See Up the Alphabet.

A family is living through the alphabet passing its many children, beginning with Alice Beatrice Candace and ending with Xerxes York Xanthus. All nine are living, and the oldest is only 14 years old, but there are one pair of twins in the lot, while one up six others of the alphabet. The children are well educated, by writing their letters for show.—Private Eye.

M. Heflin, a Princess agent, desires that I write back. They can be obtained in any city or town by the purchase of certain specially designed needles. These needles are made by a little air blower, which is alternately distended and contracted.
