Laurel Hill some were seen to jump into the air in their frantic efforts to escape destruction. Some came down the mountain side and hid beneath logs and rocks near creeks. Above Laurel boro scores of the reptiles, large and small, were seen to mingle upon a rock, jump upward, and run down the hill to the flames.

Rain is now falling, and the fire has been quenched. — Susquehanna Depot, Pa. (May 30) Correspondence of N. Y. Sun.
