Trollope, Reade and Carlyle are all rich.

A little girl lost her head by cracking a torpedo with her teeth.

A Detroit woman attempted to smuggle twenty-three pounds of butter across the line under her clothes. It melted and betrayed her.

A Bostonian in Omaha recently bought what he supposed was a buffalo, for $300. It turned out to be a red mule.

An Iowa paper advertises for "a girl to learn the printing trade, who will wear pants and sew wood."

A little girl, seeing a litter of kittens for the first time, expressed her opinion "that somebody had shaken pussy all to pieces."

A New Orleans merchant suicided because his wife kissed another man by mistake.

A female lodge of Odd Fellows is being organized at Toronto, Canada.

Windsor forest has about 1,700 deer. The Athol forest, in Scotland, has 30,000 deer in its 30,000 acres.

The son of King Theodorus, of Abyssinia, of whom so much has been heard, is exhibiting himself in a London Circus.

Boston is to have a "Citizens' Association," to look after local affairs, of which a rule is that "no member is to be a candidate for office."

Henry C. Bowen, of the Independent, to whom M. Beecher will not speak, paid the second largest premium, $390, for his pew in Plymouth church.

A Hoboken man who went to the police station to recover his lost hat, was locked up and fined five dollars for not knowing where he lost his hat.

Trinity church, New York, with its three chapels, has 1,140 communicants, and the St. George, of which Dr. Tyng is rector, 1,600 communicants.

Since gold was first discovered in Victoria it has contributed over seventy-six million dollars to the national revenue, and over $737,713,834 to the bullion exports of the colony.

A little three year old girl in New Orleans recently astonished her mother—who attempted to correct her—by motioning her away with a chubby little hand and scornfully saying, "Shoo, fly, don't bodder me!"

The Omaha Herald says The "Reverend" George Francis Train and the "Reverend" Henry Ward Beecher are having a high old season in New York. The one performs at Tammany, and the other at Plymouth, and "draw" about equally.

I serenaded Sophia once when she was but a tender lass; and the greeting which I received for my musical device has never been fully appreciated by me. It was the wildest hour of night, when churchyards yawn. Everything was hushed and stillness reigned profound. I commenced to sing, "I Bring a Little Flower to Thee." Sophia was hanging out of the window, and it was through her solicitation that I endeavored to warble this precious piece: "I Bring a Little Flower to Thee." Sophia's tyrannical papa stuck his head out of the window, and in a voice of thunder roared: "Well, just set it on the doorstep, and don't make so much fuss about such a wretched little flower."

A correspondent writes: "Winter is upon us in rigor, and many persons are not so well off for bedclothes as could be wished. Well, if they will take two or three newspapers, stitch them together and lay them over the bed under the coverlet, they will be astonished to find how much extra warmth they get. Blankets are dear; newspapers are cheap, and even the poorest would be able to beg as many old ones as they want of richer neighbors. If you want to be very snug, use thick brown paper, which can be bought very cheaply in large sheets, and stitch it in the inside of the blanket or coverlet (double if you like), letting the latter overlap the paper a few inches round the edge, which will let it sit closer and tuck in better. Of course it is the close texture of the paper which keeps in the natural warmth of the body and keeps out the cold air. Beat and wrap and tuck in the paper lined coverlet, just as if there were no paper there."—Liverpool Mercury.

An exchange says that there may be seen daily on Chestnut street, Philadelphia, a man clad in filthy apparel, with a great diamond upon his breast, vainly endeavoring to outglitter the magnificent solitaire upon his finger. In a German university he learned chemistry, and not even Leibig knew it better. His occupation is the mixing and the adulteration of liquors. Give him a dozen casks of deodorized alcohol, and the next day each of them will represent the name of a genuine wine or a popular spirit. He enters a wholesale drug store, bearing a large basket on his arm. Five pounds of Iceland moss are first weighed out to him. To raw liquor this imparts a degree of smoothness or oleaginousness, that gives to imitation brandy the glossiness of that which is best matured. An astringent called catechu, that would almost close the mouth of an inebriate, is next in order. A couple of ounces of strychnine, next called for, are quickly conveyed to the vest pocket, and a pound of sulphate of zinc (white vitriol) is as silently placed in the bottom of the basket. The oil of cognac, the sulphuric acid, and other articles that give fire and body to the liquor poison, are always kept in store. These things are the staple of his art, and the mixer buys them at different places. Chemistry alone discovers the cheat. Among the drinkers the question is asked with alarm, "Have we Bourbon among us?"

HOUSE.

Butler attacks Daves—Daves Replies.

