower, who had not attempted to continue his speech, at once introduced Thurman, saying:

Fellow Citizens:—I have the honor to introduce to you the old Roman, Allan G. Thurman.

As Thurman stepped forward to the speakers' stand and stood erect wiping the perspiration from his face with his famed bandana, the wildest excitement followed. Everyone having a seat stood upon it. Bandanas and flags were waved and the crowd cheered and cheered again, drowning into muffled sounds the strains of the band. The cheering continued for fully five minutes and then with a voice so feeble that only those within a few feet of him could tell except by the motion of his lips that he was speaking, Thurman said:

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:—It has been said by the republican papers since I was nominated for the Vice-Presidency that Allen G. Thurman is old, frail, decrepit and a broken down man. I do not know what I should reply to this, although I know well I am in no condition tonight to speak to an immense audience such as this is. However, I want to speak, and in spite of illness I am almost induced to make the attempt. I beg leave, however, to withdraw, and thank you for your kind reception.

A HUSH FELL

upon the assemblage as all saw that the hero of the evening was trying to speak to them, but was unable to do so.

Colonel Brice and Mr. Flower stepped forward, and each taking Thurman by the arm, assisted him back from the speaker's stand. He was almost fainting, and for a few moments was too sick to be removed from the building. When he had recovered sufficiently Judge Thurman was taken in a carriage direct to the ladies' entrance of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, accompanied by Brice and Barnum and his son, Allan W. Thurman. The Judge was conducted to his room and was attended by Dr. Goldthwaite, the hotel physician. The latter applied remedies and later it was said the distinguished patient would be all right in an hour or so. Dr. Goldthwaite said the Judge had been attacked with cholera morbus at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and he had advised his patient not to exert himself by attending the big meeting. Judge Thurman insisted upon going to Madison Square Garden notwithstanding the advice of his physician.

Barnum came out of Thurman's apartments in a little while and though he looked seriously worried, announced that Thurman would be all right in a couple of hours. In the sick room remained Mr. Brice, Allen W. Thurman his son, Allen G. Thurman Jr. and the physician.

Meanwhile in Madison Square Garden the throng called for Governor Hill when Mr. Thurman had gone. He was presented and at once referred to Judge Thurman's sudden illness saying it was an illness which had come upon him but an hour before. The Governor said he took great pleasure in announcing his illness was not serious and that Judge Thurman would be with the work laid out for him in the campaign. He said;

"The democracy of New York welcomes the distinguished citizen of Ohio who has been made one of the standard bearers of our party in this campaign and who honors us upon this occasion by his presence, and we pledge to him and his invincible associate upon the ticket, Grover Cleveland, the electoral vote of the Empire State. We welcome him not as a king, but as a plain, honest, unassuming private citizen and democrat, full of years and honors, who possesses the full confidence and regard of patriotic people. We shall win the coming contest because we deserve to succeed. The democratic party was never more right than it is today. Clamor, misrepresentation, abuse, false pretenses and impostures of pretended patriotism may succeed for awhile and obstruct our progress, but the sober second thought of the people will surely prevail and our triumph will be as glorious and gratifying to the democracy as as it will be disatrous to our adversaries."

Governor Green of New Jerser then devoted himself to a tribute to Thurman and next to a discussion of the tariff. He applied himself chiefly to a denial of the statement that a reduction of the tariff means free trade.

A letter of regret from Senator Vorhees was read. In it was this sentence:

"Tell Judge Thurman I love him and pray God bless him."

Senator Blackburn of Kentucky next spoke:

"For a while the republicans said we were cowards, but I beg my countrymen tonight to look into the chambers of their consciences and say who are the cowards now. We have laid the gage of battle down The democratic party has passed the tax reduction bill. The republican Senate thought they could bully and win the sympathies of the American citizens by rejecting the fisheries treaty, but they got a 'Roland for an Oliver.' They decided to reject that treaty on Tuesday and on Thursday Grover Cleveland said: 'Very well, gentlemen, you have rejected the treaty and reverted to hostile methods. If war comes under your decree, war it shall be. Give me the legislation and I will carry out your decree.'"

