

Lebarlast eve. All the passengers, luggage was taken on board, though the freight and the passengers embarked this morning in the steamer Leon for Halifax.

HALIFAX, 11.—The only statement that Captain Phillips has made was to Captain Doane to the effect that he could only account for the accident by the compass being out of order, as he had not obtained an observation that he could rely on during the whole voyage, and therefore could not correct the deviation and local attractions. He saw nothing to indicate a change in the water till the ship struck. The thought, when the steamer first touched ground, was that she was at the south point of George's shoal. He got his boat down and went on shore to ascertain his exact position, and if he could land passengers. Pilots were then procured, who aided the officers and crew in taking the passengers off, which was speedily and successfully accomplished.

ST. LOUIS, 11.—A terrible accident occurred at the Barclay coal mines, four miles from this city, to-day. An immense piece of slate fell in one of the shafts, and instantly killed four men.

Brown was convicted upon his own voluntary confession. He lately professed to have experienced a religious conversion, and passed most of his time in singing and praying.

RICHMOND, 11.—George Bell, a negro, was found murdered near Chuckatock, Nansemond County, yesterday; he had been shot five times. No clue to the perpetrators.

The Herald's London special of the 11th says a marriage has finally been arranged between the Duke of Edinburgh and the Grand Duchess Maria Alexandrowna, only daughter of the Emperor of Russia. NEW YORK, 12.—Kate Stoddard, the confessed murderess of Goodrich, last evening spent the time playing on her piano, in the captain's room at the station house in Brooklyn. The police of the station say that she is an educated and refined woman, but a little touched. Roscoe's capture last night was considered certain, as there was a large force in search of him. The police commissioners are under the impression that Kate Stoddard is assuming the responsibility in order to shield another, and that person is, they believe, Roscoe.

The difficulties between sailor landlords and the shipping commissioners are settled.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—The proceedings in the Gordon case at Fort Barry developed facts which materially change the complexion of affairs. It has been all along understood that the American party was arrested by the Manitoba officers on British soil, but the evidence proves that the arrest was made south of the line located by the new boundary survey. It is expected that the friends of the prisoners will at once apply to the American authorities to demand their release of the Manitoba government.

HAVANA.—It is stated that two entire Spanish regiments have revolted against the Captain General. Several Spanish camps in Puerto Principe have been withdrawn and the forts in the northern section of the island are being abandoned by the Spaniards.

FORT KLAMATH, Oregon, 10, via Yreka, 11.—The military commission for the trial of the Modocs, met at this place on the 5th inst., and concluded their labors yesterday at eleven o'clock a. m. The commission is entitled to every consideration for the impartiality and latitude shown to the prisoners during the trial. The evidence for the prosecution was of the most positive character, leaving no doubt in the minds of those who listened to it of the guilt of the prisoners arraigned. The only witnesses produced for the defense were Scar Faced Charley, Dave, One Eyed Mose and William. Their evidence amounted to nothing in favor of the prisoners. It was simply a recital of what the Klamath Lake Indians had done and told the Modocs since this trouble commenced. The only testimony produced by the prosecution, which was of no value, was that of Mr. Dyar, the Indian agent of the Klamath reservation. He could swear to nothing positively, except that he accompanied General Canby and the peace commissioners to the council tent on the 11th of April. No doubt exists in the minds of those who listened to the trial, but that the commissioners have found them guilty of the charges and specifications for which they were tried. The soldiers and citizens of this place took a lively interest in the trial; the prisoners were also very attentive and seemed to rely upon the commission for justice.

MARYSVILLE, Cal., 11.—An unsuccessful attempt was made this afternoon, about three o'clock, to rob the banking house of Decker and Jewitt. One of the robbers, named Frank Whipple, entered the bank and walked deliberately up to Mr. Jewitt, who stood at his desk, just inside the counter, and presented a pistol at him, saying, "Don't you move, don't you move." Mr. Jewitt instantly dropped on his hands and knees, and made his way to a small enclosure where the chief clerk, Mr. Bingham, was engaged with the books. Whipple immediately leaped over the counter and followed Mr. Jewitt. On hearing the alarm, Mr. Bingham drew his pistol, and as the two entered the enclosure, he fired, and it is thought shot Whipple in the back of the neck. A general fight ensued, Whipple striking Mr. Bingham on the head with his pistol, cutting a severe gash and felling him to the floor. He also struck Jewitt on the head, with little effect. Several shots were fired within the enclosure. Whipple, finding the place too hot, started to run, when both Mr. Jewitt and Bingham grasped a double-barrelled shot gun and fired simultaneously. Passing out at the front door he fell to the sidewalk, mortally wounded, crying, "Don't shoot any more, I have got enough, give me some water." He was taken to the station-house, and gave the name of his accomplices as John Tony and A. P. Winkley, alias Dutch Bill. One of the others followed Whipple into the bank, but as nothing was seen of him after his first entrance it is supposed that he thought the place too hot for him and left on horseback.

The police found in a house, No. 135 East 87th street, the decomposed body of Charlotte Willett, aged 55, who occupied the house alone, and who had not been seen for several weeks. When the body was found it was half eaten with rats, which swarmed in the room.

