PROVO, UTAH.—APRIL 11, 1894.

First District Court.

Boston was tried in the First District Court.

Alice Lewis vs. Joseph Lewis, divorce granted.

Hannah Zimmerman vs. John Zimmerman, divorce granted.

The case on trial is that of Daniel Sprecher vs. Edwin O. Nallison, a self-styled attorney for malicious prosecution. There was a number of lawyers in the city who were asked about the case, and all said nothing. Nallison preferred a charge against Sprecher, at grand jury, alleging that Sprecher had stolen several thousand feet of lumber.

Notes.

WHO WANTS A HOME?

Invitations from North and South to Good Informed People.

HOME IN THE ROCKIES.

Butler, Fremont County, Idaho.

April 8, 1894.

Utah Deseret News.
We are having a fine spring here. Most of the people are busy putting in their crops, and some are getting through. We have a large country, plenty of water, and a very good opportunity for men to get their homes. But, like all new countries, it takes labor to make houses. I would like to encourage the young men of the Latter-day Saints and send out to the country, get them homes and help to settle the country and put in the work of their hands. We have the tools and the land. (Hand over to the Lord.) We have every right in America's cities.

The people in the Rocky mountain seem to be striving to serve the Lord. We have a good Sunday school, Mutual Improvement Association, Relief Society and Primary. We had a good time last Saturday and Sunday at Layton where Presidents George Q. Cannon and Joseph F. Smith gave some good fatherly counsel and advice to the Latter-day Saints.

Yours, W. H. SMITH.

MINA IN THE MOUNTAINS.
Utah Deseret News.

Mina, Nevada, April 4, 1894.—Will you be kind enough to give space in your paper for a few lines? I hope it may be of interest to some who have no home.

We have a fine country here, plenty of good land and water, and a good climate. It is situated in the northern part of Lander County, Nevada, and is known as the Mexican valley, the farming country. You can raise almost anything in the way of vegetables, fruits or all kinds, and grain in abundance—in fact, almost everything we plant grows well.

The town of Mina is a very thick settlement, but the people are all moving in their tents as well as in their permanent homes. There is room for at least fifteen hundred families to make them a comfortable home. We have a fine range for horses, sheep; the country is covered with grass and has cows and all kinds of stock kept the year round. There is some vacant land yet, and plenty of it can be bought at reasonable prices. Many of the people are moving up to their religion and all try to enjoy themselves.

Yours respectfully,

J. M. BREWER.

IN THE MISSIONARY FIELD.

An Elder's Labors—James Walker's Fair Statement—Sunday School Work, Etc.

AMARILLO, Morris Co., Miss.

April 6, 1894.

Utah Deseret News.
I take this opportunity of penning a few lines to the News, following a short account of this part of the missionary field will not come amiss. I left Salt Lake City April 15, 1893, for the southern States mission, arrived at Chattanooga, Tenn., the 14th, and was assigned to labor in the state of Mississippi, in the North Atlantic conference. I labored a short time in LaFayette county, was then transferred to Monroe county, where I have labored ever since.

I have been wonderfully blessed in my labors, being at the same time successful, I have had excellent health in all directions and good treatment.

When I came to this country I was ignorant of the language and literature concerning the doctrine that we teach and our people, it is truly wonderful to see how God has used us to teach them the truth.

The Lord has wrought a great change in the minds of the people of this part of the world since the dedication of the Salt Lake Temple. We are having a great harvest, and probably is being alleged. Another fact to observe is that the people are becoming tired of the adding of their members, mostly between Jesus and you. When they do, then they naturally turn to the politicians and draw down dollars a year—a money to be provided, and in these hard times it is about all the people can do to keep them contented before partaking the gospel.

It is remarkable how far we have moved up the way for the accomplishment of His purposes. I wish to mention an incident which I believe to be unique in the history of the cause. It is a name, Charles W. Walker, one of the firm of Brigham & Walker, prominent bankers, who is a resident of Salt Lake City. He has never even for the duration and until now in whole he represented our people to his father, who resides in the city of Amsterdam, the capital of Holland.

This gentleman, (the late James Walker) is a doctor and physician. He has come to the United States for the purpose of getting a cure for his son, who has been, for many years, suffering from a disease which has been called "the American Disease."

Within five miles of Amherst, a little village town, there are four miles of railroads running, three miles north and south, and half a mile east and west.