Patrick Collins, of Boston, and John McSweeney, of Ohio, followed with short speeches and the meeting was closed by local speakers.

Allen W. Thurman sent this dispatch to his mother at Columbus, last night:

"If you see reports in the morning papers about father being sick don't be alarmed. Simply an old fashioned case of cholera morbus, and he is all right now."

An Associated Press representative called on Judge Thurman about 10 o'clock tonight, and found him fast asleep, apparently enjoying a restful slumber.

IN THE STATES.

Both Parties Formulating State Tickets.

NEW HAMPSHIRE DEMOCRATS.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 6.—The democratic state convention met this morning. S. W. Drew was chosen chairman. Charles A. Amsden and John Hasty were placed in nomination for governor.

The committee on resolutions then made its report.

It declares in favor of tariff reform, free raw materials, the regulation of the liquor traffic in a manner found successful in other states, expresses sympathy with Ireland, and charges the republican party with being a syndicate of political speculators whose only purpose is to protect great monopolies and trusts.

After the reading and adoption of the platform Chas. A. Amsden was nominated for governor.

After the election of Presidential electors, adjourned.

COLORADO REPUBLICANS.

DENVER, Sept. 6.—The republican state convention reassembled at 10 this morning and nominated W. H. Brisbane for state treasurer on the third ballot.

Capt. Jones Rice was nominated for secretary of state by acclamation.

Louis B. Schwanbeck was nominated for state auditor on the second ballot.

The ticket was completed as follows: S. W. Jones, attorney-general; Prof Fred Dick, superintendent of public instruction; for judge of supreme court, long term, Chas. D. Hoyt; short term, V. A. Elliott; Presidential electors, D. Moore, Denver; Obiston, Clear Creek County; James Gallow, Monrose.

The platform reaffirms the principles of the republican party, endorses the action of the national convention and pledges the Colorado electors for Harrison and Morton, favors pensions to soldiers and sailors of the late war, advocates the enactment of laws for protection of the laboring classes, declares against the importation of Chinese and all contract labor and denounces the present administration for failure to enact laws for the just protection of the laboring men of this country, approves the action of the senators and Congressmen in rejecting the fisheries treaty, denounces the President's message of August 23rd, and asserts it is a confession that this administration has been grossly negligent in not protecting American fishermen. It demands the free and unlimited coinage of silver, favors stringent railroad legislation within the state and asks that all proper means be used to induce Congress to make the necessary appropriation for the establishment of reservoirs in the west for the storage of water for irrigation purposes.

BLAINE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Blaine will come here some day next week to meet the national committee.

NEW MEXICO REPUBLICANS.

SOCORRO, N. M., Sept. 6.—At the republican territorial convention held here today, Hon Miguel S. Otero was nominated delegate to Congress. Otero was delegate from this territory in 1879 and 1880.

SOUTH CAROLINA DEMOCRATS.

COLUMBUS, S. C., Sept. 6.—At the democratic state convention today J. H. Richardson and W. S. Mandlin, the present incumbents, were renominated for governor and lieutenant-governor.

THE INDIANA CAMPAIGN.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 6.—The republicans of Indianapolis held a great outdoor demonstration tonight the occasion being the return of General Alvin H. Hovey, republican candidate for governor and the active inauguration of the gubernatorial campaign. It is estimated that fully 60,000 persons witnessed the parade. When the head of the column reached the reviewing stand occupied by General Harrison, Governor Porter and General Hovey, a hearty cheer went up from the multitude and was carried all the way down the line. The column was fifty minutes in passing the reviewing stand and it is estimated that from 8,000 to 10,000 men were in line. The column marched to Tomlinson Hall where it broke ranks to participate in a mass meeting. General Hovey and ex-Governor Porter addressed the audience briefly discussing the issus of the campaign.

Mail Robbers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—An evening paper declares that a gang of robbers have been systematically robbing the mails between New York and the West. All efforts to trace the loss of many thousands of dollars already taken, have proved fruitless. The officials of the postoffice department are anxiously expecting a heavy haul to be made one of these days by the thieves who appear to be experts.