Captain E. A. Neilson, Judge Durrant, of California, and other passengers of the City of Washington, arrived here to-day. All unite in ascribing the loss of the vessel to the carelessness, and inability of the captain to perform his duty properly, in consequence of sickness.

NEW HAVEN.—Michael Higgins, a farm laborer of Cheshire, stabbed J. O'Neil on Saturday night in the abdomen, from the effects of which he died to-day. A search for Higgins resulted in the discovery of his dead body in a room of the farm house. It is supposed he died of heart disease, superinduced by excitement. Higgins insulted O'Neil's wife, and hence the murder.

ALBANY.—A fire in Greenbush, Renssaler Co., opposite Albany, this evening destroyed twenty-four dwellings located on Broadway, Columbia and Academy streets, also Collender's lumber yard and Reno's and Traver's coal yards; the loss is estimated at between $150,000 and $200,000. The insurance is small. A boy named Brodt was burned to death.

NEW YORK.—The Times's special from Boston gives the following account of the treatment the steerage passengers of the City of Washington received after being landed from the wreck: The weather was cold and wet, and some were absolutely without shelter of any sort for five days and nights, with nothing but the rocks for a bed. An old sail cloth protected some from the elements, but there was great suffering, particularly among the women and children. They suffered from hunger, the food that was given them being for the most part unfit to eat and very scanty in quantity, consisting principally of hard crackers and beef. Some of the latter was absolutely putrid, and half starved though they were they could not force it down. They believe that by more effort on the part of the ship's officers they could have fared much better in this and every other respect. Another complaint, although not general, is that of the loss of personal effects and money, the taking of which they charge to the ship's crew.

It is now stated that the killing of Deputy U. S. Marshal Stevenson in Jersey City was a deliberately planned murder, and that the inquest will develop the fact that the murderer was not a Russian sailor, but a boarding house keeper who had been concealing sailor deserters.

Jacob Hoffman and William Eberhardt were so burned during the fire at Eberling's brewery, Morrisiana, last Tuesday, that they died at the German Hospital.

GRAND RAPIDS, M.—At three o'clock to-day this city was visited by another terrible fire. It was first discovered in an alley near Bridge Street House, in a barn located in Kent Street. Being dry, and a high wind blowing, within a few minutes, the entire building, a large double brick, was a sheet of flame, and notwithstanding that the firemen were early on the ground and at work, it was soon beyond control and spread in all directions, consuming everything in its way from Bridge Street to Trowbridge, and from the Canal to Division Street, except the buildings fronting south on Bridge Street and west on Canal Street battery. A Gay's furniture warehouse, Rice & Pearce's flouring mill, two or three adjoining buildings on the south, and a quantity of lumber on a lot next the Ohio House, was all that was burned on Canal Street. About twenty acres of ground were burned over, and two hundred buildings consumed. The loss cannot be less than $300,000. It is impossible at present to give the amount of insurance, but it will approximate to $200,000. At this hour the fire is entirely under control, and no further damage is probable.

PRINCETON, Cal., 13.—The officers overtook the Toney bank robber near Jacinto last night, and chased him twelve miles to the brush in the foot hills. He is handcuffed and has no weapons except a small knife. Several parties are in chase, and he will probably be caught within a few days.

There are serious difficulties in regard to Reuter's concession. Reuter is a million and a half dollars out of pocket. He deposited $250,000 as a guarantee on the contract and expended an unusually large sum in bribes to secure the contract. He also loaned the Shah, at 5 per cent., one million dollars. The money will never be repaid now. There is a curious intrigue around the Shah to make him cancel the concession. The Shah was brought out by Reuter to help float his schemes, but other London financiers appeared, and have told the Shah's suite that the concession was worth more than Reuter was paying. Mirza Lasson Ali Vahn, Minister of Public Works, is against him. Reuter would like to sell the concession, but in the face of such difficulties it is doubtful if it has any value.

The Herald's London special correspondent at Schikanik, on river Oxus, June 4th, old style, on staff of Gen. Hauffman, telegraphs that he sent the details of military operations prior to the capture of Khiva, but the dispatch was delayed at Orenburg, owing to inability to wire a foreign language. Gen. Hauffman crossed the Oxus, June 1st, with ten pieces of artillery, two mitrailleuses, 150 infantry and 600 cavalry. Having passed Adankulan May 1st, and the water being scarce, the camels were sent back for a supply, causing a delay of one week. Gen. Hauffman attacked Adamkurselanamd, and repulsed the famous Bryard Sadick Naltack. Though suffering terribly from the want of water, Kauffman pushed forward, reaching Oackan on the Oxus, skirmishing all the way. The last twenty miles he reached water, and charged the Turkomans, capturing eleven boats. Following the river for fifty miles he arrived opposite this station. On May 28th, at a strong fort on the left bank, Gen. Golovaschhoff opened fire and silenced the Khivan guns. ADMITTED BEST.—Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is universally admitted to be the best in use, and having used it for a number of years we have no hesitation in adding our testimony as to its merits. There is nothing deleterious in its composition, an important consideration in view of the numerous preparations put up and palmed off, without consideration as to their effect upon the health of the consumers. Dr. Price's Special Flavorings, extracted from the fruit, are really the most desirable flavors we ever used. ds&wle