Butler (Mass.) addressed the committee in reply to the speech of his colleague Daves. He reviewed the speech at length, claiming that the assertions were not based upon facts, nor even upon mistaken views of facts. He said the excess of the estimates for the first year of Grant's administration over the expenditures of the last year of Johnson's was caused by the fact that the outgoing securities in order to make good their showing, abandoned all public works and under-estimated every possible expenditure so as to embarrass the incoming administration and that their estimates were based on large unexpended balances. He reviewed the estimates for the different departments seriatim. He devoted a large portion of his speech to a personal and political criticism of Daves whom he accused of attacking the Republican party for the purpose of self aggrandizement. At the conclusion of his speech Daves replied briefly defending himself from the personal attack of Butler and declaring that no personal attacks shall attract attention to his purpose and his endeavor to stop them. The committee then rose and the House adjourned.

NEW YORK.

An easy route for the Darien Canal discovered—Lottery complications—Eric Strike ended—Small Fox—McFarland's Marriage Certificate stolen—Attempted Wife Murderer, the wife refuses to testify and is committed for contempt—The Alexander mystery—The Fenians propose to capture Prince Arthur and hold him as a hostage.

New York.—Panama advises per the Arizona say that an easy and practicable route for the Darien Canal has been discovered by which the waters of the Pacific and Atlantic can be united within five years. The proposed line is outside the limits of the Panama Railroad Company. The eastern entrance is at Puerto Conado, where vessels can anchor in seventeen to forty fathoms of water. The western entrance is at Santa Metros Real. The distance between the oceans is thirty-eight and a half leagues. The estimated cost is seventy millions.

New York, 27.—The lottery litigation business, involving John Morrissey, Benjamin Wood, John Anderson, Zachariah Simmons and others, was on argument before Judge Cardozo yesterday without reaching a conclusion.

The Erie strike is about over. The strikers have failed and a number are beginning to go back to work. There were only six new cases of small pox reported yesterday, less than half the number reported on the previous day. On the other hand ten deaths are reported, whereas none occurred on Tuesday.

The marriage certificate of A. D. Richardson and Miss Abbey Sage has mysteriously disappeared from the office of vital statistics, where it was filed on Saturday. It will be replaced by a duplicate to be obtained from the officiating clergyman.

Francis R. Mills, an engineer, is charged with having attempted to murder his wife, at Gowanus, on the 16th inst. He was yesterday taken before Justice Nelmar and, after the examination of a number of witnesses, was committed to await the action of the Grand Jury. His wife, who refused to testify against him, was committed for contempt.

In the Morgue yesterday the body of John Alexander, supposed to have been murdered; was examined by Coroner Flynn and Dr. Doremus. The latter took charge of the stomach for chemical analysis. Nobody yet knows what became of Alexander's sixty thousand dollars. The mystery deepens.

The Irish citizens are indignant that a ball should be given in honor of Prince Arthur.

A secret meeting of Fenians has been held at which it was proposed to capture the Prince and hold him as a hostage for the Fenians now in prison in England. The proposition was earnestly pressed but rejected. The Erie strikers held a secret meeting yesterday, lasting several hours. A committee from their body waited upon Flak and Gould in an endeavor to come to some amicable arrangement. They acknowledge themselves beaten and disclaim taking any part in the riot of Tuesday. They said they would assist in protecting the men. It is understood that a considerable number have been reinstated. Some will not be taken under any consideration. At five o'clock there was an assemblage of 1500 persons near the Erie shops. A strong police force conducted the workmen to the ferry boat. No demonstration was made except by a few crazy-headed women.

CALIFORNIA.

Fell dead—A little girl outraged and murdered—Woman's State Suffrage Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, 26.—Edward Cordel, commanding the United States survey steamer Starbuck, dropped dead in the street last night, from congestion of the brain.

Thecity is excited over the horrible murder of a little girl, six and a half years of age, who was first outraged and then killed. When the perpetrator was arrested it was with difficulty—the police carried him to prison as the mob endeavored to rescue and lynch him.

The Women's State Suffrage Convention met here to-day; about three hundred were present, the women predominating.

MAINE.

Why Mr. Peabody's remains are not landed.

PORTLAND.—The reason for not landing Mr. Peabody's remains till Saturday is that the British instructed Captain Commerrett that the remains must lie in state aboard the Monarch two days after her arrival.

WASHINGTON.

Virginia Forgotten.

Although the President this morning approved of the bill admitting Virginia to representation in Congress, the House has not been notified thereof and the Senators and Republicans elect were all day in waiting at the capitol to be sworn in.