Ten Ballot Boxes Stolen.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 6.—A special from Little Rock, Arkansas: A big sensation has been created by the stealing of ten ballot boxes from the office of the county clerk. The safe was blown open to get them. The burglary was the work of experts. The excitement is running high. Hundreds of negroes are gathering about the clerk's office. A riot is imminent. A ballot box while being taken from one township to the county seat was stolen by a gang of masked men.

Army of the Tennessee.

TOLEDO, Sept. 6.—The Society of the Army of the Tennessee closed its session today. The officers for the coming year are as follows: President, General W. T. Sherman; Recording Secretary, Colonel L. N. Dayton; Corresponding Secretary, General Hickenlooper; Treasurer, General M. W. Force.

The meeting next year will be held at Cincinnati. Appropriate resolutions were adopted on the death of Gen. Sheridan. Gen. Russell A. Alger, of Michigan, was elected an honorary member. Letters of regret were read from several eminent men who had been invited to attend, including Gen. Harrison, Col. Fred. Grant, General Rosencrans, Hon. Levi P. Morton and Secretary Fairchild.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The following have been confirmed:

Postmasters—J. F. Tuff, Livingston, Montana; W. C. Tedford, Santa Ana, California; V. N. Bach, Consul at Piedral Negras; J. G. Cesco, Consul at Vuedo Laredo.

The Acting Secretary of the Interior today sent to Congress all the papers except such as "should be withheld for the purpose of justice," called for by the resolution of Senator Stewart, asking upon what authority and information the Commissioner of the General Land Office based his assertion that the amendment introduced by the Senator was really in the interest of mining corporations and against settlers. In one of these communications the Commissioner says no suits have been recommended in Nevada except against two powerful and wealthy corporations, and these have been based, not upon informers' testimony, but the reports of special agents of the department. He characterizes as groundless the complaint that the special agents act as spies upon the people of Nevada, and says no special agents were in Nevada for several years until they were sent there to investigate the facts in cases where offers of compromise were received from mining companies for the unlawful cutting of timber, and endorsed by Senator Stewart. He relates in his statement that the proposed amendment would be unjust to the settler. From the report made by the special agent of the department it is shown that it is the big smelting works and the men who burn charcoal for a living who are engaged in this wholesale timber cutting, and that the mines proper are bitterly opposed to it.

A bill was reported from the Senate committee on military affairs today, authorizing the President to appoint General George Stoneman of California Colonel of Infantry in the army on the retired list.

Senator Allison said this afternoon that the tariff bill would be reported to the full finance committee Wednesday next.

THE YELLOW SCOURGE.

How the Whole of Florida is Suffering.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Surgeon-General Hamilton returned to Washington last night from a trip to Florida and Georgia. He says the stories published regarding the condition of Camp Perry are gross exaggerations. If Jacksonville sent disreputable characters there it was not the fault of the government. Everybody except Jacksonville was pleased. Additions to the facilities of the camp are being constantly made.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 6—Twenty-one cases and seven deaths, was the official report of the board of health for the 18 hours to noon today.

This has been the gloomiest day of the epidemic. The death roll has been unexpectedly large, and many usually cheerful faces look stern, and many stout hearts feel faint. The number of new cases reported for the 24 hours ending at 6 o'clock this evening were 46. Deaths reported for the same time, 10.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Sept. 6.—A letter received from the small town of Bayard, Fla., says:

"Just discovered the putrifying bodies of a woman and five children in a supposed vacant house. It is believed they are yellow fever refugees. No one dares approach the house to bury them."

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—A refugee from Gainesville, Fla., makes the following statement:

"While Jacksonville alone of the hundred Florida towns is battling with the epidemic of yellow fever, the whole state is suffering almost as badly from the isolation of quarantine and the consequent stagnation of business, and the cost to her citizens will reach into the millions. The first few days presented sights that made the bravest despondent. The first panic lasted about one week and carried off fully 30,000 people, flying without means and scarcely a change of clothing from the scourge. Every county has it own board of health and quarantine officers are stationed at every point where any kind of road enters the county lines. No person can pass without a satisfactory bill of health. Some towns have as many as seven quarantine stations on the same line of road within their own county limits. Florida is a charming resort in winter time, but life among the fragrant groves is not as delectable now as then."

