To-night the performance, which is for the benefit of Miss Jean Clara Walters, promises to be one of rare excellence. It

To-night the performance, which is for the benefit of Miss Jean Clars Walters, promises to be one of rare excellence. If commences with the fine old play of "Ingo-mar the Barbarian," in which Mr. Chaplin will appear as "Ingomar," Miss Walters as "Parthenia;" Messrs Marden, Margetts and Thorne, appear respectively as the "Tim-arch of Massillia," "Polydor a Merchant," and "Myron an Armorer. Other characters by the strength of the Company.-The entertainment will conclude with the fairy burlesque, "The Invisible Prince, or the Isle of Tranquil Delights," in which Miss Walters personates "Don Leander," Mr. Chaplin "The Infant Furibond," Mr.-Graham "Bionsbella, Queen of Allaquiz." Other characters, including "Wink--1, (the great Buzzard)," "Noo-deil, (thickhead)," "Xouistelittlepet," "Toxalatotittletattie," "Itzaprettipetticoal," "Binet, the Prin-cess's favorite cat," &a., &a., by Messra. Thorne, Marden, Mackintosh, and oth-ers.

We have on several occasions spoken in We have on several occasions spoken in high terms of the performances of Miss Waiters. She is a very clever and versa-tile actress, does all in her power to make every piece in which she appears a success, and is deserving of a good benefit, and we hope her friends will turn out in force and give her one.

PROSPERING .- We really must congratuinte Judge Hoge and lady upon their late successful ten pound venture, and be permitted to wish all sorts of good things on the head of the little stranger lady added to their domestic establishment. Never say fail. Perseverance generally meets its reward, if one does have to wait a few vears.

SEVERE ACCIDENT .- On the 6th instant, State. Father Richard Atkin, of Toosle City, met told him, Cook, that I The case was adjourned until Thursday to enable the prisoner to procure the sid of counsel. He had endeavored to obtain the services of Mr. Bates, Territorial U. S. Attorney, but that gentleman declined to have anything to do with the case. Here is another splendid chance for legal juggling and judicial sleight of hand, for, as we have already said, the man who according to Cook's statement, is his em-ployer, and who, if that statement be not disproved, will certainly be serious set of harples now infesting this city, who defy the city anthorities and their ordi-nances.

THIED DISTRICT COURT. — This morn-ing, in the case of Lamoreaux vs. Wm. H. Folsom, in ejectment, Thomas Fitch, Esq., asked leave to withdraw the answer filed in the case, and gave notice that he would file a plea in abatement at an early day, on the ground that the matter in dispute is now pending before the Probate Judge of Sait Lake County. Leave was granted to withdraw the answer. The day's session was occupied in setting cases in their order for trial, 63 cases in all. Prospany of a terrible nearly every respectable stranger who may chance to put up at the house. We learn from a most reliable source that the object of the buttonholing operation is to may come here with the intention of stay-ing permanently with regard to the "Mor-mons" and "Mormonism." Now such conduct is small potatoes, and even aside from the respectability and dignity that should surround the character and doings of a representative of a great govern-ment, no genileman with a proper degree of indulge in such petty busi-ness. In fact we did not imagine to indulge in such petty busi-ness. In fact we did not imagine that the very chief of buttonholers has been out of town for some little time. These two prominent individuals should requently with persons who do decidedly object to be bored, and who are not in-spired with the amount of seal they possess for the downfail of "Mormonism," but who come here either to attend to some legitimate business or see what is to be seen, and we therefore advise the suid off to the strangent individuals abound to the state of the two, who is by far the most efficient and indefatigable button-holer, to show a little discrimina-to in the matter, for they certainly would not feel flattered by the expressions of some of their victims the button-holed. Button-holing is a poor business, and is a sure sign of the carpet bagger.

CATTLE STEALING.—Some days ago a resident of Brighton Ward, named Alax-ander, lost four head of cattle from the range, the hides of which he subsequently found at aslaughter house near that place, owned by a person named Smith, who runs a butcher's shop in this city in violation of the city ordinances. From information given to the police, officer John Y. Smith, on Saturday last, arrested a person named Cook, at his residence in the 5th Ward in this City, on suspicion of being the party with a serious mishap. While removing the scaffolding from the new "co-op." shoe store, a plank fell from the building, and striking him on the head, rendered him partially unconscious for several days. The injury was severe, but we are gratified to learn that Brother Atkin is slowly pro-gressing towards convalescence. RECEIVED.—Report of the Joint Com-mittee of Manufactures of the Legislatize
