Veterans Not Satisfied—Junior Vice Commander E. B. Fenton of the Na-tional G. A. R. is in the city over to-day, en route to Los Angeles, and reports marked disaffection among veterans over the choice of Saratoga. N. Y. as the place for holding next year's annual encampment. The be-lief is growing that the hotel keepers there will deece the visitors, and there there will fleece the visitors, and there is a strong move to take the encamp-ment to Detroit, Mich., where they will receive decent treatment. Sara-toga has long held the unenviable rep-uation of being the Vanity Fair of castern fashionable folly and immoral.

From Music to Mathematics-Noel S. Pratt, graduate of the L. D. S. university, 1905, has been engaged by his Alma Mater to take charge of two classes in algebra (previously taught by Prof.Hinckley) for the rest of the school year 1906-7. Mr. Pratt is well known as a young singer, being one of Prof. "Stephen's boys;" is secretary of the tabernacle choir, a son of Mathoni Pratt of Forest Dale ward. He is said to possess not only musical talent in a high degree, but to have inherited the Pratt genius for higher mathematics, and to stand among the first of Utah's young men in that precise and compil-cated science.