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 6.—The executive committee of the citizens association this morning appointed a committee to prefer nominal charges against the conduct of Surgeon-General Hamilton in connection with the yellow fever in Florida.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6 — Surgeon-General Hamilton was summoned to the White House this afternoon for a conference with the President and Secretary Fairchild, in regard to measures to aid the yellow fever sufferers in Florida and prevent the spread of the epidemic. The President expressed great sympathy for the people and instructed the surgeon-general to do all possible for their relief, keeping in view at the same time the safety of others.

That Cyclone.

KEY WEST, Sept. 6.—The Mallory steamer State of Texas arrived here today. She encountered a hurricane twenty miles off Tortugas. Her bulwarks and bulkheads were stove in by a sea. The cabin was gutted and the machinery disabled.

HAVANA, Sept. 6—The cyclone of Tuesday last was terribly destructive, both to life and property. The gunboat Leaflet, lying at Batabano, foundered in the storm, and nine of her crew, including her commander, were drowned.

Advices from Sagua are that fifty persons lost their lives there while the damage done to dwellings and warehouses in the city, to vessels in the harbor and to wharves is very great.

The village of Pueblo Nuevo in the neighborhood of Sagua is literally wiped out. Telegraph wires are badly broken and no news from other parts of the Island has been received.

Railroad Traffic Notes.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—A morning paper declares that the Pacific Coast shippers, patrons of the Southern Pacific, have been allowed to designate the points in the west from which they will buy certain commodities and dictate low rates on those commodities for shipment to San Francisco.

At a meeting of the Pacific Coast Association yesterday it was decided to add any point to the benefit of the commodity tariff to the Pacific Coast, notice must be at once given to Chairman Leeds of the Transcontinental Association for ratification.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—O. A. Blanchard today tendered his resignation as chairman of the Central Traffic Association. He announced to the managers as his reason that he had been unsuccessful in maintaining harmony, owing to the independent course pursued by some of the roads. Upon the solicitation of the managers, Mr. Blanchard agreed to defer final action until January 1st. A committee of eight has been appointed to revise the organization of the Central Traffic Association, with a view to reducing the office expenses and bringing outside lines into the organization.

Mine Fire.

HAZELTON, Pa., Sept. 6.—A serious mine fire is in progress five miles north of this place at the Lattimore colliery, operated by Pardee Brothers. A portion of the workings known as the counter chute on the inside of the slope which was abandened over a year ago, was ignited yesterday. It was impossible to get close to the fire It was decided today to adopt a plan of draining the main, and to this end a stream of water was turned into the workings. Should this be successful the fire will not spread to the other adjoining workings of this section which are all connected and honeycomb the entire distance. It is impossible to get within half a mile of the dre on the inside of the slope and the water running from the dre at that distance is at the boiling point.

The Slave Trade.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—A dispatch from Zanzibar says: A vessel flying the French flag and carrying French papers landed eighty slaves at the Island of Pemba in the presence of the boats of the British man-of-war "Griffin." It is reported that a regular slave traffic is carried on between Pemba and Madagascar with which, in view of the fact that they carry the French flag, the British cruisers are powerless to interfere.

The African Lakes Expedition under the command of Captain Lugard had a fight with the Arab slave dealers in Nymhsi district, June 16. A European attached to the expedition and several black allies were killed; Captain Lugard was wounded. The Arab losses are unknown. It is believed the Arabs retained their position.

Broiling can be done in the oven of the Charter Oak Range or Stove with the Wire Gauze Oven Door, more perfectly than over the live coals.

Lay the steak, chops, ham or fish on a wire broiler or meat rack, placing it in an ordinary bake pan to catch the drippings.

Allow it to remain in the oven with the door closed 15 or 20 minutes. No turning is required. At the end of this time it will be found nicely cooked ready to serve.

THIS IS THE IDEAL WAY TO BROIL MEATS and the meats are more tender and better in flavor than those broiled over the coals. The convenience of broiling in the oven will be appreciated by every housekeeper, and adds another to the many reasons why the Charter Oak Range or Stove with the Wire Gauze Oven Door should be preferred to all others now in the market.