ILLINOIS.

Judge Busted's case—The St. Thomas and St. Domingo Treaties.

CHICAGO, 27.—Washington specials say there is a probability that the House committee will report, exonerating Judge Busted from the charges against him. Thus far none of the charges have been sustained. The Judge leaves the whole investigation to the committee, not attempting any defense.

The St. Thomas treaty, and probably the San Domingo treaty, will be considered at the next meeting of the foreign affairs committee. Some members favor the considering of both at the same time with reference to the policy of outside territorial acquisition, but the friends of St. Domingo want the St. Thomas treaty out of the way first. The President who has been strongly in favor of the purchase of St. Thomas has said he would be willing to yield this to save St. Domingo. The general feeling in the Senate seems to be against both projects, but the result is uncertain.

The House military committee have agreed to abolish brevet rank. The bill will probably be reported to-day or tomorrow.

GEORGIA.

House Organized—Speaker Chosen.

ATLANTA.—The house of representatives organized to-day. R. E. McWhorter, Republican, was chosen speaker over J. E. Bryant Conservative, by 24 majority. Three members of the house have been declared ineligible by the military commission, while the seats of sixteen members are declared vacant from their refusal and failure to take the oath required by the laws of the United States.

VIRGINIA.

Legislature to meet on the 5th proximo.

RICHMOND.—Governor Walker, upon receipt of the information of the President's signing the Virginia bill will issue a proclamation calling the Legislature together on February 8th. Gen. Canby will give up the control of State affairs when the Legislature meets.

RHODE ISLAND.

One Lady shoots Another.

PROVIDENCE.—Mrs. Stollif attempted to kill Mrs. Adrienne B. Mercer while the latter was entering her residence this evening, by shooting her with a revolver. Mrs. Mercer is slightly wounded. It is a case of jealousy; both parties move in respectable circles.

NEW JERSEY.

The Slaughter House nuisance.

TRENTON.—The bill lately introduced to restrain the Communipaw Abattoirs Company from killing more than a hundred hogs on any day, and compelling the pens to be built a thousand feet apart, is creating much excitement among the members of the company, whose business will be practically destroyed by its passage.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANCE.

No reduction of the French Army—Another Holy Father in trouble—The Pope said to be Dead—A Universal Currency—Death of the Duke of Broglie.

PARIS.—It is said that no reduction will be made in the French army this year, because of the recent troubles in Paris and elsewhere.

The majority in the Chambers have resolved to leave each member free to discuss commercial questions according to his own convictions and not to make the final vote a test of the strength of the government. It is probable this act will prevent a change in the ministry.

It is rumored that Father Gratieny will be superseded, as superior of the order of orators, on account of his letter on the Ecumenical Council. The papal authorities have forbidden the publication by the bishops of the contents of the letter written by him to the Archbishop of Molines. It is supposed that in his letter the bishop commits himself decidedly against the dogma of infallibility.

Midnight.—A rumor of the death of the Pope is in circulation but cannot be traced to any authentic source.

PARIS 27.—The Senate, yesterday, discussed the proposition for an international coinage system. Messrs. Chevalier, Legerrier and others, participated in the debate and urged the adoption of a coin equivalent to 25 francs as a universal unit.

The Duke of Broglie, the leading member of the Orleansists, died here yesterday. He was 85 years old. Nothing further has been heard from Rome as to the rumored death of the Pope.

HAYTI.

Salave Captured and Executed.

Salave was captured in the woods near Saltero, in the South and taken to Port Au Prince, where he was heavily ironed and cast into prison. The people here went into ecstasies over his capture. The event was celebrated for days by processions, dancing in the streets and festivities of all kinds. A hundred and fifty of Salave's followers were captured with him, many of whom were executed. Salave himself was sentenced to death and shot on the 10th inst. The new President will be elected on the 1st of February.

DUBLIN.

Meeting broken up by Fenians.

A tenants' rights meeting at Dunganon was broken up, last night, by Fenians.

SPAIN.

Spain has declared against Montenegro—Montenenser not elected—Foreign Consulates abolished.

MADRID.—The election returns from the provinces are delayed by heavy snow. So far as heard from, the country has declared against a monarchy. Of the candidates known to be elected, four are Unionist, forty Democrats, ten Progressives, six Republicans and one Carlist. The defeat of the Duke of Montpensier at Oviedo, is confirmed.

The Spanish consulates at Mobile, Jamestown, Charleston and Sydney, and the vice consulates at Savannah, and the city of Mexico are suppressed for the present. The consul for Spain at Mobile is transferred to be vice consul at New York.
