Venor predicts a comfortable December. That is a venousome prediction, in view of the present prospect for it.

The Home Dramatic Club will present "Our Boarding House," at the Theatre on Monday night. We hope it will be a good house.

The Denver Tribune offers to furnish publishers with supplements of the President's message, the day after its delivery at very reasonable rates.

Sisters E. R. Snow Smith, M. I. Herne, and Louise Felt left this morning, to attend a meeting of the Primary Association, of North Jordan, (Taylorsville).

The house of Mr. Charles Chene, of Mount Fort, Weber County, was entered by thieves, who carried off $15. So we learn from the Ogden Herald.

We have been shown a photographic group of the ten missionaries that recently left for the Sandwich Islands and New Zealand. It was taken by Taber, of San Francisco, and is good.

Last Sunday evening, R. J. M. Bee, Esq., of Bloomington, fell from his wagon and inflicted a severe scalp wound of about three inches in length. He is progressing finely.—Bear Lake Democrat.

John Keen, professional bicyclist, C. D. Vesey, amateur long distance champion; R. Patrick, professional; and P. G. Lane, amateur walker, arrived in New York Wednesday morning, from England.

Denver physicians express the opinion that the numerous cases of typhoid fever in that city are caused by impure water in wells. What are the chief causes of Salt Lake cases is an important question.

Judge Hunter has issued another writ of habeas corpus, directing that Justice Pyar, commanding him to show cause why he should not send liquor cases up to the District Court on appeal, without being paid all the costs of his court.

A private telegram says but 20 miles of track remain to be laid on the eastern end of the Southern Pacific, to form connection with the Texas Pacific. The filling of this gap will give a through line between New Orleans and San Francisco.

A young Swede, named Jorstrom, died in the hospital at Denver, Sunday, from overeating after long fasting. He was employed at Argo, and had $100 saved, but was too miserly to supply himself with food, and having an opportunity to get a meal free, ate such a quantity that it resulted fatally.

George G. Cannon has reached Washington, loaded and primed, ready for battle. He proposes to retain his seat as delegate from Utah, at all hazards, against Mr. Campbell, whom he defeated by some 18,000 votes at the last election. The Gullies in Utah will be glad to see Cannon would go off.—Omaha Bee.

A poor man of Paris Bear Lake Valley, was approached by a person who wanted to obtain a part of his land upon which to establish a saloon. His reply was that he would lease his land for such a purpose, if he were offered a dollar an inch for every minute it was used. So says the Democrat. That man must be a good Latter-day Saint.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

At Moroni.—President Taylor passed last night at Moroni, Sanpete County.

Diplomas.—The diplomas awarded at the Territorial Fair are now ready and can be had at C. R. Savage's Art Bazaar.

A. M. MUESSER.

Not a Nice Man.—People living in the Eleventh Ward complain that their water supply from Red Butte is frequently restricted and cut off through the operations of an ice man, who turns it into his ponds. He deals in ice, but the citizens who have reason for complaint don't think him a nice man, by any means.

Arrival of Missionaries.—By letter from Hugo D. E. Peterson, we learn that the following Elders from Utah arrived at Copenhagen, Denmark, at 10:30, on the 5th of November:

J. E. Frost, of Ephraim; Morten Rasmussen, Mount Pleasant; A. C. Nielsen, Ephraim; Frederick Peterson and Hans C. Hansen, Gunnison; A. L. Anderson and Bent Larsen, Monroe; John W. West, Jordan; Andrew Hansen, Midway; and Thomas C. Christensen.

First Consignment.—The first consignment of young carpfish for Utah will be ordered to-morrow. Cans for the Weber district will be received at Echo City, Summit County, by Mr. Joseph A. A. Bunt. Cans for places south of Salt Lake City will be at once sent to the owners. These cans are well protected from the cold and the waters constantly aerated by a dipper. Mr. Barfoot is sanguine of success in the transportation of the carp from Washington to this city.

Shooting on the Denver and Rio Grande Grade.—Killing scrapes are very frequent in some of the western railroad camps. A few days ago an incident of this kind occurred at Harman's Camp, Colorado. Frank Moynihan and A. L. Riley, both laborers on the Denver and Rio Grande grade, had a quarrel. Moynihan claimed Riley owed him $10. They had some trouble in the morning, which resulted in Riley's striking Moynihan with a stick about 5 p.m., when Moynihan approached Riley with a revolver, demanding his $10 or he would shoot him. Riley drew his revolver, and shot Moynihan, the ball taking effect in his right eye, killing him instantly. Riley proceeded to Denver and delivered himself up to the officers.

MOVEMENTS OF PRESIDENT TAYLOR AND PARTY.

Editor Deseret News:

Wednesday, Nov. 24.

All being ready, at 9 a.m., the President and party proceeded to Kingston, Idaho, to the State, Dea, and Myron accompanying.

While at our noon encampment, Bishop I. W. Crosby joined the party, he on his way home from the Lake City. A special meeting of the leading men of the Panguitch Stake present, with President Taylor and brethren, was held at 4:45, and various items of interest were considered.

At 6:30, a general meeting was held, at which President Woodruff, Elder Richards and President Taylor spoke.

Thursday, Nov. 24.

At 8:45 started for Monroe. Elder Culbert King accompanied on horse back. The roads are good; rather more snow at Hillsdale and down along the river than on any portion of the route.

Arrived at 12:30 at Monroe. Elder Henry Clark and nine young men, well mounted, met the party, they having come from Richfield to escort the President to that place. Brother Hugo D. Disson, a having sent an invitation to the President and party to take lunch at his home at the above place. Arrived at 1:30 at 12 m.; found Brother Disson's sick in bed with an attack of pleurisy, but somewhat better—his family had lunch prepared which was taken at 1:30. Arrived at 2:30 at Bro. Lisson's, rolled out for Monroe. About five miles out we were met by another mounted escort from Monroe. Arrived at 4:30. While at Bro. Lisson's, and during the morning, several of our horses showed signs of sickness and blood. Shortly after 10 a.m. Brother Disson, who was taken to the hospital at Richfield, died. He was a native of Bro. House, of Nephi, died very suddenly; the other animals are much better than in the morning.

At 5 p.m. the party at this place.

Monday, Nov. 25.

At 10 a.m. meeting was held. Elder Nutt all offered prayer. Elder Richards and Pres. Taylor were the speakers, and Pres. Woodruff dismissed.

Home on Monday.—President Taylor and party purpose attending Conference at Provo to-morrow, and Sunday, and will therefore not reach home until Monday.

In the Second Degree.—Frank Barnes, who pleaded "guilty" of the Hinkley murder case, has been adjudged guilty of murder in the second degree.

Feats of a Cheyenne "Crack".—The "Crack" man appears to have struck Cheyenne. The Leader of Tuesday has the following:

Something of a sensation was created on Sunday morning by the sudden appearance upon the open street, of a man entirely in the garb of nature, and who paraded along the thoroughfare with all the nonchalance imaginable. As he wandered down the street, Constable Nolan and Officer Smith started in pursuit and captured him. Covered in a civilized garb, he was persuaded to clothe himself, but remained in a nude state until yesterday morning, when he arrayed himself in a civilized garb.

On a previous occasion in the country, he went out in a nude state into the snow, knelt and commenced praying, but when his friends came after him he broke away and ran a long distance to a neighboring ranch giving the occupants a serious fright at the strange apparition.

In conversation with a reporter, Hotchkiss said: "I had been drinking some was doing so before I started from Cheyenne. For this reason, I am a man that has been given to evil practices; that was my trouble. I know what was the matter with me, and when I got into the water my guilt was washed from me and I came forth a pure man. Then I was inspired to show the world that I was pure."
